the Recorder suggested that the crosswarmination wat not justified to this longth, because it was immaterial whethor the facts stated by her to Mr.
McFarland were true or not, but whether they were communicated or not to Mr.
The only possible use he could see for it was to clear Mrs. McFarland from the appraions thrown on her by this witness.
They were not trying that issue in this Court.

Mr. Davis argued that they had a right to examine into the facts. It was presumable that what this witness had told McFarland was true, however she might now be throwed. But were they not at liberty, after the charges which had been thrown broadcast against Mrs. McFarland, to show that there was no criminal communification between her and Ruch ardsop.

Last evening was an occasion of great interest to the members and friends of the army of the Cumberland met yes to five young Men's Christian Association, of which our city is so justly proud. It is a fact well known that during the past year the organization has increased so rapidly in influence and numbers that their headquarters were found insufficient to accommodate those engaged in the work, and measures were taken to secure another location. The result of these efforts terminated in the leasing of the former quarters of the Mercantile of the former quarters of the Mercantile content. A Lowrie, Lieutenant S.P.
