THE Democracy of California are not all ideots, after all. We printed lately the fiaming exhortation which fifty or more members of the Legislature, of that purty, addressed to the Sacramento county clerk, encouraging him to reject colored votes from the registry. After that letter resched the Clerk, he thought better of the nullification question, and enrolled the name of every colored applicant in the voting lists:

THE last Perseylvania Legislature with the same of every colored applicant in the voting lists:

THE last Perseylvania Legislature with the same of every colored applicant in the other charges against confident that the other charges against the confide laws, and over fourteen hundred local private and corporation jobs. The last Ohio Legislature passed seventy three general laws, forty three local laws and while our own State permits her legisla-tors to make "an honest living" by the
