

U. P. CHURCH.

12th Annual Session of the General Assembly.

SERMON BY REV. R. A. BROWN, D. D.

Subject: "Christian Unity."

PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Report of Home Missions Board.

At the opening of the General Assembly, the Rev. R. A. Brown, D. D., preached a sermon on the subject of "Christian Unity." The subject was timely and important, and the discourse was listened to with great interest. The Rev. Dr. Brown's sermon was a most able and eloquent exposition of the subject. He showed that the unity of the Church is not a mere matter of words, but a matter of fact, and that it is the duty of every Christian to strive for it. He also pointed out the many obstacles which stand in the way of Christian unity, and he exhorted the members of the Church to overcome them. The sermon was well received, and the members of the Church were deeply impressed by it.
