

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Allegheny County.

GAZETTE BUILDING: Corner of Sixth Street and Smithfield Street.

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1870.

Gold closed in New York on Saturday at 114 1/2 @ 114.

THE SUPREME COURT OF Pennsylvania concluded its term at Harrisburg on the 27th. Only three Justices were sitting.

The Cherokee, Creek and Choctaw Indians protest against the cession of the new Territory of Oklahoma.

We witnessed, on Saturday, a double touching in the presence of Gen. Meade with us today.

APPROXIMATELY a striking argument with which our Representative, Gen. Meade, had occasion to repeat the doctrine of a freetrader in the lobby of Congress.

ONE BRANCH of Congress, the Senate, has approved of a proposition to relieve that body of the direct care of the District of Columbia.

IN CONNECTION with the annexed quotation from an address made, the other day, by President Garfield, of the B. & O. Railway.

THE PROPOSAL of an independent railway company, subsequently repudiated their obligations under some new charter.
