Mr. Butler en-tered the church, which was crowdied, ac' companied by two policemen. Anöther minister had taken his place in the pulpit, who was ordered out, and roughly handled by the police. When Mr. Butler made an attgrapt to preach the gas was extin-grained, and he was forcibly removed. The whole church then became a scene of confusion and uproar, and in the fraces several blows were struck. Capt. Greer and a signad of police from the North pre-cinct, entered the church and put an end to the disgraceful scene by dispersing the congregation and arresting two of the ringleaders.
