During a recent stay in that city we visited the store to discover whether such enterprise paid, and found in attendance at least five hundred purchasers, and a constant stream of men, women and children was pouring in and out, making the place appear to be the grand centre of attraction. Many of our home dry goods dealers might profitably follow the example of Hopkins & Co., or write to them to discover whether advertising does or does not pay.

THE PENNSYLVANIA GAME

LAWS.

We print below, by request, the game laws of our State. Such laws have become necessary in all of the more thickly populated portions of the country, and it is every man's duty to denounce any infringment of them which may come to his notice. In many places, through neglect of this, game of all kinds have been almost or altogether exterminated. Every farmer and fruit raiser should especially make it his business to see that insectiverous birds receive all the protection which the law affords.
