257 Broadway, New York Grand Literary and Artistic Combination Arrangements have been made to furnish the KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE, the HOME JOURNAL, and the New YORK MUSICAL World and Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year! This is cheap literature, with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dollars : year, is a fact truly worthy the Caloric age which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbocker Mrgazine, edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark, it is unnecessary to speak .-For twenty years it has been the most genial, humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preceded it. The Home Journal, edited by Goo, P. Horris, and N. P.
