POISONING.

DR. J. LANTZ, DENTIST.

Has permanently located himself in Stroudsburg, and moved his office next door to Dr. S. Walton, and nearly opposite S. Melick's Jewelry store, where he is fully prepared to treat the natural teeth, and also to insert incorruptible artificial teeth on pivot and plate, in the latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trusting their work to the ignorant as well as the traveling dentist. It matters not how much experience a person may have, he is liable to have some failures out of a number of cases, and if the dentist lives at a distance, it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the tooth or teeth as it may be, otherwise the inconvenience and trouble of going so far.—Hence the necessity of obtaining the services of a dentist near home. All work warranted. April 25, 1853.

The subscriber would hereby inform the public generally, that he has taken the store-room formerly occupied by George H. Miller, opposite Jacob Kuecht's tavern, and that he has lately purchased a new lot of Goods, which he will sell low for Cash or Country produce.
