

The Jeffersonian. Thursday, February 2, 1854.

The pupils of the Stroudsburg Academy intend holding an exhibition, Friday evening, February 10th, at the Court House. Exercises will consist of Declamation and singing, admission 121 cents. Tickets can be obtained at Samuel Mellick's or of the pupils. All money received Bay of Islands was a practical violation will be expended in purchasing books for of the treaty, he gave notice of his intentheir library.

per It is expected the cars will commence running on the Belvidere Delaware Railroad to Easton, about the 3d of Febler. Judges Black, Woodward, Knox, Lewis & Lowrie of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; several members of the United States Senate, and House of Repre-Legislature; Representatives of the Press on the occasion.

The cars will leave Kensington Depot at half past 8 o'clock in the forenoon, and will arrive at Philipsburg between 12 and 1 o'clock.

WHITE SHAD .- The first white shad taken from the Cape Fear this season, the Wilmington Commercial says, were placed in market on Thursday last, and sold at $3 for a pair, the only ones caught.

HON. J. GLANCY JONES has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of nicated to Nos. 39, 391, 41, 43 and 45 Berks county, Pa., in the place of Mr. small wooden shanties, on Centre street, Prospects of an European War.-An xtract of a private letter from high authority in Paris, published in the N. Y Express, says:

"France will soon declare war against Russia-the Emperor is ripe for it, and is only restrained by prudential considerations, connected with England."

The Central American Question. At the close of the recent debate in the Inited States Senate on the Central A merican Question, Mr. Clayton distinctly indicated the mode by which that question will become a very important and practical one at an early day. Having vindicated the treaty itself, and shown that it excluded Great Britain altogether from Central America, and that her colony of the tion, unless the British Government reconsiders the despatches of Earl Clarendon, tend the charter of the bank of Penn sent to the Senate a few days ago, to in- Township. troduce a bill placing at the disposal of of the United States, to compel Great Brit. and tenants. ruary. The people of Easton have made ain to fulfil the stipulations of the treaty, action. This will present a case that will a second marriage. practically test the sincerity of the advocates, theoretically, of the Monroe doc- length, and then postponed!

> so far as Mr. Clayton's remarks were con- islature. cerned, it was necessary to prepare the The bill was, on motion, taken up and public mind for the practical issue to the amendment concured in. which he, from the first, intended to bring the subject.

> Great Conflagration in New York. New York, Jan. 29 .- A fire broke out about half past 11 o'clock last night, in Company. the Columbian foundary and machine shop, sttuated on lots numbered 42, 45, and 47 Duane street, between Elm and Cen- the sixth section, it was debated at some tre. The buildings occupied the entire length, and finally agreed to.

centre of the block. The fire soon commu-

Pennsylvania Legislature.

JAN. 27 .- In the Senate, Mr. Sager presented a petition from the citizens of the counties of Philadelphia, Bucks and Montgomery, for a railroad from Phila- An Egyptian flect arming .- The Czan delphia, to the Delaware, by the way of Pennepack.

The bill to pay the expenses of the frolic on occasion of the visit of the Maryland legislature to Harrisburg, last winter, was passed; also, a bill to incorporate the Merchants' Fund of Philadelphia. Resolutions instructing our Representatives in Congress to oppose a reduction of the duty on salt, were passed-19 to In the House, the consideration of the bill to annul the charter of the Franklin Canal Company, occupied the day.

Harrisburg, Jan. 28. Senate-Several private and unimpor-

44s a 45s per bbl. Wheat 12s a 12s 6d. tant bills, were read in place. Corn. 50s a 52s. Mr. Foulkrod read in place a bill to ex-

Mr. Price read in place a bill supplethe President the military and naval force mentary to the act relating to landlords

The Senate then resumed the consid- 9th. preparations for a grand jubilee on the and pledging the revenues of the United eration of the bill to divorce Thomas occasion. His Excellency William Beg- States for the expenses attending such French from his first wife, and to legalize

The bill was further discussed at some trine. And it brings the question under The bill from the Senate annulling the discussion, also, to a direct issue, involv- charter of the Franklin Canal Company sentatives; members of the Pennsylvania ing a war with Great Britain or an aband- was received from the House with an aonment by her Bay Islands colony, which mendment, striking out the sixth section Mr. Cass believes she never will give up. which prevents any other company from and the city and district authorities of It will thus be seen that the debate just entering upon the possession of this road Philadelphia, are expected to be present closed was not a mere personal contest along the Lake Shore, without express between two Senators, but that, at least authority first had from some future Leg- Greek Church.

The Senate, after some further unimportant business, adjourned.

House .- The House, after some unimportant business, resumed the consideration, on second reading, of the bill to annul the charter of the Frauklin Canal place without any serious results.

The question being on the amendment of Mr. Smith, of Crawford, to strike out refuses a European Protectorate over the Christians in Turkey- Expected recall of the Russian Ministers from London and Paris-Rumors of more Turkish 2d a 3d per bushel. victorics-Young French soldiers called into active service.

FOREIGN NEWS. Arrival of the Atlantic. ANOTHER ADVANCE IN BREADSTUFFS.

INTERESTING NEWS.

measure, to the severe weather throughout Great Britain. Flour was quoted at

The PENNA. ARGUS, a leading

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.- The American Democrat paper, published in Westmoresteamship Atlantic, Captain West, arrived land county, in commenting upon BIG- frame dwellings, immediately below Philhere this morning, with Liverpool dates LER's Message says-"On the subject of ip Depue's Hotel, South Easton, were deto the 11th, being four days later than the the sale of the public works, the Govern- stroyed by fire.

or is as rotten as the appetite of the vul-The Liverpool grain market has again tures on the public works could desire.' materially advanced, owing, in a great

Sally Jones "Around."

The Pamford Advocate contains the fol lowing spirited advertisement, which does The Liverpool cotton market was less its authoress infinite credit :-

active. Cotton was freely offered, and TO THE PUBLIC .- Whereas my husband, Edward H. Jones, has falsely ad-The London money market was more vertised that I have left his bed and stringent. Consols closed at 92% a 921. board, and that he will pay no debts of Representatives, and the other in the The Asia arrived at Liverpool on the my contraction, &c., this is to inform the Lutheran Church. Neal Dow, Esq., was

There is no political news of import- had neither bed nor board for me to leave, he having been living at the expense of A division of the combined fleets en- my father, under pretence of procuring held at the church. tered the Black Sea on the 30th of De- money to pay his way to Birmingham, Connecticut; he borrowed a dollar of my A few vessels were left at Constantino- father, and with that he paid for his lying advertisement against me, and even after Austria has demanded whether Russia this distardly act, he took all the money would object to an Furopean Protectorate I had, and borrowed every cent in my & Western Railroad, including the delivery over the Christians in Turkey. The Czar mother's possession, and left town. For of the same in required numbers, at points replied that he would not permit any other the past three months he has been kept not exceeding 3,000 feet distant, will be repower to meddle with the affairs of the from nakedness and starvation by the ex- ceived at the office of the Engineer of the at Sinope, has died at Sabastapol of his born laziness would allow him to earn .-The scamp need not have advertised that It was expected that the Russian Am- he would not pay debts of my contraction six inches, and measuring uniformly six inches bassadors would soon be withdrawn from for the public knows that he would not e- between the faces. The timber used will be The news from the Danube is very ful, loafing scoundrel; not content with from black knots, or other evidence of decay. meagre. Some skirmishing had taken living at the expense of my relatives, and 50,000 will be required between Scranton The Russians are said to be in force at outrageous lie. His bed and board, in- of Dughill and the Delaware river.

deed ! If left to himself, his bed would The Peshawur force had been increased be nothing but a board; and I should not to thirteen thousand five hundred men. be surprised if the bed he dies on were It is reported that the Turkish cavalry made of boards, with a strong crossbeam 6d advance. Yellow Havana sold freely nor A lady was once declaring that she at 23s a 26s. Coffee is higher, but teas couldn't understanding how gentlemen are less sought after. Rice is brisk, white smoke. "It certainly shortens their lives, said she. Bangals is selling at 16s a 17s.

SARAH A. JONES.

"I don't know that," replied a gentle-Messrs. Makin's Circular agrees with that of Messrs. Brown & Shipley, on the man.

"There's my father who smoked every advances of breadstuffs. Makin also quotes the week's advance on barley at blessed day, and he is now seventy years 4d. a 5d, beans 2s. per quarter, and oats of age."

"Well," was the reply, "if he had never smoked, he might have been eighty."

IT On Thursday morning last, three

Pennsylvania Prohibition Convention. HARRISBURG, Jan. 26 .- The State Prohibitory Liquor Law Convention assembled here to-day, about one 1000 delegates being in attendance. Col. Hults was called to the chair, and great enthusiasm prevailed. Two public meetings were held this evening, one in the Hall of the House of public that the aforesaid Edward H. Jones present in the House, and made an eloquent address. General Carey, of Ohio, also made a great speech in the meeting

Motice.

Proposals for furnishing 140,000-Cross Ties, upon the line of the Delaware Lackawanna ertions of myself and relatives; he squan- Company, until the 15th day of February

The ties will be 81 feet long, cut singly from round timber, and sawed or hewed on two parallel sides, showing faces of at least ven pay his own. He is a lazy, ungrate- Chesnut, White Oak and Rock Oak, free borrowing their money, he publishes an and Dalesville, and 90,000 between the head

E. M'NIELL, Engineer. Eng's office, Scranton, January 24, 1854.

PALMER & BROTHER.

DESPECTFULLY inform the Merchants of Stroudsburg and vicinity, that they have on hand and are manufacturing ance from England. cember. ple in case of an emergency.

previous advices.

Osman Pacha, who was made prisoner dered in dissipation all the money his in- next.

wounds.

London and Paris.

Khiva.

The bill then passed second reading, from Kalafat had attacked two Russian overhead. and the rules being suspended, and the battalions near Ossessan, but were rethe lower grades were a shade lower.

Muhlenberg, deceased.

RAILROAD .- It is now reduced to a cer- brick building adjoining, No. 47, occutainty that the mountain portion of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be entirely nothing left of any of the buildings. Sevcompleted in about ten days, and a clear eral adjoining buildings took fire from the run through from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh will be made by an excursion train, containing directors and invited guests, on the 6th of February.

We understand, says the Lancas- rung which proved to be a livery stable, ter Whig, that Judge Pollock has signified his willingness to accept the Whig nomination for Governor, if tendered to the Praries in Illinois, in the first week consumed. of last month. On the Mississippi and Chicago Railroad, in places, the snow was piled up to the height of eight or ten feet completely blocking up the road, and compelling a stoppage of travel.

Washington Territory .- The official spoken for the Whig Gubernatorial nomcensus just completed, shows this new ternumbering 3,962 persons. It has several excellent harbors, and seems likely to thriving colony.

of Oswego, N. Y. which was in some the stump during the next contest. trouble last spring, has again lost credit. The circulation is about 90,000. The securities are half in bonds and mortgages, and the remainder in State and U. S. stocks.

vanswood, Long Island, on Saturday .--ished: and all the buildings in the vicinity were shakin to their foundations. In some of them all the windows were broken in occupied by S.L. Gerrit, watchmaker and jeweller; B. Lunny, clothing store, and a COMPLETION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA large number of poor families, and the pied by a liquor dealer and several poor families. At half past twelve there was intensity of the heat, but through the exertions of the firemon they escaped with but little damage. A large number of > poor families have thus been rendered houseless. At a quarter of two another alarm was

No. 14, Pearl street. The stable was him, with the promise to stump the State. occupied by families. This house was Court.

mostly destroyed. It thence spread to A great snow storm occurred on No. 10, the upper stories of which were sudden violence which brought to an aw-> by about fifty families, some of whom we have already said in the opinion just lost their all.

Declination of Gen. Irwin.

The Chambersburg "Whig" says: Gen. WM. H. IRWIN, who has been favorably dict.

ination in different sections of the State, ritory to contain a civilized population publishes an eloquent letter in the last Lewistown Gazette, withdrawing his name ly grave. It furnishes too, a lesson of from the contest. His many friends will warning to others. We have heard of regret that he has deemed this step ne- you, as you are represented to have been become, in a short time, a populous and cessary. He is a most accomplished and but two or three years since, of fair charpopular campaigner, and from the tone actor and respectable habits, and we beof his letter, he evidently means to ren- lieve in our conscience that the melan-

"Among the rumors is one that the Pres- violence. You have alas! found the reident is alarmed at the indications of sult of disregarding the counsels of your hostility to the Nebraska bill, and will relatives and friends, and attaching yournot, therefore, countenance the proposi- self to this female; she answering but too tion to repeal the Missouri compromise. truly the description of the wise man,

IT A terrific explosion took place in We shall hear soon, it is thought, from which you have before heard us quote, as the ball cartridge manufactory, at Ra. Senator Everett, in the Senate, in oppo- "the strange woman, who forsaketh the sition to the President's policy. Mr. guide of her youth, and forgetteth the Everett will show himself a devoted covenant of her God, for her house in-Thirteen boys and girls were blown al- friend of the Union, and of the principles clineth unto death, and her paths unto most to atoms; and three others were of the compromise, and it will be left to the dead." She is dead, and the law so dreadfully mangled that death must him to vindicate the Union party against says you must soon follow her-you cut ensue. The building was entirely demol- the coalition of free soilers and secession- her off in the wicked ways of her life.

Horace Greely's advice to Young Men.

The Norwalk Register says that young man of that place wrote to Mr. The citizens of Wheeling, Va., Greely, requesting his advice as to the question taken on its final passage, it was pulsed with loss. Some were taken prisagreed to-yeas 82, nays 4.

The bill for the consolidation of the city and districts of Philadelphia into one corporation was reported from the select committee of members from the city and county of Philadelphia, with sundry tri- engagements. vial amendments.

The bill was taken up in Committee of the whole, and read to the 28th section. The hour of one then having arrived, the House adjourned.

Sentence of James Quinn.

JAMES QUINN-You have been convicted of the crime of murder in the 1st De soon burnt down, but the flames had gree, by a Jury of your country, and the spread to the adjoining front dwelling deeply trying duty of passing upon you house, No. 12, owned by Mrs. Seeley, and the sentence of the law remains for the

That there is something strange in the ful death the unhappy woman, with whom The last named houses was occupied you had been living in illicit connexion, delivered on the motion for a new trialbut we have also said that in reviewing the whole case we cannot say the Jury have done wrong in rendering their ver-

Your case is a sad one-a young man in the prime of his life about to be consigned by the doom of the law to an ear-The Merchants' and Mechanics' Bank der the Whig cause essential services on choly change in your life is owing to your formed connexion with the wretched and depraved being, who has since become Bor A letter from Washington says: - the miserable victim of your ungoverned with no time to try to make her peace with her God, the Law will be more merciful to you, in giving to you a more extended period. This period, however, to you in but the opening of your young manhood, will be comparatively short, and after it cometh the judgment. As one, who believes in the certanity of that judgoners, and others killed.

Another report says that three engagements had taken place between the Turks and Russians near Kalafat, and that the Turks were successful in the whole three

The Pasha of Egypt has ordered the immediate armament of six frigates, five corvettees and three brigs, to replace the Turkish fleet destroyed at Sinope. The peasantry of Lesser Wallachia assisted by the Wallachian soldiers have risen against the Russians. We learn from Warsaw to the 2d, that a decree had been published prohibiting the exportation of all kinds of breadstuffs from Poland from the 1st of January to the 1st of August. It is reported that the Czar would send Plenipotentiary to the Uuropean Conference.

The Marquis Turgot, the French Ambassador at Madrid, bas been made Grand officer of the Legion of Honor The Paris Moniteur publishes a decree the contingent class of 1852. The Queen of Spain gave birth to a on a wheelbarrow.

daughter on the 5th inst. By the Overland Mail, dates have been recived from Calcutta to Dec. 6th, Shanghai to the 10th, Amoy to the 18th, and Hong Kong to the 27th. The insurgents had evacuated Amoy, and the Imperialists have had a horrible massacre there. The news from Burmah is contradictory. A report is current that the Burmese have recaptured Pegu, and that comabout to take place.

Trade in India was fair, without any notable change.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET. Jan. 11 Messrs. Brown, Shipley & Co's circular reports that since the departure of the Niagara the market had been steady, but inanimate, at former quotations. Fair

Uplands, 63d; Middings, 51a. Mr. McHenry's Circular says that the late imports are being offered freely, which has afforded buyers more selections of better grades at a shade under the extreme rates of last week. A further rise in breadstuffs, and the unsettled aspect of Eastern affairs create caution, and tend to limit operations. The sales of Saturday were 5000 bales, on Monday 7000, Tuesday 5000 bales, including 2000 on speculation, and 1500 for export. The market closes firm.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 21 .- Breadstuffs, The day's transactions amounted to 14,-Messrs. Brown, Shipley & Co., report 000 brls, ordinary to choice State, at $9 a irons, broad axes, hatchets, shovels, forks,

A Jury of Females.

In the of year 1693 the body of a fefemale was discovered in Newbury under in the Borough of Stroudsburg, and will circumstances which rendered a coroner's keep constantly on hand a full supply, inquest desirable. A jury of twelve wo- which they offer for sale at as low rates men was called, and a copy of their verdict has been preserved. As it is about as lucid and satisfactory as most modern Stroudsburg, February 2, 1854. verdicts, we copy it entire in the quaint language of the period. It was as follows: -"We judge according to our best light and contients, that the death of said elizabeth was not by any violence or wrong dun to her by any person or thing, but by som soden stopping of her breath."

It is difficult to conceive anything more beautiiful than the reply given by one in affliction, when he was asked how he bore it so well. "It lightens the stroke," said he. "to draw near to him who handles the rod."

last Monday. One man was struck with calling into active service all young sold- an idea, but was not seriously injured; ers available under the second portion of and a young lady was carried away by her own feelings, but was brought back Philadelphia markets.

Saturday, Jan. 28 .- Cloverseed is in active demand, and 5 a 600 bushels prime sold at $6 50 per 94 lbs. and fifty tierces on private terms.

The Cotton Market is very quiet, and ship, deceased. prices remain without change.

There is a moderate export demand for flour, and prices are firm. Sales of late of Hamilton township, deceased. 500 brls., a straight brand, at $8,75 per bined movements against the British are brl, and 25,000 brls good brands, part administrator of the estate of Isaac Tran-Brandywine, at $9. Holders are gener- sue, late of Smithfield township, deceased. ally firm at the latter quotation. There is a steady demand for city consumption ministrator of the estate of Charles Allen, within the range of $9 a 9,50 for common late of Pocono township, deceased. and extra brands. Rye Flour is now held at $6 per barrel. Corn meal is held for Register's Office, Stroudsburg,) a further advance.

> Grain-Wheat is in active request, and 1500 a 2000 bushels sold at $2,10 per bushel for red, and $2,20 for white. A small lot of Rye brought $1,15. Corn is in demand, and 2 a 3000 bushels new held at 50 cents per bushel.

Whiskey is unsettled, and prices have advanced to 34 cents for hhds. and 35 cents for barrels, with but little offering.

New York Markets---Jan. 28.

Breadstuffs-Flour was dull and lower.

PURE TALLOW CANDLES,

as can be had at any other establishment. Call before purchasing elsewhere.

Register's Notice.

OTICE is hereby given to all legatees and other persons interested in the estates of the respective decedents and minors, that the administration accounts of the following estates have been filed in the office of the Register of Monroe county, and will be presented for confirmation and allowance to the Orphans' Court to be held at Stroudsburg, in and for the aforesaid county, on Monday, the 27th day of February next, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

The account of Moses T. Strunk, acting administrator of the estate of Charles I An omnibus upset in Broadway Halterman, late of Middle Smithfield township, deceased.

The final account of Abraham Metzgar and George Metzgar, administrators of the estate of George Metzgar, late of Hamilton township, decensed.

The account of Levi Slutter and Jacob Miller, administrators of the estate of Jno. Miller, late of Hamilton township, dec'd. The account of Rudolphus Smith, administrator of the estate of Benjamin Vanauken, late of Middle Smithfield town-

The final account of Ferdinand Kester. administrator of the estate of Peter Kester, The first account of William Transue,

The account of Austin Newcomb, ad-SAMUEL REES, Jr. Register.

February 2, 1854.

To Farmers, Mechanics, & Machinists.

HARDWARE! HARDWARE!!

The subscribers offer for sale one of the largest stocks of Hardware ever kept in their yellow brought $1 in store. Oats are establishment, consisting in part of the following articles.

50 Sett Butchers & Fillotson's Chisels,

25 Witherbeys round face chisels,

- 500 planes, assorted, 100 sett knives and forks,
- 25 doz Butcher knives,
- 10 " extra self tiped, ivory handle,
- 50 " till locks,

10 " coffee mills,

have, by a large majority, voted against the hornse of taverns. Boston, Jan. 25.—To-day has been the coldest day of the scason. At sunrise the thermometer was at zero; at noon it was only 4 degrees above, and at sunset it was down again to zero. At some of the towns within a few miles of the city, the cold was still more intense—the mercury falling to from 10 12 degrees below zero. This morning, at Montreal, the murcu- ry fell to 56 degrees below zero. More A western editor cautions his read- ers against kissing short women, as the habit has made him round shouldered. If An establishment for the manu- facture of oil from the cotton seed, has been started in New Orleans. The Finances of Mexico.—The report of the Finance Department of the Govern- ment of Mexico shows that the sum of $1,060,120 of revenue was collected by the general treasury, and $1,041,113 expended by the same, during the period	to prepare him for the legal profession, and received the following terse and char- acteristic answer: New York, Aug., 26, 1853. My Dear Sir.: Had you asked me whether I could advise you to desert Ag- riculture to Law, I should have answered no! very decidedly. There is already a superabundance of Lawyers, coupled with a great scarcity of good farmers. Why carry your coals to Newcastle ? As to a College Education, my own lack of it probably disqualifies me to ap- preciate it fully; but I think you might better be learning to fiddle. And if you be without means, I would advise you to hire ten acres of good land, work ten hours a day on it for five days each week, and devote all your spare time to reading and study, especially to the study of Agri- cultural Sciences , and thus "owe no man anything," while you receive a thorough practical education. Such is not the ad- vice you seek, nevertheless I remain, Xours, HORACE GREELY. Dr. Bird, one of the editors of the Philadelphia North American, and a wri-	inent but who, also has full and unwaver- ing faith in the mercy promised to the repenting sinner, through the Redeemer, let me now urge you earnestly and anxi- ously to look to eternity, and to seek the advice and instruction of those, who in their Holy calling here below, are best fitted for their duty. • James Quinn, the sentence of Law, pronounced by the Judges of this Court as its officers, is, that you be taken hence to the jail of Luzerne County, from which you have been brought, and that you be kept there until the time to be appointed by the Executive of the State for your execution, and when that time shall come, you be taken thence to the place prepared for your execution within the walls or yard of said Jail, and that you be then and there hanged by the neck until you are dead—and may God in his infinite love have mercy on your soul. One of the Boys.—A lady passing along the street one morning last week, noticed a little boy scattering salt upon the side- walk, for the purpose of clearing off the ice. "Well. I'm sure." said the lady.	Messrs. Brown, Smpley & Co., report breadstuffs as having again advanced.— Wheat 6d. per bushel, Flour 2s. per bar- rel, and Indian Corn 2s. per quarter.— The quotations are for Flour—Baltimore, Philadelpnia and Ohio Flour 44s. 6d. a 45s. Canadian, 44s. a 45s; Western Ca- nal, 42s. 6d. a 44s.; white Wheat, 12s. a 13s.; red, 11s. a 2d. per 70 lbs. Corn— Indian Corn, 51s; yellow, 50s; mixed, 49s. Messrs. McHenry's Circular quotes white Wheat, 12s. 6d.; white Indian Corn, 51s. a 52s. LIVERPOOL PROVISION MARKET, Jan. 16.—Messrs. McHenry's Circular reports an improved demand for new Bacon, and the imports are taken at full rates. Old Bacon is neglected. Beef—More is wanted, but without improvement on rates. Pork is very dull. Cheese is scarce. Lard is dearer, and in demand. Tallow has advanced from 1s to 2s. MANUFACTURES,—At Manchester, al- though prices are firm, there is but very little business doing. LONDON PRODUCE MARKET Jan.	 a9 37¹/₂; fancy Ohio, at $9 37¹/₂ a 9 50; fancy Genesee, at $9 40a9 62¹/₂; extra Indiana and Michigan, at $9 50a10 25; extra Ohio, at $9 62¹/₂a10 50, and extra Genesee, at $9 75a11. No change occurred in Canadian. There were 3,400 bbls Southern disposed of, at $9a9 25 for mixed to straight; $9 31¹/₄a9 50 for favorite, and $9 62¹/₂a10 37¹/₂ for fancy, per bbl. Rye Flour was held at $6 12¹/₂ for fine, and $6 40 for superfine, per bbl. Corn Meal was freely offered at $4 50 for Jersey, and $5 for Brandywine, per bbl. Wheat was quiet and unsettled. We heard of no important transactions in Rye or Barley. State and Western Oats were saleable and steady, at 51ca54. Corn was less sought after, and closed dull and heavy at easier prices. The day's operations consisted of 40,000 bushels, at $1 05 for New Jersey yellow, $1 05a107 for do Southern white and yellow, with Western mixed, and $1 08 for round yellow. 	irons, broad axes, hatchets, shovels, forks, spades, circular and strait straw knives, cas- teel; mill, cross cut and circular saws; patent counter scales and weights; Tyler & Cobbs patent haft brace and bits; auger and center bits; spoke shave, shutter bolts, shutter fas- tenings; pulleys; spiral door springs; 1000 rim and carpenters locks; 200 doz. butt hin- ges; 1000 gross screws, assorted; tenant and hand saws; nails; assorted grind stones; to- tary pump fixturas; clover and timothy seed; beans; dried apples; 300 sacks salt; flour; fish &c., Dry Goods and Groceries, a full assortment, for sale at Burkes old stand, Easton, Pa. MILLER & BROTHER, Easton, January 26, 18543mo. Administration upon the Estate of George Hag- elauer, late of Smithfield townshid, deceased, have been granted by the Register of Wills in and for the County of Monroe, state of Pennsylvania, to the undersigned, residing in Smithfield township. All persons indebted to said Estate are requested to make payment without delay, and those having claims a- gainst the same, will present them duly au-
$1,060,120 of revenue was collected by the general treasury, and $1,041,113 expended by the same, during the period from the sixth of August, 1853, to the	Dr. Bird, one of the editors of the Philadelphia North American, and a wri- ter of more than usual brilliancy, died in	a little boy scattering salt upon the side- walk, for the purpose of clearing off the ice. "Well. I'm sure." said the lady.	though prices are firm, there is but very little business doing. LONDON PRODUCE MARKETJan.	yellow, with Western mixed, and $1 08 for round yellow. Whiskey—Sales were reported at 450 bbls Ohio and prison, at 33½a34c; and 50	to said Estate are requested to make payment without delay, and those having claims a- gainst the same, will present them daly au-
	N. 1		6			