NO. 35.

Published by Theodore Schoch. TERMS-Two dollars per annum in advance-Two tollars and a quarter, half yearly—and if not paid be-tole the end of the year, Two dollars and a half. No papers discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the Editor.

II Advertisements not exceeding one square (ten lines) will be inserted three weeks for one dollar, and twenty-five cents for every subsequent insertion. The charge for one and three insertions the same. A liberal discount made to yearly advertisers. ILF All letters addressed to the Eliter must be post-

JOB PRINTING.

Having a general assortment of large, elegant, plain and ornamental Type, we are prepared to execute every description of PANCY PRINTING. Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, Notes, Blank Receipts Justices, Legal and other Blanks, Pamphlets, &c. printed with neatness and despatch, on reasonable

AT THE OFFICE OF THE JEFFERSONIAN.

Treasures.

Let me count my treasures, All my soul holds dear, Given me by dark spirits Whom I used to fear.

Through long days of anguish, And sad nights, did Pain Forge my shield, Endurance, Bright and free from stain!

Doubt, in misty caverns, 'Mid dark horrors sought, Till my peerless jewel, Faith to me she brought.

Sorrow (that I wearied Should remain so long,) Wretched my starry glory, The bright Crown of Song!

Strife, that racked my spirit Without hope or rest, Left the blooming flower, Patience on my breast.

Suffering, that I dreaded, Ignorant of her charms, Laid the fair child, Pity, Smiling in my arms.

So I count my treasures, Stored in days long past; And I thank the givers, Whom I know at last! Household Words.

Toads and Frogs. These reptiles have acquired some adat an affirmative conclusion. Not that obtained by puncture or squeezing; and ing purgatory to any one with a keen pices of our great mandarin, Cushing, a fountain, dry and cracking to pieces: with these a sparrow and a mouse being appreciation of the Beautiful, are thrust (Coo-Shing, a genuine Chinese name,) and finally, noticing a small chapel rearat rest the question as the poison of the harmony of the picture.

again come under the notice of some na- of a large Chinese island, by a narrow, simple and tasteful in its architecture shade and coolness and privacy. It is turalists-not in regard to the question of sandy neck, across which a wall was than Chinese temples usually are. In not a cavern of Jeremiah, to feed austere reference to a multiplication of the species. Most of our readers have observed we doubt not, those curious, thick-headed age of foreign shipping. It has another broad arms of several giant Indian fig stands a bronze bust of the poet, elevated is given. These tadpoles have, until very lately, been thought a necessary preliminary to the state of frog or toad .- usual anchorage of vessels during the typ- Governor, and that the drum-major of the features of the poet were not discernif a mamma toad or frog lay eggs in pla- the bay, but I could see scarcely a single found salutations upon him before the mis- him birth alike immortal ! ces where there is no water, then the real point of resemblance. A cresent shaped take was discovered. four-footed reptile comes forth at once, and not the tadpole. - This is a very benelement. Those of our readers who want to know more about this, are refered to

Money, like beauty, is greatly disparing and eagerly sought, while poverty is -that of eulogizing people whom we wouldn't associate with, and sneering at others whom we don't care to "cut."

A SKETCH OF MACAO.

It is more than five months since I first | carrying a sedan chair with all the blinds strains.

the heat of the Chinese dog-days, (ther- the old Portuguese families would be en- the essence of the Chinese religion not mometer at 90 deg. in the shade,) it is tirely destitute. Indeed it is already a being love of God, but fear of the Devil, not favorable to exertion. It is ten of mystery how same of them contrive to they manage to propitiate their neglectthe clock, on a breathless, blazing morn- exist. Piece by piece the old plate, and ed Satans by a terrific thumping of toming, and a broad white glare lies over the diamond by diamond the old jewels are toms, and a fizzle and splutter of firehill to the south, with the deserted con- sold, while the parsimony of the house- works, which lasts three days. On the vent on its summit-over the tiled roofs hold belies the appearance of wealth present occasion, they constructed a large of the Portuguese houses below, the inner which still lingers about the massive framework on the Praya, which was covharbor, with its scanty fleet of junks, buildings, and the luxuriant gardens. lorchas and tanka boats, and the bare, These fine old gardens are the great- per, so as to represent the shrine of a Chinese beggar woman who drives us to idation, and recalling, in the care and 30 in length, and hung with lamps of evdesperation with her piercing, monoton- taste which they have not wholly out -- ery guality and fashion, from Bohemian ous wail, has taken her station in the grown, those which adorn the cities of crystal to horn and mica. A variety of shade of the house and no amount of Southern Spain. Although the winters hideous divinities, with black or coppor-"cash" (the cheapest alms in the world) are wet and cold, all the hardier varieties colored faces, squatted on shrines or will drive her away. She will only howl of tropical fruits thrive well, and even stood stiffly erect in inches; and in a recess at the more pertinaciously for more. What the mango, the papaya and the guava one end, three or four noiscians made an can be more trying to the nerves than are found in the markets. On the gar- infernal din with gongs, tom-toms and her eternal: "Chin-chin-a-a! poor den terraces, in the upper part of the city, long, hollow bamboos, which emitted his trunk to the end of his tail, his whole the unholy catalonge of evils that follow in man-a-a! how kin do-a-a-! -- whence you have a charming panorama shricks that made your nerves quiver .-But praised be Fo and Confucius! Our of the island-studed gulph, the spiry cyp- I doubt if the word "harmony" is to be band the Susquehanna's band, the braz- ress and the orange of Portugal mingle found in the Chinese language. Not een throats of whose instruments have their foliage with the palm, the bamboo ven a sense of rhythn could be extracted been lazily groaning for the last ten min- and the Indian banyan. At present the from the dreadful discord, but each inutes, as if harmony were an impossible high walls which enclose them are fes- strument of torture raved in its own way, a shingle, as though he would say read, and well. effort-gradually coalesces into the ring- tooned with enormous masses of the night- regardless of the other. What must be I read the ing chant of the Pertuguese National blooming cereus, whose milky blossoms, a the nature of those who take delight in Hymn. The old beggar retires from the foot in diameter, diffuse a sweet and pow- such sounds? field in confusion. A few tawny Portu- erful odor. Around the fountains, the The loveliest spot in Macao is the guese, with close-cropped, blue-black sacred lotus opens its sunny cup, tipped garden and grotto of Camoens, and thithhair, pause to listen, as they pass through with as pure a rose as summer day-break er the stranger first turns his steps .-the almost deserted streets. The music can show. The lagistræmina, with its During my first visit here, in March last, bia" rises exultingly into the still blue ous within the Tropics.

invader, Kublai Khan,) than those of the the sands to the Chinese barrier, is a mansion now occupies the site of the Man in the Moon; but the memories of grateful release to the Canton merchant, Franciscan Convent in which Camoens Camoens, the Poet, and St. Francis Xav- and in comparison with the confinement lived. The property belongs to Count ier, the Apostle, embalm Macao forever of his hongs, the Campo appears as Salvi, who offers it for sale for the sum ces of commerce went forth into the dark towers high over it, on the east; on the twilight for the grotto whose shelter gave places of the East. And now, useless opposite side the Chinese village of Wang- birth to the "Lusiad." It was a wilderthere is a mournful charm in the silence mountains of the western island lean a- followed the slope of the hill, terraced of its grass-grown streets, and the memo- way to the south disclosing other chan- here and there, while the highest part the toad spits poison as the tale goes; but ry of its former power and opulence still nels and other islands beyond.

Untaste, which would make China a liv- United States and China, under the aus- showing that birds had once been there;

More recently, frogs and toads have miles long, attached to the Southern end building of grey granite, rather more granite within whose arch the poet found ridge of the peninsula. like a case which often happens in society described aspect of the place. There are years. The bugle-players belonging to book. From the terrace on the western no crowds on the Praya; the houses have the Portuguese garrison are very fine, but side of the garden there are levely views float about the centers of trade or indus. mondore's permission, our band performs are called, are a frequent resort of the try. The solitary sentry at the foot of on the Alameda every Thursday evening, foreign residents at that hour.

Macao, but my visit in March last down. As it is now summer, when most The Chinese residents have just been down a flood of white heat. Sounds in was too hurried to justify my attempting of the foreign merchants in Canton, send celebrating their great religious festival the streets have ceased, and the city is a description of the place. Now that I their families here, on account of the -a sort of All Soul's Day, or worship more deserted than ever. Looking out um domiciled here—an inmate of the U- temperate sea air, many of the spacious paid collectively to all the gods and saints into the glare, in search of some unforpited States Naval Hospital, though not old mansions are inhabited, and servants in their mythology, their cwn ancestors gotten characteristic of the place, I find an invalid-I will endeavor to fill up the with impudent faces lounge about the o- included. It is a convenient day of that eyes and mind are alize drowsy and missing link in my record of travel. If pen gateways. Were it not for the scan- lumping together a number of minor wor- confused, and I infer that I have exthere should be somewhat too much ty revenue which they derive from the ships and wiping out with one grand hausted what little material Macao aflanguor in the picture, remember that lease of their ancestral palaces, many of stroke the delinquencies of the year; and fords.

ered with muslins, sliks and spangled pastony hills of the island beyond. The est ornament of the city, hiding its dilap- temple. It was about 15 feet high, by ven that. The strain ceases, and now granate flower star the deep green mas- ly in the morning, and as there was a the rich, lyrical throb of "Hail Colum- ses of foliage. Nature is always luxuri- chance that I might not return, I succeeded with much difficulty in making the was overhung by immense granite bouldcomprises a ridgy peninsula about four great temple of Wang-Hya-a large formed by three great boulders of gray The city is built in a dip of hills, near goods, glaring all over with vermillion just too stern not to be Arcadian and east faces the Roads, the usual anchor- heavy, overhanging roofs, shaded by the end by an iron grating, and within it mile and a half to the southward, is the by the Portuguese band belonging to the under the trees faded into twilight, but I have been there since by daylight, bay, nearly a mile in length, fronts the As for amusements here, there are but the genus loci was less distinct and water, and behind the massive stone pier, none except the daily stroll on the Praya impressive than in that silent morning or Praya, rises a row of stately buildings and ride in the Campo, with an occasion- hour. The Chevalier di Rienzi, a Frenchtle fellow would be completely out of his them, and the ridge is crowned with ed gentleman, and entertains frequently, grotto, and a poem of his own in praise the square-towered Cathedral and several and there are a few Portuguese families of Camoens inscribed upon it. The poem churches. At the northern point is an who still keep up something of the old is good, considering that it is French, and Almeda, or public square, planted with state. The theater, a reminiscence of if the Chevalier di Rienzi had a name in azine of Natural History for April, 1853. Further to the north, on the top of a lof- closed, but will soon open for a concert approve, his desire to couple it with the hath sent thee. ty hill, is the Fort of Guia, or Del Monte, to be given by our band, (at this moment illustrious Camoens. To me, who never and a larger but somewhat dismantled giving utterance to the divine melancholy heard of him before, the need is presumpfortification looms behind, on the middle of "Wenn die "Schwalben heimwærts tuous and profane; though a thousand ziehn") who have made Macao ring with times less so than some French doggrel Even before landing, one notes the such music as has not been heard for upon Camoens written in the visitor's a decaying, moldy appearance, and you the Governor's band would scarcely be of the inner harbor, especially toward listen in vain for that hum of life which tolerated anywhere else. By the Com- sunset; and the "Casa Gardens," as they

> ing at his post. Now and then some light, looking upon the sparkling bay and to conjure up a little animation by one sun hangs directly overhead and pours ded he pointed to a candie card tacked upon age to say No. I wish thee an eternal fare-

The Miner's Ten Commandments.

MINER'S TEN COMMANDMENTS.

air. The stars and stripes hang motion- Two gates in the northern wall of the swarthy landlord of the "National Hotel" on my side; and when they decide against go home with enough to make thyself and less from the peak of the flag-staff, at the city lead to what is called the Campo- comprohend what it was I wanted to see. thee, thou shall take thy pick and thy pan, others happy. board and save thy bacon.

in the eyes of the European race. It boundless and as free as an Illinois prai- of $5,000, without finding a purchaser. thy claim gives out. Neither shalt thou hast done, and will straight way call his was the first beacon whence the light of rie. The fort of Guia, with a steep zig. I took my way at random through the take thy money, nor thy gold dust, ner thy Christianity and the liberalizing influen- zag path leading up to its battlements, garden, seeking in the gray morning good name, to the gaming table in vain; for them not, they will hang thee, or give thee monte, twenty-one, roulette, faro, lansquen- fifty lashes, or shave thy head and brand ditional interest of late. Last summer and worn out as it seems, with its com- Hya lies imbedded in Bamboo and Ina French philosopher devoted himself to merce destroyed, its palaces vacant, its dian fig trees, over a level covered with tricate in some places by a thick under- more thou puttest down the less thou shalt check, to be known and read of all men, Calsolving the much agitated question, whethere is a mountaint of the western island learn at followed the slope of the bell terrored.

guiltless, but-insane. inoculated, the creatures died: thus is set into the background, and do not spoil the and the Commissioner, Keying. The ed upon a rock in the thickest part of the yet thou washest all thy dirty shirts, darnest and like a dog, thou shalt fall down and signing of this treaty, and the festivities | wood, was led to the object of my search. | all thy stockings, tap thy boots, mend thy die. such as memory, youth and home, make hal- comfortless bachelor.

gold, and how thou canst make it fastest, lovest dearer than thy life-that thou keep eficient contrivance of nature, for what of a pale yellow or pink color. The fol- al dinner or dance. The Governor, Sen- man who styles himsel "youte exile," has than how thou wilt enjoy it, after thou hast them continually before thee, to cheer and could a tadpole do on dry land? The lit- iage of tropical gardens peep out behind hor Guimaraes, is an urbane and polish- had a tablet cut upon the rock beside the ridden rough shod, over thy good old parents urge thee onward until thou caust say, "I precepts and examples, that thou mayest have enough-God bless them-I will return." have nothing to reproach and sting thee, Then as thou journeyest toward thy much when thou art left alone in the land where loved home with open arms shall they come vol. ii, no. 64, of the The Annals and Mag- trees, above which rises a fortress -- the palmy days of Macao, has long been literature, we might pardon, and even thy father's blessing and thy mother's love forth to welcome thee, and falling upon thy ing in the rain, even though thou shalt mrke gratitude thou shalt kneel before thy Heavenough to buy physic and attendance with, only Father together, to thank Him for thy Neither shalt thou kill thy neighcors body safe return. Amen-So mote it be! in a duel; for by "keeping coc.," thou caust save his life and thy conscience. Neither The Artesian Well at Frederick (Md.) has shalt thou destroy thy off by getting "tight," been completed. The shaft has been carried nor "slewed," nor high," por "corned," nor down 585 feet, and now, the Examiner says, "half seas over," nor "three sheets in the the water runs out at the rate of one huntry. The softary sentry at the lost and all Macao sits there in the moon- But the band, after in vain attempting wind," by drinking smoothly down—"gin dred and fifty galloffs a minute. coe'ate as," "whiskey punches," "rum-toddies" Macao, China, Saturday Aug. 27, 1853. Chinese portors pass, or four servants drinking with thirsty ears the sweet of Lanner's waltzes, is breathless. The ner begg nogs." Neither shalt thou suck the sweet of Lanner's waltzes, is breathless. The ner begg nogs." Neither shalt thou suck the sweet of Lanner's waltzes, is breathless. The ner begg nogs." "mint julips," nor "sherry-coblers," through ber of a victim who was writhing under a a straw, nor gurgle from a bottle the "raw clumsy instrument, whose chief demonstramaterial," nor "take it neat," from a decanter; tion was a strong handle. while then art swallowing down thy purse, "Well," replied the poor fellow, "that pile"-thou shouldst feel a choking in thy We received yesterday from an old and throat; and when to that thou addest thy eroovalued friend in California, a beautifully illus- ked walkings and hiccuping talkings, of lodgtrated letter sheet containing the "Miner's ings in the gutter, of broilings in the sun, of Ten Commandments." They are quaintly prospect holes halffull of water, and of shafts written, and while they raise the risibles, it and ditches, from which thou hast emerged will be seen that pure sentiment, like pure like a drowning rat, thou wilt feel disgusted gold, lies at the bottom. Each "Command, with thyself, and inquire, "Is thy servant a ment" has a proper illustration, which forms |dog, that he doeth these things?" verily I a border around the whole. The engraving will say farewell, old bottle, I will kiss thy is very-fine, equal to the London Pictorials: gurgling lips no more. And thou, slings, A man spake these words and said: I am cocktails, punches, smashes, cobblers, nogs, a miner, who wandered "from away down toddies, sangarees and julips, forever farewell. East," and came to sojourn in a strange land Thy remembrance shames me, henceforth, I and "see the elephant." And behold I saw "cut thy acquaintance," and headaches, tremhim, and bear witness, that from the key of blings, heart-burnings, blue devils, and all body has passed before me; and I followed thy train. My wife's smiles and my children's him until his buge feet stood still before the merry-hearted laugh, shall charm and reward clapboard shanty; then with his trunk exten- me for having the manly firmness and cour-

VII .- Thou shalt not grow discouraged, nor think of going home before thou hast I .- Thou shalt have no other claim than made thy "pile," because thou hast not "struck a lead," nor found a "rich crevice," II .- Thou shalt not make unto thyself nor sunk a hole upon a "pocket," lest in going any false claim, nor any likeness to a mean home thou shalt leave four dollars a day and awakes no chord of patriotism or pride soft, crape-like rancemes of white or crim- it was the only thing I saw. The Sus- man, by jumping one; whatever thou findest go to work, ashamed, at fifty cents, and serve in their breasts; Macao has out-lived e- son, and the burning scarlet of the pome- quehanna was to leave for Shanghsi ear- on the top above, or on the rock beneath, thee right; for thou knowest by staying here, or in a crevice underneath the rock-for I thou mightest strike a lead fifty dollars a day, will visit the miners around to invite them and keep thy manly self-respect, and then

American Consulate, below us. Though an open, cultivated track of country, sep- He called me before daybreak, and gave thy shovel and thy blankets, with all that VIII.—Thou shalt not steal a pick, or a I hear our country's anthem every day, arated by a bleak ridge from the sandy me an old Chinaman as guide to the thou hast, and "go prospecting," to seek shovel, or a pan, from thy fellow miner, nor my heart beats more quick under all this flat which divides the Portuguese territo-summer languor, and my thoughts turn ry from the Chinese. The Campo is for a moment to that dear land on the traversed by an excellent road, uniting of an ancient Jesuit church, which was with a new one which has been cut along destroyed by fire, and at length reached row shalt thou find that thine old claim is them broken, nor trouble him to fetch them I prefer Macao to any other place in the face of the bluffs on the eastern side a little grassy square on the hill, in the worked out, and yet no pile made thee, to back again; nor talk with him while his wa-China, partly on account of the pictures- of the island. The two combined form north western corner of the city. By hide in the ground, or in an old boot beneath ter rent is running on; nor remove his stake que beauty of its position and partly be- an agrecable drive, and every evening to- dint of knocking and calling, my guide thy bunk, or in a buckskin or bottle under- to enlarge thy claim, nor undermine his of our race: it has human associations enough to hire a horse or equipage may gate and admitted me into a trim parwith which we can sympathize. The an- be seen taking their way along the Praya terre, redolent of rose and jessamine, and in thy purse away, worn out thy boots and from his "rifle box," nor wash the "tailings" nals of the Ming, and the Ho and Hang to the Almeda, and thence striking out opening into a deep garden, wherein the thy garments, so that there is nothing good from his sluice's mouth. Neither shalt thou dynasties are no more to me (with the on the course of the Campo. This drive shadows still lingered thick and dark about them but thy pockets, and thy patience pick out specimens from the company's pan exception of the reign of that splendid of three or four miles, with a gallop over under the trees. A large and stately is likened unto thy garments; and at last to put them in thy mouth, or in thy purse; thou shalt hire thy body out to make thy nor cheat thy partner of his share; nor steal from thy cabin mate his gold dust, to add to III .- Thou shalt not go prospecting before thine, for he will be sure to discover what

IV .- Thou shalt not remember what thy thy neighbor, that thou mayest benefit a the animal carries a poison in those wart- clothes it with a shadowy dignity. Here, I paid a visit to Wang-Hya, (or, in the ers, heaped one upon the other, till the like protubearances which project on his at least, there are traces of Art and Taste, Macao dialect, Mong-ha,) which gives its top most masses towered above the trees. the remembrance may not compare favorably tools and blankets, he cannot sell-lest in mottled skin—out of these a fluid can be and all those mon-trovities of Chinese name to the treaty concluded between the United States and Chinese land the Chinese land the Chinese land the control of these and the control of these and the control of the contro mayest dig or pick all that thy body can through the snow with naught save his rifle, stand under; but the other day is Sunday; he present thee with the contents thereof,

The Portuguese settlement of Macao, consequent thereupon, took place in the The grotto is simply a natural portal, clothing, chop thy whole week's firewood, X .- Thou shalt not commit unsuitable make up and bake thy bread and boil thy matrimony, nor covet "single blessedness;" pork and beans, that thou wait not when nor forget absent maidens; nor neglect thy thou returnest from thy longtom, weary .- "first love"-but thou shalt consider how poison this time, but a question having thrown in the early days of the colony. fact, but for the enormous, misshapen tho'ts and gloomy prophecies, but a grotto For in six days labor only thou canst work faithfully and patiently she awaiteth thy rethe extremity of the peninsula, and to and gilping, those massive courts and idyllic. The portal is now closed at each but if thou workest hard on Sunday also thou canst do it in six months; and thou and thy -until she hath thyself. Neither shalt thou son, and thy daughter, thy male friend and covet thy neighbor's wife, nor trifle with the looking fellows, something like a codfish in a minature, to which the term tadpoles in a minature, to which the term tadpoles islands. Another channel called the Ty- effect that, when Cushing went out in The dawn gradually brightened, as I science, be none the better for it but reproach be free, and thou love and covet each other, pa, between two barren islands, about one state to meet Key-ing, he was attended stood beside the grating; the darkness thee, shouldst then ever return with thy thou shalt "pop the question" like a man, wornout body to thy mother's fireside; and lest another more manly than thou art, should thou strive to justify thyself, because the step in before thee, and thou love her in vain, ists, Mr. Lowe, F. G. S. F. R. A. S., Mr. situation. The view of the city from the the Chinese authorities by his portly size Fit monument to him who turned into Roads is very imposing, and with the is- and the glitter of his full dress uniform, glory the shame of banishment and the Josebotham, of Manchester, and Mr. Hig- land-mountains in the back-ground, has that they imagined him to be the Amer- sorrow of exile—who made the power learning and civilization, by keeping great, and say, "sich is life;" and the fature ginbotham, all agree in the statement, that been compared with that of Naples from lean mandarin, and wasted several pro- and the injustice of the land that gave the Sabbath day, nor wish for a day of rest, lot be that of a poor, lonely, despised and

A new Commandment give I unto thee-V .- Thou shalt not think more of all thy if thou hast a wife and little ones, that thou neck, weep tears of unntterable jer that theu VI.-Thou shalt not kill thy body by work- fat come; when in the fulness of thy heart's and thy coat from off thy back, thou art burn- depends much upon what you east the opeing the coat from thy stomach; and if thou ration. If you are skinning me, it goes tolcouldst see the house and lands, and dust, and erably easy, but if you're shaving, it goes home comforts already lying there -"a huge rather hard,"

* FORTY-NINE.