A Hen Doing Double Duty.

We have a motherly old Shanghai hen...

[Maine Farmer.

So do we, but we never saw the hen—Shang-hae...

Childish Sincerity.

A lady who was quite in the habit of dropping in...

Knowing that a neighbor's supper hour was five...

A little girl, the neighbor's daughter, began to grow quite uneasy...

"You must come over to see me, Mary, some time."

"No I won't," said the child. "Why not?"

"Because I don't like you." "But why don't you like me?"

"Because I am hungry, and want some supper."

"But," said the visitor amazed, "I don't prevent you having your supper, do I?"

"Yes you do," said little Mary. "Mother said she should not have supper till you were gone, if you staid till midnight."

In less than five minutes the visitor was marching out of the front door with a very red face.

Little Mary in her childish frankness, has not yet learned the important lesson which after years will not fail to teach her...

Respectful.

A strictly orthodox old gentleman in Massachusetts, returning home on Sunday from Church...

"Well, I think," replied Frank, "you had better dodged in; you will never get another such a chance."

In Doylestown, on the Fourth, the Brass Band, aided by the Glee Club...

They built a cistern on a hill, And let it—for the rain to fill, There it still holds its proud position...

Some want the depot up, some down, Some in the centre of the town; Some people fear there'll be blood spilt...

They don't quite equal HORACE GREELEY.

Signers of the Declaration of Independence.

It would be difficult to find a more striking picture of the true moral sublime...

Such were the men of the time; but where did these heroes hail from? Which of the several bright stars of our grand constellation...

Whether John Morton of Delaware, or Butler Gwinnet of England, first descended to the tomb, we cannot now speak confidently...

We have been able to ascertain the several ages of fifty-three of these distinguished men at the time they signed the Declaration.

We need not here quote, in whole or in part, the production now before us; for on each return of the "Glorious Fourth"...

If we count the names before us we shall find them fifty-six in number. Fifty-Six! The number is significant.

Most of them lived to see some of the results of this first decisive blow for the complete redemption of their country.

How a Roman Family Lived.

Bruce, in his 'Classic and Historic Portraits,' gives the following sketch of that effeminate creature, the Emperor Heliogabalus.

In his magnificence, Heliogabalus was truly Oriental. He had beds and couches of solid silver.
