THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1854.

WHIG STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR. Jas. Pollock, of Northumberland FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. George Darsie, of Allegheny. FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT. Daniel M. Smyser, of Montgomery

Democratic Conference.

The conference for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for Congress and Senator, in this District, meet in this place on Saturday next, the 23d inst.

We were visited in this vicinity by "Jack Frost," on Friday and Saturday nights, the 16th and 17th inst. It did no serious damage.

Alarming Mortality.

A disease, supposed to be Cholera, broke out in Columbia, Lancaster county, Pa., on the 7th inst., and in the space of five days 78 persons died. Many of the people fled from the place. Physicians from Philadelphia went on there and observing that the disease raged principally among those who drank the water contained in the Reservoir, an examination took place, and it was discovered that the carcasses of certain dead sheep which had died in the railroad cars had been thrown into the reservoir. The water being drained off the putrid bodies were found.

The town is almost deserted. Out of a population of nearly five thousand, not more than twelve or fifteen hundred are remaining. All the hotels and stores are closed. Fires have been built in all quarters of the town, with a view of disinfecting the air. All kinds of vehicles are brought into requisition to carry the dead to their graves. Such is the substance of the despatches received.

The latest information we have from this place, is, that the disease is abating.

Follock's Prospects.

The Conneautville Banner says that Crawford county will give Mr. Pollock a majority. Crawford has heretofore been a Democratic county, but the people are strongly in favor of temperance and freedom, and endorse Mr. Pollock's position on Prohibition and Nebraska.

Luzerne County.

The Whig Convention which met at Kingston, on Tuesday last, put in nomination the following ticket:

Congress—H. M. Fuller; Representatives—G. W. Palmer and Ira Tripp; Register—E. B. Harvey; Recorder—A. C. Church; Commissioner—Silas Dodson; Auditor—Asa Cook.

The Lackawanna and Bloomsburg (Pa.) Railroad is to be put under contract for the whole length of the line at once.

The territorial officers of the new Territory of Kansas, will meet at St. Louis about the 1st of October, en route for their new home. Governor Reeder expects to leave Easton about the 25th of September.

Loafing.

The Mayor of Reading has arrested several young scamps for loafing about the doors of meeting houses, while religious worship was in progress. Right!

The New Orleans Riots.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18.—The New Orleans papers received here to-day contain particulars of the recent riots there.

The riots originated in a quarrel between citizens and the watchmen, the latter being mostly Irish, and their cause having been taken up by their countrymen. An irregular fight ensued, in which muskets and pistols were freely used. It was kept up the whole of Monday night. The American party assembled in front of the City Hall, and marched to the foreign quarter of the city, where the battle raged with great violence.

The accounts in the papers are conflicting.

The yellow fever is increasing at New Orleans. The deaths for the week ending the 10th inst., were 484, of which 284 were fever cases.

Another fire occurred at Mobile on Tuesday last, caused by incendiaries.—The loss is estimated at $10,000.

TERRIBLE.—From late accounts from Europe, it appears that the cholera has destroyed 24,000 soldiers in the Russian army, and 10,000 of the English and French.

A Carpet of Ivory.

Amongst the curiosities to be transmitted from India to the Great Exhibition in Paris next year, is a carpet of ivory. It is twenty feet long by six feet broad, and made of long strips of ivory plaited like matting. The price fixed upon it is £300.

A novelty in sporting has been presented in New York, which will contest the palm with the most celebrated trotting nags. A trotting bull, of full Spanish breed, is offered to take the field against all trotting nags in the United States for a wager of $1,000. The bull is described to possess all the running points of a fast beast, is of beautiful symmetry, with jet-black tufted hair, and has accomplished 2.40 in harness. He is called Don Giovanni, and claims as his sire the famous fighting bull who acquired such great renown a year ago by killing a tiger in the Plaza de los Toros, Madrid.

Destructive Whirlwind.

At Wilmington (N. C.) on Saturday night a violent whirlwind struck the north side of Market street, and took off the roof and otherwise badly damaged the dwelling house of Mr. Wm. M. Harris, demolished his kitchen and other out-buildings, badly wrecked a house belonging to Mrs. Mills, grazed Mr. Gadby's house, and destroyed some other small buildings. After passing the buildings the wind-column travelled off in a north-easterly direction, sweeping off tops of large trees like a sickle cutting grain.

A Large Hog.

Mr. Peyton Davis, residing in the neighborhood of Suickersville, in Virginia, has a hog of huge dimensions. We are informed by a gentleman who was to see his hogship that he measures nine feet ten inches from snout to tail, seven feet two inches in girth, and is four feet high. His supposed weight is 1,200 pounds, and his age two years and six months. If any farmer in the state can beat this specimen of Loudoun growth, we request him to 'trot him out.' Mr. D., when killing time comes, can surely 'go the whole hog' among his neighbors. This animal will be for exhibition at our Agricultural Fair during the coming month.—Leesburg Democrat.

The Cholera in Pittsburg—Over Fifty Deaths in Two Days.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 15.—1 P. M.—The cholera broke out in this city on Wednesday, and caused much excitement—Upwards of fifty deaths took place within two days. There were several new cases this morning, but a heavy thunder shower last night, it is hoped, will abate the disease.

[ANOTHER DESPATCH.]

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 15.—The cholera has broken out here with great violence in different parts of the city and vicinity. It is impossible to give the number of cases, but there have been 55 deaths within the past 36 hours. Some of our prominent citizens have been carried off in three or four hours.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—There appears to be no abatement in the Cholera at this place. There were 40 deaths yesterday.

Statistics of the Odd Fellows.

On Monday, the Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows submitted to the Grand Lodge of the United States, which commenced its session that day in Baltimore, a very interesting Report, from which we learn that there are under the jurisdiction of that body 3110 Lodges, with 204,000 members, their annual revenue being $1,375,000, and expenditures for benevolent purposes $530,000. The Grand Lodge of British America having been extinguished, the Grand Lodge of the United States has, at the desire of the members of the Order in Canada, resumed its authority over all the continent north of us. Within this resumption took place, on the 14th of October last, there were but six Lodges in British North America, but now there are fifteen actively at work. The Grand Master of California has inquired of the Grand Sire as to the propriety of admitting Chinese members to the Order, and allowing them to have a Lodge in the Chinese language, and the reply has been favorable. Pennsylvania has the largest Grand Lodge in the Union, with over five hundred subordinate Lodges, and a membership but little short of fifty thousand.

Maine Election.

The election took place in this State, on Monday last week. The returns, though necessarily imperfect as yet, refer to almost certain that ANSON P. MORRIS, the Anti-Nebraska Fusionist Candidate for Governor, is chosen by the people; a result quite unlooked for, since there were four candidates in the field. Nebraska and the Administration are emphatically nowhere, the entire delegation in Congress being probably against them, and the Legislature being largely Anti-Douglass.

The Democrats have not elected a single Senator to the Legislature in the whole State. As far as heard from the Democrats have elected 12 Representatives. All the rest are Anti-Administration.—The State of Maine speaks of the rout of the Administration as overwhelming, and says the result is mainly attributed to that new order of things in political warfare, the Know-Nothings.

A Fine Old Gentleman.

"One of the rare old stock." Owen Duffy, of Monaghan Co., is 122 years old. When 116 he lost his second wife, and subsequently married the 3d, by whom he had a son and daughter. His youngest son is two years old—his eldest ninety. He still retains, in much vigor, his mental and corporal faculties, and frequently walks to the town, a distance of eight miles.—Dublin Paper.

California grows more wheat and rye this year and makes more butter than she consumes.

"The War Horse" on Bigler.

In a recent trial of a case at Lancaster, it was desirable to produce a witness who had been convicted of larceny, and to be able to do so, it was necessary to procure a pardon for him from Gov. BIGLER. Col. FRAZER, who was engaged on the opposite side, in his speech referred to the pardon, and said of the Governor: "That man at Harrisburg has so abused the official powers vested in him, more particularly the pardoning power, that no decent, honest man, desires to be associated with his party."

REAR is good authority, as the democracy of Bucks well know—he having delivered the 8th of January address in our Court House, the last time Gen. Jackson's victory at New Orleans was celebrated here.—Intelligencer.

Know-Nothings in Northampton.

The Baston Argus is in great tribulation in consequence of being threatened with having a majority of Know-Nothing Delegates in the Nominating Convention of Northampton county. It says:—

At the approaching election an attempt will be made by this Know-Nothing influence to defeat the whole regular Democratic ticket of this county. In order to accomplish this, Lodges have been opened in almost every Township and Village within its borders. There are three Lodges in the Borough of Baston, one for each Ward, Samuel Siegfried, an independent candidate for Register, and who expects to get the Know-Nothing vote, is Secretary of the West Ward Lodge, M. F. Stillwell, the editor of the Farmer, and Aaron Seip, a gentleman whom the Democrats were kind enough to elect Coroner last fall, are among its most active members. Reuben P. Mickle, who has advertised himself as a candidate for Prothonotary, 'subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention,' joined them about ten days ago and is a member in full standing.

The Argus goes on to say where other Lodges have been established in the county, and states as a fact that there is one in Baskill, one in Williams township, one in Hildertown, one in Freemanburg, one in Bath, one in Centerville, and at various other places. It is evidently very much frightened, and gives unmistakable signs that the Know-Nothings are making sad havoc among the faithful in good Old Democratic Northampton.

The Artful Dodger.

The Loosofeo papers are in ecstasies over the letter of HENRY S. MOTT, their candidate for Canal Commissioner, which they call a denial of his connection with the Know Nothings. The Lancaster Democrat copies the letter and says— "But, it will be observed, this disclaimer was withheld until AFTER Mr. Mott had formally received the nomination of the Know Nothings as their candidate. It is now proclaimed by members of the order that Mr. Mott is a member, and that under no other circumstances could he have procured the nomination. His disclaimer, they say, is a mere evasion, or quibble, to gull outsiders, but the initiated know better!"

Our Know Nothing friends say, they know he is deceiving the democracy.—Then we ask, is that man who willfully, deliberately, and solemnly lies to his old friends, and as willfully and deliberately proposes to cheat a large portion of the voters of the State out of their dearest and most sacred right—the right of suffrage—for it is nothing else—is that man worthy to receive the vote of any American Citizen!

Those acquainted with Mr. Mott know him to belong to the Buchanan-Bigler-and-Campbell wing of the Democratic party. He was chosen candidate of the most ultra members of that wing—brought out three years ago and adhered to till his nomination was effected. His election is more important to that division of the party—embracing all the foreigners and Catholics—than that of Bigler himself, as with Mott and Hopkins in the board, the public works will remain under the control of the same clique. These are facts which any one can verify for himself, by applying to those well informed in the matter. With Mr. Mott in the board, we do not look for any improvement in the management of the public works—there is nothing in his past history to encourage the hope that he would look upon them as designed for aught else than to maintain the supremacy of the Democratic party. As a member of the Legislature he was noted for his extreme partizan course—never voting upon a question on its merits, but on its democracy. We do not recollect of a single instance in which he rose above the dead level of a party hack.

A Little Husband and a Little Wife.

The Sandusky Register is responsible for this. Two little children—a boy and a girl aged four and three years respectively—were missed by their families and search made every where for them, but in vain. The day passed, and considerable alarm existed. Persons were out in all directions and the bell ringer had been sent for, when passing a thicket in the garden, the mother thought she heard the sound of low voices near. Pulling away the leaves, there was the truant, with their night clothes on, locked in one another's arms and very snugly stowed away for the night. The precocious lovers, were stirred from their nest, but the boy expressed the utmost indignation, for he said "the hired man had married me and sissy, and that bush house was lizzen and they were going to live there till it rained. The demouement was so comical, that it was concluded to let them be married until they had a falling out, which occurred the next day, and now they live apart—a separated man and wife.

Every day and every paper of the day tells of Know-Nothings, their sayings, doings, signs and numbers. But here we have reliable information in regard to initiation:

We have heard a story related of an exceedingly anxious individual, who was most crazy to obtain some account of the Know-Nothings. He was told by a wag last week, that if he would come out—that night at ten o'clock and advance fourteen paces into the barn, he would there find a party to initiate him in due form into the mysterious order.—The proposition 'took,' and he accordingly went to the place at the time appointed; he had scarcely entered, however, when he was saluted with a most unceremonious 'grip' in the rear, which caused him to vacate the premises in quick time leaving a part of his 'hinder,' garments in the teeth of a careful watch-dog whose owner had given him the euphonious title of Know-Nothing.—Amesbury Village.

Mountain Fires and Wild Game.

The recent mountain fires in Vermont, and in New York, in the vicinity of Lake Champlain, have driven the wild beasts and game from their 'local habitations,' and forced them to seek new retreats nearer the inhabited portions of the country. On the west of Lake Champlain, the fires have swept from a short distance above Whitehall, up along the lake shore for a distance of forty miles. Much of this burnt district is a wild region abounding in game and wild animals, which have been driven into other quarters by the devouring flames. We learn a few days since nine bears which had been thus driven from the mountains on the west shore of Lake Champlain, crossed the south bay about two miles above Whitehall.—Some boys and a woman had been picking berries in the vicinity, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large bear which was swimming the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar.

Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, clapped her forepaws on the side of the boat, and exhibiting a handsome set of ivory, made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and the cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable maneuvering on both sides a compromise was effected by which the bear let go of the boat, and the boat made a 'straight wake' for the shore. The boys and the woman went on their way rejoicing—and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat, and a fight in deep water, while the bears were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

Hops in New York.

The counties of Otsego, Oneida and Madison we are told, grow more hops than all the Union beside. The vines yield well the second year after planting, and continue bearing from six to ten years, according to the labor bestowed upon them. The yield averages from 1200 to a ton per acre, and speculators are always ready to contract for them in advance at prices ranging at 20c. per pound and upwards. Last year farmers who retained their hops realized for them forty, and in some instances, forty eight cents per pound. One planter from Uadilla was offered for the product of ten acres eight thousand dollars—This year speculators are offering 2 1/2 to 15c for the new crop, which on account of dry weather is light, but farmers refuse to sell at those prices, wisely waiting for the market after picking. Messrs. T. A. & A. P. Smith of Watertown, Jefferson county, have a field of twenty acres, which will yield 30,000 pounds, probably worth to them $12,000.

Another Great Tree in California.

At a late meeting of the Boston Natural History Society, Dr. Ayres furnished the following items derived from Dr. Bigelow, of San Francisco, relative to another huge tree in that region. The tree lies on the ground, having fallen many years since. From the base to the point where it is broken off, it is found to be three hundred and ten feet; all beyond this was burned, probably by the Indians, but fragments lie scattered along to the distance of a hundred and fifty feet, and from the size of these fragments, Dr. Bigelow feels confident that the tree must have been five hundred feet high. At the base it is, by computation, one hundred and ten feet in circumference, and at the end of the three hundred and ten feet, it is, by measurement, forty feet in circumference. This is almost as much beyond, in size, the great tree which has attracted so much notice as that is beyond trees of common size. Dr. Abbott remarked that Dr. Pickering had seen trees in California as remarkable for their slenderness as well as height. He had seen one three hundred and ten feet high, measuring only nine feet in diameter at the base, and at the broken extremity only nine inches.

The Philadelphia police entered nine disreputable houses last Friday night, and arrested 38 females, and 16 men. The females consisted of young girls, old shameless women, and servant girls in respectable families; the men comprised clerks, professional men, knights of the buskin, and two countrymen, whose wags were in market. The Mayor heavily fined or imprisoned the keepers of the houses, and placed their frequenters under bonds to be of good behavior.

A staunch Democrat in our neighborhood, during the Mexican war, was called upon to pray at a regular church meeting, upon which he perpetrated the usual form upon such occasions, with this addition: "Oh, Lord, be with our army in Mexico, whether it be right or whether it be wrong, bless it. We of the Democratic party are charged with making a war of conquest; but we believe it to be a war of defence. But, oh, Lord, we would not enter into an argument on the subject before you—but for further particulars would refer you to the President's message."—Dubaque Sentinel.

To the Electors of the Congressional District composed of the Counties of Northampton, Wayne, Carbon, Monroe and Pike.

The undersigned has been requested by a number of citizens from different parts of the District, to offer himself as an Independent Candidate for CONGRESS at the ensuing election. Although the proposition was altogether apart from his wishes or expectations, yet, after much reflection, he has determined to give an affirmative response to his friends. The reasons which have induced this conclusion are various. He is willing to serve the public if they make the demand.—Again he believes that there is a desire in the District to have an Independent Candidate that this opportunity may be allowed the voters to express their views upon measures of importance now before the country. This is a time to dismiss party subserviency and to show by speech, vote, and action, true patriotism. No one capable of reading the "signs of the times" can deny that our country has reached a historical crisis. What we need is not so much platforms or political creeds as a fearless intrepidity to speak brave sentiments and to do right.

Having been born and reared in the county of Northampton, and lived therein almost all his days, he feels that he needs no special introduction of himself to the people of the district. Generally he promises, if elected, to give his best attention to the advancement of the interests of the important and growing district whose special representative he would be, not forgetting the principles to which the citizens of the good old Commonwealth have always been attached, at the same time studiously looking to the welfare of these United States, upon whose union and prosperity the hopes of the friends of freedom throughout the world rest.
