

AWFUL DEATH.—Near Kenosha, Wisconsin, last week, a drunken man was literally devoured by hogs while lying in the road, in a state of beastly intoxication. His bones and a few remnants of his clothes were found.

PAUPER'S RETURNED.—Boston has just sent back to Europe 150 paupers from the different institutions of the State. All but 23 return of their own free will, the balance have been sentenced to be returned.

NEW JERSEY ODD FELLOWS.—This Order is said to be in a flourishing condition. There are now 108 chartered Lodges, numbering 7,003 members.

What Constitutes Intemperance.
Judge Pearson, in a recent charge to the Grand Jury at Harrisburg, decided that an individual who visits from tavern to tavern, drinking five or six times daily, is emphatically a man of intemperate habits, and that tavern keepers who sell to such are liable to prosecution under the act prohibiting the sale of liquors to "men of known intemperate habits." If this construction of the law be correct, there are few tavern keepers but are liable to be prosecuted every day in the week.

Grain from California.
A letter from San Francisco states that an effort was then in progress, to induce the large wheat growers of the State to charter a clipper ship, and load her with 50,000 bushels of wheat and barley, for New York. Many of the farmers had already come into the arrangement, and agreed to ship about 25 per cent. of their crops. The freight would be about fifty cents per bushel.

Interesting to Clergymen and Odd Fellows.
The Rev. F. G. Zeinmer, pastor of a Lutheran Church at Pittsburg, was tried at that place, a few days ago, on a charge of interfering with the William Tell Lodge of Odd Fellows, while performing funeral service over the remains of a member of the Order. The Dispatch says:

The first and second counts of the indictment charged the defendant with interrupting the religious exercises of the Odd Fellows, but the court held that the burial service spoken over a fellow being is not a religious exercise, but only one of the incidents attending the funeral.—There was not in existence an act of Assembly making it an offence to interrupt a funeral, and hence it was that the first and second counts of the indictment, which charged the defendant with acting contrary to the statute, were defective.—The third count, however, contained more than was sufficient; it charged the defendant with interrupting the Odd Fellows, not as an order, but as men, and this was certainly an indictable offence not to bury the dead as every one knew it was, the person who sought to obstruct or prevent their interment, was certainly indictable for so doing. Sentence was deferred.

Fire.—On Wednesday morning last, the residence of William White, of this place, was entirely destroyed by fire.—The alarm was given a little after four o'clock, and the citizens of the town were promptly on the ground. The flames made but little headway when first discovered, and with a good fire engine almost the entire building might have been saved. Some of the furniture was saved but we do not know what proportion.—The total loss is about $5,000. There was an insurance on the building of $2,000, and on the furniture of $1,000.—Belvidere Intelligence.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.
A Cure for Consumption, Scrophula, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and all complaints of the Lungs.

The Proprietor has succeeded (from directions of Professor Stone) in combining the Oil and Lime so perfectly, that the taste of the Oil, which is nauseous to persons generally, is entirely overcome, and it can be taken by the most delicate females with pleasure. And as regards the benefit of this article over the pure oil, the following case, by Prof. Stone, is sufficient to convince the most skeptical. The young lady was 24 years of age.

"Her disease was one of unimixed phthisis, which had been expected to terminate in the course of a few months, fatally. The upper part of both her lungs was filled with tubercles; and in some places were beginning to soften. The case was evidently a bad one. The treatment of cod liver oil was at first used, but without marked improvement. The phosphate of lime was then administered with the oil, and the result, as in the case of many others, was soon apparent. The patient was rapidly getting well."
CAUTION.—On account of the great reputation of this Compound for all Lung Complaints, the subscriber would caution the afflicted against using any except that manufactured by him, as he has the only receipt in the United States for combining the Pure Oil with Lime in a proper manner. Therefore, as you value your health, purchase none except that manufactured by

DR. J. LANTZ, DENTIST,
Has permanently located himself in Stroudsburg, and moved his office next door to Dr. S. Walton, and nearly opposite S. Melick's Jewelry store, where he is fully prepared to treat the natural teeth, and also to insert incorruptible artificial teeth on pivot and plate, in the latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trusting their work to the ignorant as well as the traveling dentist. It matters not how much experience a person may have, he is liable to have some failures out of a number of cases, and if the dentist lives at a distance, it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the tooth or teeth as it may be, otherwise the inconvenience and trouble of going so far.—Hence the necessity of obtaining the services of a dentist near home. All work warranted.
THE GREAT REMEDY,
About which so much has been said and published, is among us. Who has not heard of the Mexican Mustang Liniment? Many millions of bottles have been sold and used to cure Rheumatism, Ulcers, Sores, Bruises, Sprains, Ring-worm, Felons, Salt Rheum, Piles, Sore Nipples, and Caked Breasts, Cancers, Itch, Corns on the Toes, Sore Eyes, Ear-ache, Pimples, Swollen Joints or Limbs, Cuts, Scalds, or Scald Head, Numb Palsey Seizures or Frosted Feet, Warts or any other complaint that can be reached by an external remedy. And it has always been successful. It is equally good in healing Wounds, Scratches, Saddle or Harness Galls, or any Sprain, Soreness or Stiffness. And it is warranted to cure Spavin, Ring-bone, Splint or Poll evil, on Horses.
The Liniment is put up in three sizes, and retails at 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00.—The large bottles contain much more Liniment in proportion to the price, and therefore cheapest.

To the Ladies
We would particularly appeal, knowing the efficiency of their services when energetically directed. By their co-operation our subscription list would soon out number any paper published on this continent, and to gain this we shall at all times strive to em-body in the columns of the Guide something not only to please but instruct our female patrons. Our subscription price being so low, there will be but little difficulty in their procuring for us enough subscribers to obtain any of the Rich Premiums above described, and what lady would not desire a handsome Gold Watch, Locket, Bracelet, or Pen and Pencil?
Specimen copies sent free, by addressing the Editor, post-paid.
All communications should be addressed, post-paid, to "W. E. BRADENY, Editor and Publisher of the New-York Mercantile Guide, No. 183 Greenwich street." May 25, 1854.—2m
