WRITTEN FOR THE FEFFERSONIAN. Stop and Think!

Stop, thou thoughtless, reckless man, Trifling out Life's little span; God and Heaven of you demand, Stop and think.

Heaven above, and hell below, Pleasure, pain, and joy, and wee, Repeat the words in accents slow, Stop and think.

Life's no time for idle dreams, Life was lent for loftier aims, Lend your mind to nobler themes, Stop and think.

Life calls for thought of sternest hue, Calls for thought and calls to you, To your souls best good he true,

Stop and think. Live not on without an aim, Living thus you live in vain, Do not thus God's love disdain,

Stop and think. Think how short Life's fleeting day; Think, O think, while now you may, Death soon will hury you away, Stop and think.

Think what work you have to do, Think what Christ has done for you, So, your Savior calls anew, Stop and think,

Else when life has pass'd away, And your love wasted its brief day, Naught but this your grief will stay, You would not think.

Or, when time with you is o'er, And you have reach'd that distant shore Whence mortal shall return no more, Thought will be in vain.

But if now you think aright Soon you'll reach those realms if light Clouded ne'er by death or night, Where thought is joy.
