In Stroudsburg, on the 17th inst. after a short illness, Mr. John H. Wolfe, aged about 39 years.

The deceased was truly one of "nature's noblemen." Possessed of great kindness of heart, and a willingness to assist his fellows, he enjoyed the love of all who knew him to a degree seldom attained by man. In his death his family, his friends, his neighbors, and the community in which he lived, have met with an irreparable loss. His exemplary conduct as a man, however, is an assurance that our loss is heaven's gain—that one so honest, so kind, so good, so much respected upon earth, was well fitted for a companionship with angels in heaven.—Monroe Dem.
