

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1855.

The Secretary of the Easton and Stroudsburg Telegraph company, LEWIS D. VAIL, requests us to announce that he is now prepared to issue certificates of stock to persons producing both of the contractor's receipts.

The American Mass Meeting.

According to previous arrangements, the American Mass Meeting, came off in this place, on Friday last. The meeting, in point of numbers, was not as large as many had anticipated it would be, but taking every thing into consideration, the short time in which it was got up, the many disadvantages the party labor under in this County, and the unfavorable state of the weather in the morning, the meeting was a very creditable affair.

The speakers, on the occasion, were the Hon. E. JOY MORRIS, and H. L. SMITH, of Philadelphia.

The meeting organized about 2 o'clock, P. M. by the appointment of Dr Sydenham Walton, of Stroudsburg, as President, and a number of Vice Presidents, &c. The Hon. E. J. Morris, was then introduced to the meeting, who entertained the audience, for over an hour, in a very lucid, fair, dignified and well-compact argument in favor of the American party. We do not think a more effective speech could have been made. Never did an argumentative speaker rivet more closely the attention of the audience than did Mr. Morris that day—if we are to take the eye and whole expression of listeners as a fair index of what they feel.

After Mr. Morris concluded his remarks and music by Pomp's Cornet and the Blairstown Bands, calls were made for H. L. Smith, who came forward and addressed the meeting at some considerable length, and in the course of his remarks took occasion to define the relative positions of the American and Democratic party on the questions at issue before the people.

The speeches of both gentlemen were instructive, and pleased the audience amazingly.

After Mr. Smith closed his remarks, it was announced from the stand, by the Marshal, Mr. Lazellier, that another meeting would be held at the Court House, in the evening at 7 o'clock, and that addresses would be made by Mr. Morris and Mr. Smith.

On the ringing of the Court House bell, crowds of our citizens were seen wending their way thither, and in a very short time the room was filled to its utmost capacity; so great was the crowd, that it was difficult to find even a place to stand. After order was restored addresses were made by H. K. Smith, E. Joy Morris and H. L. Smith.

The meeting was kept up till a late hour in the evening, ten o'clock, before an adjournment took place.

We have heard but one opinion expressed of this meeting, and that is, "that the American party of Monroe County, deserve much credit for this, their first effort at a public demonstration."

United States Bank.

The Trustees of the Bank of the United States will make their final dividend on the 25th of September, when the concern will cease in any shape to exist. It has taken fourteen years to wind up the concern. The assets realized are insufficient to pay the creditors of the bank, so that the loss to the stockholders will be total.

A destructive fire occurred in Carbondale on Sunday, the 16th inst.—It started in a room in the third story of Mr. Bronson's hotel, and destroyed property to the amount of about $70,000 before it was stayed. From the hotel it swept down that side the street to near the Court House where it crossed over and went up on the opposite side. The buildings burnt so far as we learn are Bronson's hotel, Lackawanna hotel, Richmond O. Robinson's store, Watt & Co's store, Gilbert & Crocker's grocery, Dixon & Co's store, Moore & Co's store, a Cabinet and Harness makers shop, the store formerly occupied by Gillespie & Love, Freeman & Crocker's store, a Jeweller's store and dwelling, and a Cabinet and Harness maker's shop on Dunduff street.

Prize Songs.—The publishers of the "New York Musical Review, and Gazette" offer $200 for the best, and $100 for the second best original songs, with piano-forte accompaniments; the composition not to exceed two pages of the "Review," and must be sent in before the 1st of October.

Missouri has enormous crops of corn and wheat this season. Much of the wheat land it is said, averages forty bushels to the acre, and more corn will be raised in the State this year than for any five years before.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The several Courts of Monroe County, commenced on Monday last, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Present, Hon. Thomas S. Bell, President, and A. Levering and A. Storm, associates.

Robert Brown, was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury. After a very able and lucid charge, from his honor, Judge Bell, proceeded with their deliberations, and returned during, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the following true bills: Commonwealth vs. Thomas Carver—Indictment for the larceny of two gold chains, one five dollar gold piece, two silver dollars and one gold breast pin, the property of James S. Garwood. The defendant, a colored boy, is about 10 years old. A portion of the articles were found in his possession, but the Jury, through sympathy, on account of his age, returned a verdict of not guilty. Schoonover, District Attorney, for Commonwealth, Davis and Walton for defendant.

Commonwealth vs. Cain Able and Simon Buskirk.—Indictment for larceny of sundry shirts, clothing, bedding, &c.—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Simon Buskirk.—Indictment for receiving stolen goods.—True bill.

The above cases were not tried previous to our going to press, in consequence of the sickness of Buskirk, one of the defendants.

Commonwealth vs. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company.—Indictment for obstructing the public road, in Paradise township. True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Rachel Everitt.—Indictment for assault and battery. True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Joseph P. Thomas.—Presentment for keeping a tippling house. True bill.

Commonwealth vs. John Heffron.—Presentment for keeping a tippling house. True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Mat Cunningham.—Indictment for assault and battery, with intent to commit a rape. True bill. Not tried in consequence of the escape of the defendant.

Commonwealth vs. Andrew Singer and George Setzer, Supervisors of Jackson township.—Indictment for not repairing the roads in said township.

Commonwealth vs. The Officers, Engineers and Employees of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company.—Indictment for a nuisance in obstructing the high ways in Paradise township.

Commonwealth vs. Stephen Bradford.—Indictment found at last term, for false pretences. Tried September 25th.—Verdict not guilty.

Schoonover and Dreher for Commonwealth, Walton for defendant.

Civil List.

John Bowman and Meriam, his wife, vs. John S. Van Vliet and Hannah Van Vliet, administrators of Chariek Van Vliet, deceased, and others. This was an action brought to recover a certain portion of the estate of Derick Van Vliet, deceased, upon the promise of Chariek Van Vliet, now deceased. After proceeding for some time, in the trial of the case, the plaintiff, at the suggestion of the Court, took a non suit, with leave to take the same off at next, or some subsequent term upon cause shown.

Walton and Goepf for plaintiff, and Davis, Dimnick and Dreher for defendants.

Peter Wagner and the heirs of Frederick Wagner vs. George Staples.—Ejectment for a tract of land in Stroud. Verdict in favor of defendant.

Brutal Outrage.

A fend in human shape named John Saffron, a German stone mason residing in Muhlenberg township, Berks county, while engaged in ploughing, a few days ago, in a fit of passion at his horse, took out his knife and cut open the jaws of the poor animal and then cut out its tongue by the roots. He afterwards turned the horse into the woods near by, where it lingered until shot by a neighbor. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Saffron to answer for the fendish act.

A Curiosity for Barnum.

The Bangor (Maine) Mercury says there is a man named Olard, in that State, about sixty years of age, who is the father of twenty two children—four by his first wife, and eighteen by his present wife, who is forty-nine years of age. Between the oldest and youngest of these children, there is a difference in age of but twenty and one-half years, but there are six pairs of twins among the children by the second wife.

A Fast Age.—At a picnic which took place at Media, Delaware county, on Wednesday, a birth of a child took place. Mothers will conclude that there was a "miscalculation" here, but there is no telling what may come to pass in this fast age.

Growth of Trenton, N. J.—This city has now a total of 13,819 inhabitants, being an increase of 3874 over the total of the year 1850, which was 10,445. Of the present total 3368 are of foreign birth.

Jacob Armbruster was convicted at Doylestown on Thursday, of the murder of his wife on the 3d of July last.

American Mass Meeting.

On Friday, the 21st inst., pursuant to previous notice, a large number of the American party of Monroe County, held a meeting in front of the Female Seminary, in Stroudsburg. The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:—

- President, Dr. S. WALTON, Stroudsburg. Vice Presidents, Peter Shaw, Hamilton, Ferdinand Dutot, Stroudsburg, Gen. Robert Brown, Stroud, Daniel Titus, Jackson, Secretary, Jerome Shaw.

The following persons were then announced as the committee on Resolutions, viz:—

- Henry Albert Smithfield; John Marsh, Hamilton; John N. Stokes, Stroudsburg; Silas L. Drake, Esq., Stroud; Jos. Metzgar, Hamilton, D. J. Ostrander, M. B. Postens, James Palmer, Sr., Stroudsburg, and Bernard Kresge, Jackson.

Hon. E. Joy Morris and H. L. Smith, of Philadelphia, addressed the meeting at considerable length.

The Committee on Resolutions then presented the following, which were read and unanimously adopted.

Whereas, the Republic of the United States owes its origin to the patriotism of our ancestors, who took up arms to vindicate their claim to National Independence, and the right of Americans to rule America; and whereas, the founder of our liberties in his farewell message to his fellow-countrymen solemnly warned them and their descendants against the "insidious wiles of foreign influence" as the worst foe of our freedom. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we re-annate these doctrines of our patriotic sires, and that we hold that the institutions they achieved by their blood and valor can be maintained in their original purity and lustre, only by entrusting their administration to men born on the soil, who have been reared up and nurtured under the benign influence of American Republicanism.

Resolved, That we make this declaration out of no spirit of hostility to the naturalized citizen, whose preference for, and attachment to his adopted country we do not question, but on elevated and patriotic grounds of equal importance to his interests, and our own welfare, and that of our mutual posterity.

Resolved, That the proscription of American citizens, by the present Federal administration, in diplomatic and other leading appointments, and in our Navy Yards and other public establishments, by the undue preference of foreigners, is unjust, illiberal and false to every feeling of national pride and honor, and is calculated to degrade us in the eyes of the world, as well as to kindle dangerous animosities and hatreds between the native and foreign born population.

Resolved, That the late attempt to destroy the system of public education, by perverting it from its original, noble and beneficial objects, into an instrument of sectarian bigotry and intolerance, conjoined with the effort to drive the Bible— that corner stone of civil and religious freedom—from the Common schools, warn us that the Papal power is endeavoring to prevent the general enlightenment of the people, and to bring about in free America, the same state of ignorance and moral degradation, that prevails in those parts of Europe and South America, where it is the State religion, and where it proscribes all who dissent from its theological creed, from the free worship of God, according to the dictates of their own consciences.

Resolved, That while we will faithfully adhere to the compromises of the Constitution, and religiously abstain from all interference with the vested rights of the South, we must at the same time denounce the repeal of the Missouri Compromise as a profligate breach of faith between the North and South, as an uncalculated disturbance of a settled question, and as fatal alike to the present and future tranquility of the Nation.

Resolved, That the violation of the doctrines of popular sovereignty by the ruffian invaders of Kansas, in their efforts to establish Slavery by force of arms on that free soil, and the tacit encouragement extended to their iniquitous proceeding by the Federal administration, in the removal of the independent men of all parties, and the scorn and contempt of every lover of freedom.

Resolved, That Gov. Reeder, of Kansas, deserves the thanks of the whole country, for his refusal to recognize the illegal Legislature of Kansas, and his stern and unyielding resistance to the mandates of an Executive, lost to all just and honorable impulses.

Resolved, That we cherish the name of Americans, as the highest and holiest of political designations—that the banner under which we rally, is that of our Country alone; that we owe no allegiance to party, inconsistent with our duties as Americans, and that our aspirations and aims shall be earnestly and perseveringly devoted to the restoration of the dormant spirit of National Patriotism, against all malign influences, whether propagated from Rome or elsewhere.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the course of the present State administration, but do not think that Gov. Pollock understood the wishes and interests of the people of this Section, at the time he vetoed the "Stroudsburg Bank Bill."

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers, and published in the Monroe Democrat and Jeffersonian.

Fruits of Drunkenness.—Wm. Smith, who was lately tried at Boston, Massachusetts, for attempting to drown a boy who had laughed at him while drunk and staggering through the streets, has been sent to the penitentiary for a term of eight years.

Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The Grand Lodge of the United States, composed of Delegates from all the States of the American Union and some of the Provinces of Canada, assembled on Monday in annual session at the city of Baltimore. The first day's sitting was mainly occupied with the routine business incident to a change, which takes place biennially, in the executive and administrative officers. The following gentlemen, elected at the last session, were installed into office for a term of two years: William Ellison, of Massachusetts, Grand Sire.

George W. Race, of Louisiana, Deputy Grand Sire.

James L. Ridgely, of Maryland, Grand Secretary.

The following officers, appointed by the Grand Sire, were installed at the same time: James W. Hale, of New York, Grand Marshal.

Solomon H. Lewyt, of Maryland, Grand Guardian.

John E. Chamberlain, of Maryland, Grand Messenger.

The official reports show the Order to be in a sound and healthful condition, but they do not, as in former years, indicate a numerical increase of membership.—The suspensions from the Order, it appears, have exceeded the initiations. This decrease, however, is not regarded with any solicitude. The retiring Grand Sire, (Wilmot G. DeSaussure, Esq., of South Carolina,) in alluding to it in his valedictory address, says: "In some fields our labors have not been blessed as in others; yet a careful examination will lead us to regard the decrease with no anxiety. By it the tares have been separated from our wheat, and the store thus left is increased in worth. In other places the seed has produced an hundred fold, and humanity is rejoiced by the extension of peace and good-will among men. And yet, again, new fields have been opened for our exertions; and in the energetic numbers building up an Empire in the Lower Provinces, in the swelling multitudes pressing onward to the smiling valleys of Western Canada, in the busy throngs congregating on the Pacific shores, great reason is furnished us for joy. Charity hath enlisted with men, and a whole Continent acknowledges her aid."

Scenes in Norfolk.

The scenes at Norfolk, the pestilence beleaguering city are appalling. A contemporary has the following in its correspondence: "The hearse not being sufficient to carry out the coffins for interment, recourse is had to cars and wagons, and in several instances we have seen the dismal shells of mortality protruding far out from the front of the cart, while the driver sitting beside it with perfect nonchalance cracking his whip, and puffing away at an abominable cheer! "How use doth breed a habit in a man."

The negroes hold divine service in their different churches every day, and incessant praying and singing may be heard from morning till night. The whole week seems one continued Sunday, and one's brain is crazed by the upsetting of the regular routine of former every day life. We seem to be in a different world, with nothing to do but to walk about with one's hands in one's pockets, and see burials! A remarkable circumstance connected with the epidemic is, that not a bird is to be seen within the city, nor since the fever became general. Whether this is owing to the density of the atmosphere that keeps them away, or from what other cause we are not able to say, but other philosophers or ornithologists enough to solve the phenomenon.

The cows, in despite of the city ordinance, wander about the city seemingly in search of lost mates, making the walk in echo with their melancholy lowing; while gangs of half famished dogs take possession of the streets after nightfall, and render "night hideous" by their incessant yelping and howling. Truly the very acme of distress has fallen upon ill-fated Norfolk!

One of the horrible incidents that sometimes characterizes visitations such as that which has fallen upon this city was revealed this morning. A corpse that had lain unburied for eight days was discovered surrounded by the sick and dying. It may seem very strange that such an event could happen, but it is not an unfrequent occurrence to see whole families down and not a soul near them to give a glass of water or even extend a word of comfort or sympathy. Persons are often found dead, not a soul having witnessed their illness or last agony."

The State Fair.

Harrisburg Sept. 25th Grounds occupied by the State Fair were thrown open to the public this morning. The crowd assembled is very large, and as the weather continues clear is being constantly augmented by fresh arrivals by every train. The farmers from the a joining counties are arriving in their vehicles, and our streets present a gay and bristling appearance.

Great arrangements are in progress for the reception of President Pierce to-morrow. All the principal hotels are decorated with flags, and numerous flags and banners are suspended across the street. The President will dine to-morrow with the committee upon the ground.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.—PETER MARTIN, of Lancaster county, has received the American nomination for Canal Commissioner of this State. If the opponents of the Administration cannot unite on a single man, PLUMER's election may be regarded as certain.

Good Corn Crops.—There are farmers, it is said, within one mile of Nebraska City who will bet handsome sums that they have fields of corn which will yield one hundred bushels to the acre.

Romance of Death.

There may be sadder tales in fiction than that presented in the following from the New York Express, but we know not where to find them. In Norfolk death has swept off whole families, and all their connections, so that in many cases, it may be difficult to find "the will," the grave, or the personal property of the deceased,—for, in some cases, none have been left to tell the tale! In the case of the Norfolk Beacon office, not only were the Printers, Apprentices, Reporters &c., all, or about all, swept off,—but the Editors in chief, both, have followed, and are now in their graves!

The cases of these Editors—Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Gatewood—were particularly harrowing. They were connected in Norfolk, but both single men, and both could have left, but their connections began to be seized, and they would not fly and desert them. Mr. Cunningham attended upon and buried a dear friend and relative in Mrs. Commander Barron,—in her day one of the most brilliant of the Southern belles at the Ballston Spa. Almost alone, and in the dead of night, he buried her in the Barron family grave yard, and subsequently her daughter.

Capt. Starke, of the U. S. Marine Corps, a relative by marriage was next seized,—and then his wife and her daughter, and then a near and dear cousin in Mrs. Starke's sister, all of whom he nursed and cared for with the tenderest interest, and with whom he would remain, in spite of the most earnest solicitations from relatives abroad, to abandon the pestiferous place,—but while nursing the last of them—the favorite cousin—the disease seized him and hurried him to the grave. Another cousin—Mr. Gatewood, his partner—doubtless waited upon, and nursed him,—but now Gatewood is gone,—and the only old and worthy father, and mother remain of a large circle of relatives.—The branches are withered, but the trunk remains in Norfolk. Death so interlaced the destinies of one with another,—that no one could leave without deserting some other, on the bed of disease and death.—What adds to and aggravates this interesting group of facts, is,—that three persons to whom letters have been written from New-York, enquiring as to the details of death,—all three are now numbered with the dead,—and these letters go to the dead letter office, the dead office indeed!

When Norfolk and Portsmouth, in December next again, after heavy black frosts, become habitable places,—the explorations there in deserted rooms, and deserted offices, for papers, and letters, and tokens, and titles, will be about as interesting as were the first explorations in Herculaneum and Pompeii, but far more thrilling.

A Baby Elephant.

One of the female elephants belonging to BARNUM'S travelling Menagerie has recently given birth to an infant, thus disproving the assertions of Buffon and Goldsmith that these animals never gestate while in the state of captivity. The New York Sunday Times says the one in question is perfectly formed, and differs from its parent only in size, but that difference is so amazing that it becomes ludicrous, and when one sees the "baby" walking and from under its mother, the impulse cannot be restrained to laugh at the oddity of the comparison. The bulky mother's care of her "baby" is described as extremely human-like and affectionate. If any apple, for instance, is given to the latter, the mother takes it in her trunk, examines it closely, and then, as if satisfied of its harmlessness, returns it to her infant to eat.

Another Assassination at the Saint Nicholas Hotel.

On last Saturday an altercation occurred in the bar-room of the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York, between Capt. J. J. Wright and Mr. R. S. Dean, boarders in the establishment. They had been partners in business, and Dean had charged Wright with wrongfully appropriating partnership property. In several previous interviews Wright had endeavored to prevail on Dean to retract the imputation, but without effect. The meeting on Saturday was by appointment, and Dean, anticipating an attack, armed himself with a dirk knife. At this interview Dean persisted in his refusal to retract the accusation he had made, and thereupon Wright drew a raw-hide and struck Dean across the face. At this Dean drew his knife and plunged it into Wright's abdomen. Wright is a large man, and Dean a small one. Both have families, and are widely known in business circles.

Novel Census Returns.

The man who takes the census in Adams county, Ill., is publishing his returns in the Quincy Herald. In addition to the usual information he gathers and publishes some unusual facts. In his returns of Columbus township appears the following:—Mrs. Maoman Thomas is the oldest lady in the township; she is eighty-seven years old. The old men are scarce in that township but three men over seventy years old. There are fifteen live widows in the township, and some seven California widows. I would like to see the township that could turn out a better looking set of widows than Columbus. I should think Columbus is the place for widowers to get their money back. There are some girls there too—Miss Maria Wilkes weighs 260 pounds, and Miss Raugh weighs 225 pounds.—There are three old ladies that weigh 250 pounds each.

About one-half of all the manufacturing machinery in Rhode Island has been stopped on account of the drought. Upon both branches of the Pawtucket river there are about 152,000 spindles, more than 100,000 of which are entirely stopped. Upon the Blackstone it is not so dry, but at least one-half of the machinery in all the Mills is lying idle.

The buckwheat crop of New York is said to be as large as in Pennsylvania—doubling the average crop.

Highly Important News!

By a Telegraphic Despatch, just received at the office in this place, we are enabled to lay before our readers, the following highly important news.

America arrived with one week's later dates. Sebastopol fallen—terrible slaughter, about twenty thousand Allies and ten thousand Russians killed. Sebastopol in ruins—Fleets burned, Forts blown up, &c.

Crushing out Republicanism.—The following extract contained in the orders of the Pope of Rome to Archbishop Hughes of New York, who has just returned from a pilgrimage to the Holy Father, whither he went to report the progress of Catholicism in America. The command is "CRUSH OUT REPUBLICANISM."—Read it, Americans! The Pope says: "If our church is to live it must be in America. Governments and States are tottering here. Every thing is uncertain. Another year and a revolution may have swept away. My good Archbishop, I look to you for the future. SPREAD ROMANISM IN AMERICA, CRUSH OUT REPUBLICANISM. The church may before a month flee to your shores."

Yes, "Lord John," crush out Republicanism and if you should find any difficulty in obeying the injunction of the "most holy father," apply to any of the old school politicians, and they will help you out for a few Catholic votes. And where is the man who will shut his eyes to this evidence to the Pope's designs in this country, and say there is no danger! Let him be scorned and detested by every lover of our free institutions, and go forth branded as either knave or a fool.

HON. JAMES BUCHANAN.—It is confidently assestated at Washington, that Mr. BUCHANAN, on retiring from his ministerial career, will be immediately married to the widow of the late President POLK. She is, indeed, a lady for whom one might gladly resign even so long a life of bachelorhood as his.

Hop growers in western New York are now engaged in securing their crop, which is represented as very large.

The market price of hay in Aroostock county, Me., is said to be $5 per ton, and large tracts of grass are left uncut, as the farmers believe it will not pay for the cutting.

There is a village in Michigan where the church bell is rung every day at 12 o'clock, for the people to take their quinine, as they have the chills and fever all round.

Some of the bachelors of the Ohio Legislature are for a tax on bustles. We never knew a bachelor yet that hadn't something to say against the ladies behind their backs.

The Dead and the Maimed.

The Albany Express, commenting upon the many railroad accidents, says: "If the dead could speak and maimed would drag themselves into court and testify, the fifteen hundred and eighty-seven killed and wounded travellers of 1854 would unfold a tale of horror which would make even soulless corporations turn pale and tremble."

A new game is now being practiced upon travellers and not without success. The last case of the kind occurred recently at Cleveland. A person accused a fellow traveller of picking his pockets on the cars. Upon the arrival of the train a police officer (bogus) arrested him and took him to a police court room, (also bogus,) where examination was deferred till morning upon the defendant's leaving $100 as security, as he had no friends to sign a bond. The $100 was a dead loss.
