A VALUABLE LUMBER PROPERTY FOR SALE.
The subscriber will offer his property at public sale, on Friday, the 19th day of October next. The favorable location of this property and the great facilities it possesses, both as a retail and shipping lumber establishment, is known to most persons in this neighborhood. It is situated on Mud Run, in Carbon county, seven miles from the Lehigh Navigation, and nine miles from the Wilkes-Barre Pike, on the road leading from Merwinburg to White Haven. It consists of about 1500 Acres of Timber Land, containing Pine, Spruce, Hemlock and Hard Wood, and one of the best single SAW MILLS
in the Pine Swamp, entirely new, and capable of manufacturing one million feet, or more, of lumber per annum. Also,
Four good Dwelling Houses,
Store House and Smith Shop, with stable sufficient for 40 horses. There are also about 20 acres cleared land, in a good state of cultivation. The water power is never failing, and there is on the property a very favorable location for an extensive tanning establishment, with an immense bark region surrounding it.
To any person desiring to enter into the lumbering business, this property affords a rare opportunity.
Persons wishing to view the property can have an opportunity of doing so in company with the subscriber, or with Wm. K. Snyder, who is on the property, any day before the sale, at which time the terms will be made known.

The Scientific American.

Eleventh Year.
Splendid Engravings and Prizes.
The Eleventh Annual Volume commences on the 17th day of September, 1855.
The "Scientific American" is an illustrated periodical, devoted chiefly to the promulgation of information relating to the various mechanic and chemic arts, industrial manufactures, agriculture, patents, inventions, engineering, millwork, and all interests which the light of practical science is calculated to advance.
Reports of U. S. Patents granted are also published every week, including official copies of all the Patent claims, together with news and information upon thousands of other subjects.
The contributors to the Scientific American are among the most eminent scientific and practical men of the times. The editorial department is universally acknowledged to be conducted with great ability, and to be distinguished, not only for the excellence and truthfulness of its discussions, but for the fearlessness with which error is combated and false theories are exploded.
Mechanics, Inventors, Engineers, Chemists, Manufacturers, Agriculturists, and people of every profession in life, will find the Scientific American to be of great value in their respective callings. Its counsels and suggestions will save them hundreds of dollars annually, besides affording them a continual source of knowledge, the experience of which is beyond pecuniary estimate.
The Scientific American is published once a week; every number contains eight large quarto pages, forming annually a complete and splendid volume, illustrated with several hundred original engravings.
Specimen copies sent gratis.
Terms.—Single subscriptions, $2 a year, or $1 for six months. Five copies, for six months, $4; for a year, $8.
For further Club rates and for statement of the fourteen large cash prizes, offered by the publishers, see Scientific American.
