

went to my brother's house to kill my brother and his wife. I kicked the panels of the door in, but they had gone away. I went and searched for him. Went home and slept until near morning. On awaking, I left the house and met several persons coming toward the house. I do not recollect who I had informed of the deed previous to this. As they approached me some said, "There is Bill"—this was about eight rods west of my father's. They asked me what I had been doing. I told them it was none of their business. Part of the company held me, while a couple of them went to the house and returned, and afterward they took me to Potter's, where I was arrested by the Constable.

THE DUMB WITNESS.
Beside the murderer and his victims, there was but a single witness to the awful deed. A family dog was in the room, and the prisoner affirms that during his bloody work this animal several times attacked him; that he tried to kill the animal and get his heart, but was foiled in his efforts. After he lay down, the faithful dog sat all night watching by his lifeless mistress. During the whole examination of the bodies on the inquest, this faithful animal remained under the bed, and could not be removed from the room.

Burning Corn for Fuel.
The Chicago Tribune says: "We used to hear that among the wonders of 'the west,' the practice, in times of little prices and much hog, of burning bacon on the river steamers, as the cheapest fuel was not the least. Latterly we have supposed that Western men had outgrown the necessity of what would ordinarily be criminal waste, but a gentleman who had just returned from a trip on the Illinois Central, tells us that at Kankakee, only a few hours' ride from this city, he found a man burning good sound corn in the car in his stove. Inquiring the reason of what was to him shameful, he was told that while poor coal was worth 30 cents per 100 lbs. at the depot, unthrashed corn was dull at 25 cents for the same weight."

A lad of nineteen years was lately married in the town of Grand View, Missouri, to a maiden of the ripe age of seventy-eight.

The whole population of the town and city of Poughkeepsie is 12,769. The population of the city alone is 12,769.

Mrs. Partington inquires what kind of razors are employed in shaving notes.—Mr. P., respectfully informs her that they are razors of money.

Suggestive.
A New Orleans paper presents a very suggestive paragraph, in the following, which he entitles "The march to the grave of 1857":

"What a mighty procession have been moving toward the grave during the past year! As the usual estimate, since the first of January, 1857, there have more than thirty-one million five hundred thousand of the world's population gone down to the grave. Place them in long array, and they will give a moving column of more than thirteen hundred to every mile of the circumference of the globe. What a spectacle, as they move on, tramp, tramp, tramp, the 'Dead March,' giving its funeral notes as they go to the silent shades!"

A Singular Proceeding.
Governor Ligon, of Maryland, on Friday last, sent his annual message to the Legislature of that State, and the Representatives refused to receive it. Before its reading a motion was made not to receive it, and the motion prevailed by a considerable majority. The ground of its rejection is said to be offensive remarks relative to the American party, and an intimation contained in it that the members from Baltimore were elected by fraud. The message having been published in advance of its being sent to the Legislature, the members thus obtained a knowledge of its contents.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills—What are their credentials?—They are approved by the most enlightened governments, sanctioned by the highest medical authority. Let no victim of scrofula, salt rheum, or any ulcerous or eruptive malady, fancy a cure impossible. It is never too late to use Holloway's Ointment for external complaints, or his Pills for internal disorders. The public are hereby informed of a sure test, whereby to ascertain the genuineness, or the contrary of these medicines. This consists of a water-mark, the words, "Holloway's New York and London," in semi-transparent letters in every leaf of the book of directions, around each box and pot. Without the Water-mark, none are genuine.

Here is a receipt for restoring a drunken man to comparative sobriety, which is "important if true."
"Whenever a person is in a stupid and inebriated state, from the abuse of intoxicating drinks, lay him on his right side, elevate his left arm, and pour cold water down it slowly. Before a common pitcher full can be emptied, the man will walk perfectly sober."

HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Every one will, we think, agree with us in the opinion that the human hair is the greatest natural ornament that is possessed either by a gentleman or lady. Just you admire his features, whiskers, and general bearing; but lo! he lifts his hat in recognition of your bow, and the charm is vanished, for Ichabod is written on his bald head, and the glory has departed with the flowing locks that once flourished there. In the case of a lady, the matter is, if possible, worse—such cases reminding one of the circumstances on which the following epigram is founded: "Oh give me, fair Emma, a lock of your hair, A bashful young lover took courage and sighed: 'Twas a sin to refuse such a modest request— So take THE WHOLE WIG," the dear creature replied.

Now, to prevent such a catastrophe, is within the power of every lady and gentleman; for, by using Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, hair is not only prevented from falling off or turning gray, but the article will restore hair to bald places; and even if it has changed color and become gray, it will bring it back to its pristine beauty and luxuriance. Those who are acquainted with the anatomy, physiology and pathology of the hair, must be well aware that certain substances have a specific action upon it; and it is by a judicious combination of these that Prof. Wood has succeeded in compounding a mixture possessed of remarkable virtues—Waverly Magazine and Literary Gazette.

From Prof. McCLOSKEY, formerly Professor of theory and practice of Medicine in the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania, and late Professor of Surgery in the American College of Medicine, &c. Philadelphia, Nov. 27th, 1856.
Mr. Joseph E. Hover—A trial of your LIQUID HAIR DYE will convince the most skeptical, that it is a safe, elegant and efficacious preparation. Howard Association, PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Venereal and Eruptive diseases.
To all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Syphilis, or Vice of the Genitals, or self abuse, &c. &c. The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deception practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of these classes of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.
The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much neglected cause.
Just Published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, the Vice of the Genitals, Masturbation or Self Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed letter envelope,) FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage.
Address, Report or treatment, Dr. GEORGE CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
By order of the Directors,
EZRA D. HEARF WELL, President.
GEO. FAIRHILD, Secretary.
