

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1858.

Thieves about--Look out for them. On Wednesday evening of last week, M. Jacob Dennis of Hamilton township, lost a two weeks wash, which had been left upon the line in the yard that evening, consisting of shirts, sheets, handkerchiefs, stockings, &c.

We have compiled a complete list of the officers elect, in the several townships in this county, on Friday last, but are compelled, to defer the publication of them until next week.

Joseph Edleman, one of the County Commissioners of Northampton, died at his residence in that county on the 16th inst., from the effects of a carbuncle on his head. The vacancy will be filled by the remaining Commissioners and the Judges of the Court.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE. The Committee of Conference of the two houses of the Legislature, have reported a resolution for a final adjournment on the 23d of April. The report has been agreed to in the Senate by a vote of 26 to 5.

The affairs of the D. L. & W. R. Co., are improving. Throughout the winter, their expenses have been reduced to the lowest mark. They have adopted the humane plan of giving to every poor man all the work they could, even in some cases to their own disadvantage. The road is now in excellent condition for the season, and everything excepting the pressure of the times looks favorable. The management is now in the hands of men who have gained a world wide reputation as managers.—Scranton Herald.

A young man named Newell H. Whittelsey, aged about nineteen years, entered the office of the Treasurer of this county on Tuesday evening the 16th inst., and removed the deposits, consisting nominally of $147. Most of the bills, however, were either uncurrent or counterfeit, so that the actual value was only about $75. The next morning he went to Narrowsburg, and bought a ticket to go west, but took the train for New York. He was headed by telegraph, and arrested by a police officer while on the ferry boat going from Jersey City over to New York. On Friday he was brought back and lodged in jail in this borough. Whittelsey's mother formerly kept the boarding house attached to the Seminary at Bethany.—Honesdale Democrat.

The Pittsburg Gazette says of the Democratic nominations in Pennsylvania: "Wesley Frost, the nominee for Canal Commissioner, is for Leocompton out-and-out. There is no mistake about his position. "Wm. A. Porter, the other nominee, was classed the other way; but we are sorry to see that he has submitted to the King, and goes Leocompton with the rest of the herd. Mr. Cassidy, his spokesman in the Convention announced that he (Porter) approved Buchanan's Kansas policy, and stood upon the platform of the Convention."

A Village for Sale. The Sheriff advertises for sale the entire village of Malaga, in Cumberland Co., N. J. It consists of more than 5,000 acres of land, with glass works, mills, and forty dwelling houses. The village exhibits a scene of desolation and abandonment so complete and thorough as to be rarely exceeded. All this fine property will pass away from the industrious owner for a comparative song. Yet, strange, as it would seem if we did not know that some folly was enacted in a thousand other localities, the very men who have been thrown out of employment and forced to abandon their comfortable homes by the curse of Free Trade, are the very parties who have been persistently voting for the Democracy which caused all this social havoc. The owner of this valuable property has been beggared outright by the blight of democratic free trade.

Sale of Slaves. The following sale of slaves, belonging to Mrs. Blakely, took place in Roanoke, Randolph county, Mo., last week: Woman and two young children $1,200 Negro man, about fifty years old 625 Lida, about fourteen years old 875 Girl, about twelve years old 800 Isaac nine years old 600 Benjamin, about seven years old, 501 Girl, five years old, 400

Hall, the Convict, Dead. John W. Hall alias William Lindsay, the convict who attempted the life of the keeper, in his efforts to escape from the Alton, Illinois Prison, died in his cell on Saturday, the 13th inst. He had been gradually sinking under the effect of the wound in his head, and for sixteen hours previous to his death was entirely paralyzed and insensible. From the time he was shot until he died, paralysis made slow but certain work upon him.

Serious Epidemic at the University of Virginia.

A letter received in this city from the University of Virginia, dated March 18, states that a very serious and fatal epidemic, somewhat similar to typhoid fever, has been prevailing fearfully at that institution for some weeks past. Quite a number of the students have already died, and many are still sick. Great alarm prevails among those remaining. A special meeting of the Board of Visitors was called some days ago to consider the subject, and, if possible, adopt some measures to counteract the epidemic. It was agreed to vacate the rooms in which the disease originated, but it soon appeared in other apartments, there being three new cases shortly afterward. The students, becoming still more excited, presented a petition to the Board, requesting a suspension of the lectures, which was not complied with.

For a week past they have been leaving rapidly, some for their homes, others taking up their abodes elsewhere, and out of 624, who were in the University at the commencement, there are only 300 left. Meetings are held tightly to consider the matter, and additional measures are being taken by remaining students to procure a suspension of lectures, which if not granted soon, it is believed the institution may be finally deserted until healthfulness is again restored. At last accounts the executive committee had called another meeting of the Board, and it was believed some definite action would be taken in order to render satisfaction and safety to those in the university.—Several students who had contracted the fever and left for other quarters, died before being able to reach home.—Baltimore Patriot.

Public Vendues.

As this is the season for Public Vendues and the Farmers' can do but little out door work, the sales of farm stock and "household and kitchen furniture" are very largely attended and good prices are generally obtained. It is said that over 1000 people were at the sale at the late residence of Henry Lerch, in Forks township, last Thursday. The family were eaten out of "house and home" by persons who abused their kind hospitality, although they had generously prepared for at least 100 people. They were even obliged to keep their cellar locked to prevent stealing. People who go to Vendues should know how to behave themselves properly or stay home. We did not hear how the farm stock sold at this sale; the total amount of the two days sale amounted to nearly $2000. At Brunner's sale in Lower Saucon township, seven horses brought $186, $185, $150 50, $102, $107 and 105. A large Devonshire cow sold for $79. At the sale of the personal property of Leonard Sandt deceased, in L. Mount Bethel township, a young horse about 6 years old brought $130 and an 18 year old mare $61. At William Hilliards sale in L. Mount Bethel, a black horse sold for $172 and a young colt at $65. At Peter Hilliard's sale in Plainfield township, a mare 16 years old was knocked off at $120 50.—At Dan. Oyer's sale in U. Mt. Bethel, a small horse brought $144 and sheep from $6 to $8 a head. At J. J. Mann's sale in L. Mt. Bethel, a lot of horses brought from $100 to $150 a piece and cows $40 a head. At Sandt's sale sheep sold at from $6 to $7. A sow with eight pigs brought $21 20. At John Best's sale in L. Mt. Bethel, farm horses brought from $125 to $150.—Easton Argus.

The Utah Expedition.

Reinforcements and Supplies Forwarded from Fort Leavenworth. St. Louis, March 23.—The Leavenworth Times of the 19th inst., says that the previous morning two companies of infantry and two of cavalry left the fort for Utah. The command numbers about 320 men. They design overtaking Col. Hoffman and escorting the supply train for Col. Johnson's army from Fort Laramie. This train consists of 160 heavily laden wagons. The Republican publishes extracts from a private letter from Col. Johnston to a friend in that city, dated February 5th, in which he says he has received no communication from the Government since the 22nd of October. He complains that the contractors take more than three months to carry the mails to Utah, when their contract states that the service shall be done monthly. Col. Johnston describes the march to Camp Scott, and compliments the troops. He says the Mormons have fully, as far as words and actions can manifest their intentions, declared their determination to no longer submit to any government but their own, and that the people of the Union must submit to the usurpation of their territory, and have a government created in their midst acknowledging no dependence upon or allegiance to the Federal authority, or act with vigor and force to compel them to succumb. He expresses an earnest hope that every exertion will be made to forward supplies early in the Spring, under a sufficient guard of mounted men.

A Whiskey Insurrection in Ohio.

Last Saturday, a large number of women, who had previously armed themselves with axes, hatchets and hammers, made an attack upon the taverns and saloons of Akron, Ohio, breaking jugs and bottles, and emptying casks of all sorts of liquor, etc. Every establishment in the place was thus despoiled, except the American House and a drug store, the proprietors of which "saved their bacon" by pledging their "words of honor" not to sell liquor to any of the townspeople. One of the town magistrates interposed in vain.

The Philadelphia Press learns that Thomas Washington Smith, who was acquitted of the murder of Richard Carter, on the ground of insanity, is now a confirmed maniac.

The Lottery Mania.

A lottery enterprise has been gotten up by C. E. Todd & Co., in New York, which has proven to be a perfect swindle, and has duped a great many persons throughout the country. Upon complaint made, the post office was watched on Thursday, by police officers, and a young man who received that morning some two hundred letters, by the name of Hall, was arrested. The Herald gives a very interesting account of the matter, as follows:

The officers visited No. 372 Grand street, where they found two young ladies named Catharine and Mary Todd, answering a large number of letters, which lay upon the table in the room. They were also brought before the Mayor, together with the letters found on the premises. The girls stated that they were in no way connected with the concern, nor was there such a firm as C. E. Todd & Co., but that Hall was the only person carrying on the business, and they were employed by him to answer letters. The Mayor accordingly discharged the girls, but held Hall to bail in the sum of $1,000. On opening the letters, $210 was found enclosed in about sixty of them, for chances in the gift enterprise. Among them were about forty from various editors of country newspapers wanting chances in exchange for puff. Numerous advertisements of Todd & Co., cut from country papers in the Southern and Western States, were found, some a column in length, stating that the advertisers were extensive manufacturers of gold pencils, and that, in consequence of the money pressure, they were induced to get up a pencil gift enterprise for the purpose of disposing of their stock. $5 would entitle a person to a ticket, who had a chance to win a gold pencil valued from $2 to $5, besides gold watches, lockets, chains, and purses of gold dollars. Any person hesitating to remit money in advance would be allowed to send their names and address, when Todd & Co., would make their drawing and inform the parties by return mail what they had drawn. By this means many were induced to send in their names, always receiving an answer that they had drawn a valuable pencil or chain, with a ticket giving the number that drew their prize, and its value, as follows:

C. E. TODD & CO'S GIFT DISTRIBUTION. Ticket No. 5,285 Value of prize, $10 Drawn by... The following are specimens of the letters received: A WOMAN THAT WANTS TO BE CONSIDERED AS MANY AS TWELVE. GRAYVILLE, ILL., March 8, 1858. C. E. Todd & Co.—Sirs—You say you will draw for a club of twelve names, without the money, if sent by an agent. Now, I wish you to consider me as twelve persons, and draw twelve tickets for me individually; and if the prizes will justify, I will send the money immediately. Your subscriber, MRS. M. J. VAUGHN. Grayville, White county, Ill. C. E. Todd & Co., 392 Broome st., N. Y. AN EDITOR WANTS A PRIZE. True American Office, Erie Pa. Mar. 16. C. E. Todd & Co.—Gents—The last of January you sent me one pencil and pen, and I inserted your advertisement saying you wrote me that if I would give a puff you would draw me one of your prizes in payment. I gave you a lengthy notice, saying unequivocally that I knew you were reliable. I sent you marked copies of paper, but have received nothing from you. I also have since written to you.—Now, how is this? Am I to pass for a liar in this community by recommending parties that fail in their engagements?—Must I be compelled to retract all that I have said, and warn the public against you? Of course I must do so to save myself, unless you immediately give me some tokens that you are all right. I shall wait a few days and see. In my last letter I wrote you that I would continue your advertisement six months above present term for $4 ea-h. Yours, H. GALIN, Editor.

WANTS AN AGENCY.

Fayetteville, Lawrence Co., Ind. Mar. 19. Mr. Todd:—Having read your advertisement, I take it upon myself to send you a few lines, before I send the money, and I will know then if I receive a letter from you, that it will be safe to send money in a letter. If you get this letter make my drawing and send me word. I think if I could draw something I could get a great many subscribers. I will take the agency if you please. Direct your letter to JOHN BAIN, Jr., Fayetteville, Lawrence county, Ind. FEMALE POLICY PLAYER WANTS TO TRY HER HAND. Columbia, (Tenn.) Maury Co., March 1, 1858. Messrs. C. E. Todd & Co.—I have concluded to give you a trial, and see whether it will pay or not. I have tried Swan & Co. often, but have not gained anything from him. Since you have published the little strip that is in the Democratic Herald I have concluded to give you a trial or two. I think that I can get a good many others to go in with me. It is more than likely they will. I will see to it to-morrow morning without a doubt. I heard five of them say they would if I came out right. Send me a full description of your lottery by return mail, and you will oblige yours, LIZY P. KIRBY.

AN UNLUCKY FELLOW.

Easton, Licking Township, Clarion Co. Messrs. C. E. Todd & Co.—Dear Sirs—I read your advertisement and thought that I would try my luck in your prizes, as I never had any luck in anything of the kind, and if it should prove good I think I might encourage others. As I am dealing in the mercantile business, direct your letter to Calensburg, Clarion county, Pa. Yours, with respect, S. SHIRY.

The value of prizes drawn where the parties did not advance the money, always represented value exceeding $10 and up to $20. The holder of the ticket thinking that his prize was what it was represented to be in value, immediately remitted $5 with the ticket, and received in exchange a plated gold chain or pencil worth, it is alleged, seventy-five cents or one dollar. Numerous letters were found among those recovered by the officers complaining that their prizes were not what they were represented to be, and demanding back their money. On Friday the officer again called at the Post Office and found about one hundred and fifty more letters for C. E. Todd & Co., received by the morning mail. On opening them $150 was found enclosed for prizes. The Clerk at the Post Office stated that C. E. Todd & Co., for the last month or two, have not received less than one hundred letters a day. It is thought that the receipts of Todd & Co. averaged about $1,500 per week.

Deadly Weapons.

A bill has been introduced into the Pennsylvania Legislature, which has for its object, a suppression of the iniquitous practice of carrying deadly weapons. It gives power to the Courts to sentence the offenders to the Penitentiary.

In New York, on Saturday week, a thief was caught picking the pockets of two ladies. The officers were instructed to have his dagguerotype taken for the thief's portrait gallery, which is the plan now pursued. He refused to sit.—So the officers paraded him up and down Broadway with a placard on his back setting forth his offence. This soon reduced his obstinacy.

HANEMANN REVERTED TO COMMON SENSE.—At a meeting of "spiritualists," an invalid was brought forward dreadfully afflicted with ulcerous sores that all the doctors had failed to cure. It was proposed to appeal to the spirit land for advice, and a homeopathic physician present interrogated the departed spirit of Hanemann as to what remedy should be taken. Loud and distinct raps, audible to the whole audience, told off Ayer's Cathartic Pills.—Homer (N. Y.) Whig.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

Whereas, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and whereas, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. But it known therefore, to all, whether Maids, Wives, or Widows, that Dr. Cheesman's Female Pills are alone the certain panacea for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to the whole sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity. And whereas, these Pills are purely vegetable and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, be it known, that nothing but the said Pills of Dr. Cheesman will accomplish the desired object, when disappointment has been experienced under the regime of other Pills; and the LADIES will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always premising that the Pills must not be taken when any female is in an interesting situation, otherwise a miscarriage will be the inevitable result. Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheesman, Box 431, Post Office, New York City. Bailey's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a catalogue of diseases; burns, scalds, cuts, chafes, sore nipples, corns, bunions, strains, bites, poison, chilblains, bites, scrofula, ulcers, fever sores, felons, ear ache, piles, sore eyes, gout, swellings, rheumatism, scald head, salt rheum, baldness, erysipelas, ringworm, barbers itch, small pox, measles, rash, &c., &c. To some it may seem incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is so necessary to say that no house, workshop, or manufactory should be one moment without it. No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer. For sale by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canada. Principal Depot, 165 Chambers St., New-York. C. F. CHACE. Sold in Stroudsburg, by Hollinshead & Detrick. Feb. 25, 1858.—1y.
