

would not be killed." Such faith is very rare, and seems almost like tempting God. It was doubtless the intention of the Radicals to kill every man; in fact, the order was given that they "be sure all were entirely dead, so that no one be left to tell the tale." During the march the prisoners were continually tortured by jeers and oaths from the heartless crowd. Some said, "We will have fried scalps for dinner;" others said, "We can make women and children cry." Such is the treatment received by men for opinion's sake—men taken from their work in the fields, with only their farming utensils to defend themselves—driven like cattle, abused by language too fiendish for civilized ear.

Some of the fiends were residents of Fort Scott, and pretended friends of their victims, never having had any difficulty either of a private or political nature, although some of them have repeatedly said that "if the Crittenden Montgomery bill passed every Free-State man in the neighborhood should bite the dust."

Thus the Pro-Slavery as well as the Free-State men have been murdered in cold blood for having voted against Buchanan's pet measure.

I will withhold all obnoxious remarks, but leave your readers to judge for themselves, having given to them the simple, unvarnished tale, as related and confirmed by honest-minded, intelligent men.

Ex-Secretary Stanton arrived in town to-day. He is strongly opposed to Leconte Junior, and seems eager for contest. He says he intends to stump the Territory against it.

We feel grateful for his good intentions, but think he had better save his breath, for it will be a superfluous labor. We need no urging to treat with contempt such a barefaced imposition.

We copy the following rich account of our own Senator Bigler's illumination from Forney's "Press," and recommended its careful perusal particularly to all good Democrats, who have been in the receipt of "onion," or other garden and vegetable seeds, either from Senator Bigler, or our own distinguished Representative, Mr. DIMMICK. "The crisis is eminently becoming critical."

Senator Hale Illuminating Senator Bigler.

Our Washington correspondent, in one of his late letters, spoke of Senator BIGLER'S last achievement in the debate about garden seeds, and also of Senator HALE'S remarks, which are as follows:— "The scene took place on Friday, the 25th ult.

Mr. HALE. It is very rarely, sir, that a debate in the Senate is intended to influence the action of members here, but it is made to enlighten the country. I confess, however, that this debate has enlightened my mind. I was at first inclined to go against this appropriation, but the considerations which have been urged with so much force by the Senator from Pennsylvania, I confess, have awakened my convictions in that direction, and have almost induced me to go for it. If the appeal which he so powerfully and pathetically made to the honorable Senator from Georgia has not moved him, he must be impervious to eloquence and to pathos.

highly so, [laughter,] or else it would not have been introduced. I do not know what the "right bower" is, I suppose it is a novel [knave-a] term, [laughter,] or something of that sort.

But I was proceeding. The Senator from Georgia and myself do not agree on political questions; we have differed; but, I believe in our social intercourse we have never had any difficulty, and whenever it has been in my power—I do not know that I ever had an opportunity where it was in my power to do him a slight favor, but if it was the case, I would do it; but if he has the slightest personal regard for me, I beg to throw it into the same scale where the eloquence and pathos of the Senator from Pennsylvania have gone before me, and both together we ask for—a little onion seed. [Laughter.] Can he under these circumstances, resist? No, sir.

I am as strict a constructionist of the Constitution as any, not excepting the honorable Senator before me, [Mr. Toombs.] But I have read all the platforms, and I suggest to the Senator from Georgia that he is a little fast. I think considering what has been done, we may continue to vote these seeds, at least until the Charleston Convention sits, and then I have no doubt after these developments, there will be a new resolution that will cut off these seeds, and that onions will be unconstitutional ever after—[laughter.] But until that is done, until that proviso is put in, I think the faithful may construe the provisions of the Constitution and the Cincinnati platform as the honorable Senator from Pennsylvania has suggested. I think we may construe them without straining the Constitution any more to buy onion seeds than it does to catch runaway slaves. I guess when you find a provision in the Constitution that there is a mode to take money out of the Federal treasury to pay for returning fugitive slaves, you will find also the provision that a little sum may be paid for onion seed. Until a clause forbidding it comes either in the Constitution or the Charleston Convention, let us have seed but I have no doubt it will be unconstitutional after the Convention sits.

STATE CONVENTION.

The United American, Republican, and People's Committee of Superintendence for the city of Philadelphia, earnestly desirous to extend and perpetuate that union of the elements of opposition to the present National Administration, which in this city has lately resulted in such brilliant success, do hereby respectfully suggest, and recommend to the State Committees representing those several elements of opposition, that they call upon the citizens of Pennsylvania, who are opposed to the present National Administration; especially to its despotic and fraudulent Leconte policy, and in wilful neglect of the just claims of domestic industry; and who are in favor of the sovereignty of the people over their own local concerns; of American institutions as against the policy and intrigues of foreign Governments; and of adequate protection to our home labor, to assemble in their respective Senatorial and Representative Districts, to choose delegates to a State Convention, to meet at Harrisburg, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at 2 o'clock, P. M., of WEDNESDAY, the 14th DAY OF JULY, 1858, to nominate candidates for Judge of the Supreme Court and Canal Commissioner.

Holloway's Pills.—Bilious headache, and all affections of the system which result from an insufficient or immoderate flow of bile, are at once relieved by the operation of Holloway's Pills. Dyspepsia and liver disease are inseparable; for the stomach and the liver always sympathize, and as this great medicine acts powerfully upon both these important organs, it performs the work of cure with a precision, rapidity, and thoroughness which have no parallel in the records of medical practice. The Pills may be relied upon with the utmost confidence in cases of diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera morbus, spasms of the stomach, cholera infantum, and all other disorders affecting the digestive organs and the bowels.

A Card from Samuel Swan & Co. TO THE PUBLIC.—The extraordinary course pursued by rival managers of different Lotteries to injure us because our liberal schemes, and prompt manner of doing business has materially affected them, compels us to call special attention to the facts, which all who deal with us know already; that is, that our Lotteries are legal; the managers and trustees honest and honorable men; that we have sold more prizes in the last twelve months than all other Lotteries in the Union, and that they have been promptly cashed in all cases on presentation.

The effort to injure us is aimed not only at our business by our rivals, but is also intended to act politically on one of our partners; and we assure our friends and the public that WITH OUR CONCERN ALL IS RIGHT, and this, the legal investigation which we shall urge to a hearing, will fully demonstrate. In the meantime our business will be conducted as usual.

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.

Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand: A few words on the rational treatment, without Medicines, of a permanent or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by B. DE LANEY, M. D.

THE important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the impudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without medicine, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding the advertised nostrums of the day.

Stroudsburg, Oct. 22, 1857.—tf

Borough Ordinance.

Be it enacted by the Chief Burgess, and Town Council of the Borough of Stroudsburg, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That the side or foot walks on the several streets hereinafter named, be graded, curbed and paved—viz: West side of Franklin Street from the South side of Main Street to North side of Ann Street—and the East side of same street from the North side of Main street to the Court House square—also the side or foot walk in front of Charles Traub's stable on the west side of said Franklin street between Main street and the Court House square—North side of Ann street from the East side of Green street to the West side of Franklin street—and the South side of same street from the East side of Green Street to the West side of Centre street—Also Sarah street on both sides from the West side of Centre street to East side of Franklin street—the said grading, curbing, and paving to be done by the first day of September next, under the direction of the Town Council, and in accordance with the surveys, (as to height and width) made by the same. All of the above side or foot walks to be curbed with good stone and paved with good hard bricks. Provided that the foot walk on the West side of Franklin street in front of Charles Traub's stable as aforesaid, may be paved with hard brick on edge, or good flat stones.

Approved the nineteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

SAMUEL REES, Jr. DEALER IN HATS, CAPS, Boots, Shoes & Findings.

Desires to call the attention of the public, to a new and well selected stock of fashionable Hats and Caps, which are just received and will be offered to the people of Stroudsburg and vicinity, on very favorable terms for ready pay. Also, to a new stock and assortment of ladies and Gentlemen's fashionable Boots and Shoes sold cheap for cash. Also, Shoe Findings of all descriptions such as dressed and undressed Morocco Skins, Shoe Pegs, Hammers, &c.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

Whereas, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and whereas, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. But it known therefore, to all, whether Maids, Wives, or Widows, that Dr. Cheesman's Female Pills are alone the certain panacea for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to the whole sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity. And whereas, these Pills are purely vegetable and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, be it known, that nothing but the said Pills of Dr. Cheesman will accomplish the desired object, when disappointment has been experienced under the regime of other Pills; and the LADIES will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always remembering that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say, that the Pills must not be taken when any female is in an interesting situation, otherwise a miscarriage will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheesman, Box 4531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by one Druggist in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal, C. L. CHEESEMAN, M. D. General Agent for the United States, 165 Chambers-st., N. York.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor. In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a catalogue of diseases; burns, scalds, cuts, chafes, sore nipples, corns, bunions, strains, bites, poison, chilblains, liles, scrofula, ulcers, fever sores, felons, ear ache, piles, sore eyes, gout, swelling, rheumatism, scald head, salt rheum, baldness, erysipelas, ringworm, barbers itch, small pox, measles, rash, &c., &c. To some it may seem incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor. In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that the work-shop, or manufactory should be prominent without it. No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraved with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer. For sale by all the Druggists and Patent Medicine Dealers throughout the United States and Canada. Principal Depot, 165 Chambers St., New-York. C. F. CHACE.
