

The Democracy Alarmed. We have just learned that the Lecomp-ton Dimmick Democracy have become desperately alarmed, for the safety of their dough face, principle deserting, and champion of treachery and broken promises, Wm. H. Dimmick; and have called a number of meetings to be addressed in German and English, by Gentiles and Others. Those who hear them, we hope, will not desert their own common sense. Remember the Buchanan party in Illinois have an opposition ticket in the field against the regular Democratic ticket which supports Douglas.—The opposition ticket in Illinois is supported by all Post masters and federal officials in that State. We are with Douglas who support Doctor Shoemaker and represent the true Democracy. So fire away with your little Lecomp-ton guns. DEMOCRAT.

Hon. John M. Read and the Tariff of 1842. At a meeting held September 28, 1858, of the Committee of Correspondence, appointed under the resolutions of a meeting, on the 15th of June last, of the friends of Protection to Domestic Industry, irrespective of party, the following Preamble and Resolution were adopted: WHEREAS Secret Circulars have been sent to various parts of the State, assuming the guise of friendship to the great measure of Protection, and asserting that the Hon. JOHN M. READ, now candidate for Judgeship of the Supreme Court, had in the year 1823, in the Legislature of the State, voted against Protection—that he had in the month of July, 1846, signed a letter to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him on his casting vote in favor of the Tariff of that year—and, generally, that he had been, and still continues to be, adverse to the Protection of American Labor; and, WHEREAS, The opinions of Mr. Read in favor of Free Trade, thirty-five years since, were held by him then, in common with Daniel Webster, and thousands of others, many of whom have since been distinguished for their advocacy of protective measures—experience having taught them, as it has taught him, the destructive effects of the Free trade policy; and, WHEREAS, The assertion in relation to the letter addressed to Mr. Dallas is utterly untrue—its falsehood having been clearly exposed in an editorial of the North American, a copy of which is hereto annexed; Therefore, Resolved, That we hold JOHN M. READ to be a decided and earnest friend to Protection to Home Labor, and, as such, entitled to elicit the votes of those of his fellow citizens who advocate that policy; and that we, therefore, cordially recommend him to the support of all who desire a revision of the Tariff.

HENRY C. CAREY, JAMES MILLIKEN, WILLIAM D. LEWIS, G. N. ECKERT, JOHN W. O'NEILL, WILLIAM ELDER, THOMAS BALCH, Committee.

We find the following important statement in the North American of Tuesday morning: On the 14th of July last, John M. Read, of the city of Philadelphia, was unanimously nominated by the People's Convention, assembled at Harrisburg, for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court. The convention passed the following resolution: "Resolved, That the revenue necessary for a judicious and economical administration of the government, should be raised by the imposition of duties upon foreign imports, and in laying them such discriminating protection should be given as will secure the rights of free labor and American Industry;" which resolution was approved by Mr. Read in his letter accepting the nomination.

Some weeks ago we received a letter from a friend in the interior, stating that Mr. Read had signed a letter to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846. Since then the same assertion has been made in an editorial of the Lancaster Intelligencer, of the 21st inst., and in other papers, and we have been informed that secret circulars, conveying the same information, have been sent privately to leading iron masters in the State.

The files of the Pennsylvania have been searched and the following appears to be the facts:—On Tuesday, 28th July, 1846, Mr. Dallas, as Vice President gave his casting vote in favor of the tariff of that year. On Wednesday, the 29th, a letter was written by Athanasius Ford, signed by him and a number of democratic citizens, to Mr. Dallas, approving his vote of the preceding day; to which Mr. Dallas replied, in a letter dated (Saturday) August 1st; which correspondence was published in the Pennsylvania of Wednesday, August 5th. Amongst the signatures to the letter of the 29th of July, the name of John M. Read does not appear, but there is the name of John F. Read, a respectable democratic citizen who then resided in Chester street, in North Mulberry Ward, but who now resides at No. 240 Madison street, and who approved the conduct of Mr. Dallas in giving his casting vote for the tariff of '46.

In addition to these facts, we are authorized by Mr. John M. Read to say that he was not in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of the 29th of July, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August, were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 29th of July, nor did he ever sign it, nor authorize any one to sign it for him. Mr. Carey furnishes us with the following: "I have examined the Pennsylvania of Wednesday, 5th August, 1846, and attached to the letter of the 29th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Athanasius Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Read."

Holloway's Pills.—Armed with this great antidote, the traveller is prepared to encounter all varieties of climate, for he has the means of eradicating nearly every species of internal disease. The epidemics of the alluvial districts of the West, and the miasmatic swamps of the South, and the epidemics which at particular seasons decimate the population of our crowded cities, are susceptible of being controlled by the purifying, disinfecting action of the pills upon the animal fluids; while external diseases and injuries are rapidly and thoroughly cured by the anti-inflammatory and healing agency of the Ointment.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor. In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a catalogue of diseases: Burns, scalds, cuts, chafes, sore nipples, corns, bunions, strains, bites, poison, chilblains, bites, scrofula, ulcers, fever sores, felon, ear ache, piles, sore eyes, swellings, rheumatism, scald head, salt rheum, baldness, erysipelas, ringworm, barbers itch, small pox, measles, rash, &c., &c.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor. In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, workshop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES. Whereas, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and whereas, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. But it known therefore, to all, whether Maids, Wives, or Widows, that Dr. Cheesman's Female Pills are alone the certain panacea for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to the whole sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity. And whereas, these Pills are purely vegetable and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, be it known, that nothing but the said Pills of Dr. Cheesman will accomplish the desired object, when disappointment has been experienced under the regime of other Pills; and the LADIES will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always premising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say, that the Pills must not be taken when any female is in an interesting situation, otherwise a miscarriage will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheesman, Box 4,531, Post Office, New-York City. Sold by every Druggist in every town in the United States.
