

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1859.

We have received the first number of a new literary paper started in New York by FRANK LESLIE. From the specimen sent us, we should predict for it an extensive circulation. It contains exciting tales, startling adventures, fine poems, and humorous and laugh-provoking sketches; all furnished by the most popular writers, and well illustrated by numerous engravings.

A very respectable and appreciative audience was in attendance on Monday evening, to hear Judge Porter's lecture on "Northampton and its people." The Judge acquitted himself in fine style, and related numerous anecdotes illustrative of ancient times, in his usual felicitous manner.

The next lecture of the course is to be delivered on Tuesday Eve., next, by Robert P. Allen, Esq., of Williamsport. Subject: "Natural and Moral Beauty."

Notice.

The first lecture of the Philomathean Society was given last Monday evening, to a large audience, by the Hon. J. M. Porter. The remainder of the course will be delivered by the following gentlemen:

FOR THE JEFFERSONIAN.

MR. EDITOR:—I advocate the principle of economy in all things, and I think it folly for a man to incur the expense of firing bomb shells at mosquitoes; because an application of sole leather will answer the same purpose. I have no time to waste in bickering about trifles with such an insignificant and contemptible creature as More Light has shown himself to be, however much it may gratify his vanity for me to do so.

There is a class of persons, Mr. Editor, who, failing to acquire notoriety by any laudable means attempt to force themselves upon public notice by annoying, with their puny attacks, their superiors; and if they succeed in calling forth any demonstration in reply to their impertinencies, their object is attained. Such persons remind us of the cur in the fable which we recollect of translating in our juvenile days; who, seeing a lion at a distance bounding over the plain, had the presumption to pursue him, growling and barking with all his might, and vainly imagined that the lion was fleeing from him in fear.

In regard to this controversy, I will merely make a short explanation, and then drop a subject, of which I am sure the public are as tired, as I am. A few weeks ago, I published a short account of the proceedings of the Society, without having any definite object in view in so doing.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. We cannot too earnestly recommend to the attention of our aged friends, or others who have been so unfortunate as to lose their hair, the restoring properties of Professor Wood's wonderful discovery. Certificates of its efficacy are constantly coming in, and a village can hardly be found in the West, where living witnesses cannot be found to testify from experience that it will not only restore gray hair to its original color, but will restore to the bald head the locks of youth and beauty, thus furnishing an effectual antidote for the ravages of time and disease.

FACTS FOR THE PUBLIC.

We would respectfully state to our friends and the public who make adventures in lotteries, that WOOD, EDDY & Co., successors of Samuel Swan & Co., of Augusta, Georgia, and Gregory & Maury, Wilmington, Delaware, are in every way reliable. An inclosure of five or ten dollars (more or less) will be promptly responded to in every case; and if your ticket should turn out a prize, the money (let the amount be what it may) will be as promptly paid over to the holder.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR.

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD. Composed entirely from Gums. Is one of the best Purgative and Liver medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human system; and when it perverts its functions, the system is fully developed. The Liver is almost entirely dependent on its healthy action for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, & the whole sequence of one or more organs ceases to do its duty, has made its study in twenty years, to whereunto to encourage to which Complain, in any of try a bottle, and compare the results. These Gums read matter from their place a healthy agent the stomach, giving well, purifying and health to the morning the cause of a radical cure. Bilious attacks are better, prevented, by the Liver Invigorator. One dose after each meal will cure Dyspepsia. Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmares. Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures Constipation. One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia. Only one dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache. One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure. Only one dose immediately relieves Cholera, while one dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera. Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness. One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin. One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well. One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose. One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in Children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails. A few bottles cures Dropsy, by exciting the absorbents. We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever & Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious Type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues. All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor. Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR. Is a Scientific Medical Discovery, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver. PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE. DR. SANFORD, Proprietor, 345 Broadway, New York. And retailed by all Druggists. Sold also by Hollinshead & Detrick, and James N. Durling, Stroudsburg, Pa. July 1, 1858.—1y.
