Bogus Coin in Albany.

Our city is flooded with bogus three cent pieces. They readily pass current with those who don't take the trouble to examine them closely. The bogus ones that we have seen have no milled edgethe stars surrounding the letter C are very indistinctly cut-the bunch of rods tied together in lower bow and the leaves in the upper bow of the C are wanting in the bogus coin. On the reverse side of the coin the star is very badly executed -the points being almost rounded, instead of being distinctly and finely cut, as in the genuine. A lady friend of ours to whom we showed the two coins, turned out the contents of her port monnaie, and out of eleven three cent pieces, ten were bogus .- Albany Journal.

Bad news for Settlers in the West.

Mr. Cobb, the Secretary of the Treasury, who is the willing tool of the proslavery despots that rule the American people, having successfully resisted a gaged in forcing over two millions of acres of public lands into market in hard times, to the ruin of industrious settlers, and the lasting injury of Wisconsin and forced to "prove up"--that is, pay cash for their farms. This will be a harvest for speculators to loan their money and watrants, on mortgage, at usurious rates. Many acres of public lands in Wisconsin are advertised for sale the 2d of May, before pavigation usually opens, and when it will be impossible for any but rich speculators to be on hand. The Senators and tepresentatives of the northwest have remonstrated against the injustice of forcing land sales at a time when the settlers are suffering from famine and others distresses, but in vain. It seems to be the settled policy of this government to oppress the people in some way result, wether so intended or not.

A Female Deceiver.

The Dayton (Obio) Journal tells a story of a young man from Burke county, who was engaged to marry a girl of that city. He gave her $50 to buy her wedding clothes, and was to have been married on Sunday evening. But when the time came, and everything was ready, the girl did not appear-she had run off with a fellow she liked better.
