THE GREAT WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTUKY,

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

MAIR RESTORATIVE. Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source--If certificates are guarrantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery body. from the press:

BATH MAINE, Jan. 20, 1856. Professor O. J. Wood & Co. .

GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called neys. a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced it purgeth all burnt choler and melancholy to make application of it upon my own bair, which had become quite gray, probably onethird white; my whiskers was of the same character. Some three months since I procured a baile of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the so quick as drinking the juice of this herb. world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and believe more soft and glossy than it has been mare, and all melancholy dreams, a disease before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, dial, the greatest strengthener of the heart, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one and adjoing towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I with fennel seed or ginger. wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours, and the adder there is the utmost antipathy; A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. Professor Wood-Dear sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answeras the very thing needed.
