

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1859.

DEDICATION. Providence permitting the new Methodist Episcopal Church, at Tannersville, Monroe County, will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, on Sunday, October 30th.

Mammoth Cabbage. We have in our possession a monstrous Cabbage raised by Silas L. Drake, Esq. of Stroud township; it weighs without the roots, 36 1/2 lbs.

The citizens' meeting in the Court House on Tuesday night, though not largely attended, was more successful than could have been expected.

The exciting incidents of a political campaign are again over, and we congratulate our readers upon the fact that after the stirring contest which closed on Tuesday of last week, the State is still safe.

We give in another column the figures in the different townships of the County, at the late election. The Democratic majority on the State Ticket is larger than we supposed, but the fact is accounted for to a great extent, from the contest that took place in regard to County officers, the State ticket not being made a test of party strength.

Greenleaf's New Mathematical Series. We have been handed a series of treatises on Mathematics, compiled by Benjamin Greenleaf, A. M., embracing a Primary Arithmetic, a Mental Arithmetic, the Common School and National Arithmetics, a treatise on Algebra, and a work on the Elements of Geometry.

Wisconsin Overrun with Bears. The Wisconsin papers come to us freighted with the terrible accounts of the fright caused to the inhabitants in all parts of that state by wild and savage black bears.

It is stated that the Masonic fraternity contemplate the raising of a fund of $100,000, a portion of which is to be devoted to the building of a Masonic temple at the seat of the Federal Government, and the revenue derived from it to be applied to the purpose of establishing a house for the support and education of the orphan children of deceased Masons.

Rejected by the People—Rewarded by the President. The President has again illustrated his eminently Democratic principle of rewarding those whom the people repudiate.

Fire—Fifteen Horses Burned. The large new stable attached to the United States barracks in this town were destroyed by fire last night, together with fifteen horses and a quantity of feed.

Thank giving Day. Governor PACKER, by Proclamation, recommends Thursday the 24th day of November to be observed as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, by the people of Pennsylvania.

A meeting of citizens took place at the Court House on Tuesday night last, for the purpose of organizing a Joint Stock Company for the manufacture of boots and shoes in Stroudsburg.

On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in both papers of the County.

On motion adjourned to meet again at the Court House on Tuesday night, November 1st, at half past seven o'clock.

THE ELECTION. The exciting incidents of a political campaign are again over, and we congratulate our readers upon the fact that after the stirring contest which closed on Tuesday of last week, the State is still safe.

We have gained the Senate, which will help us elect a United States Senator in place of Bigler, in 1861.

The Ohio Election. Cleveland, Oct. 13.—The Republican majority for the State ticket is about 17,000.

They approach farm houses, says one paper, "in broad day, sometimes 2 or 3 coming together, and manifest not the slightest fear at the sight of human beings, while dogs are seized in their fatal bug and carried off to their lairs, when more desirable provender cannot be found."

Harper's Ferry was full of soldiers and militiamen yesterday and more constantly pouring in. Never before was such an uproar raised by twenty men as by Old Brown and his confederates in this memorable affair.

Quick Trotting. KALAMAZOO, Mich., Saturday, Oct. 15. A great trotting match for the Citizens' purse of $2,000 came off this afternoon.

The receipts of the St. Louis Fair amounted to $50,000.

Insurrection at Harper's Ferry—Insurrectionists in Possession of the U. S. Arsenal—Express Train Fired Into.

The Express train going East, was twice fired into, and one of the Railroad hands and a negro killed, while they were endeavoring to get the train through the town.

The above was given just as it was received here. It seems very improbable, and should be received with great caution, until confirmed by further advices.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—A later despatch received at the railroad office says, the affair has been greatly exaggerated.

The wires from Harper's Ferry are cut, and consequently we have no telegraphic communication beyond Monocacy station.

BALTIMORE, P. M.—The Western train on the Ohio Railroad has just arrived here. Its officers confirm the statements just received touching the disturbance at Harper's Ferry.

THE INSURRECTION, so called at Harper's Ferry, proves a verity. Old Brown of Osawatomie, who was heard of on his way from Missouri to Canada with a band of runaway slaves, now turns up in Virginia, where he seems to have been some months plotting and preparing for a general stampede of slaves.

Harper's Ferry was full of soldiers and militiamen yesterday and more constantly pouring in. Never before was such an uproar raised by twenty men as by Old Brown and his confederates in this memorable affair.

There will be enough to heap execration on the memory of these mistaken men. We leave this work to the fist hands and tongues of those who regard the fundamental axioms of the Declaration of Independence as "glittering generalities."

The receipts of the St. Louis Fair amounted to $50,000.

Below we give the official vote for Representative in this District.

The Murderous Plot.

The San Francisco papers come clothed in mourning for the death of Senator Broderick, while their columns teem with tributes to the memory of the deceased, and denunciations of the conspirators who murdered him.

Rejoice! Ye Curs of All Degrees! Let there be gladness in every false and brutal heart, for the man who has stood up like a pyramid of rough granite amid the vile herd for ten years, is struck down, hunted to the death, for his opinions.

The Wealth of California. In regard to the present production of gold in California, it is not certain that it is less per annum than in the most palmy days of its history.

The New Oyster Bed. The Norwalk Gazette learns from good authority that a quarter of a million bushels of oysters had been taken from the newly discovered oyster placer, in Long Island Sound, up to Saturday night.

A Remarkable Case. Some two weeks since, at Louisville, Ky., an elderly German fell during the night down a steep flight of steps, and struck the side of his head against the wall at the landing.

Pumpkin Pie. As the pumpkin pie is the cheapest of all pies, and the season for them is now here, we publish the following recipe for making the same of grated raw pumpkin.
