But the leaders, by their bickerings, and their blundering management and blind obedience to the Administration, that had By sweltering wights, who hope to catch already so badly damaged their party, An air, from ocean blowing. allowed the golden opportunity to pass. As the case stands now, the more sagacious adherents of the Democratic party freely admit that it is but of slight practical importance to the contest in Novem ber, whether their party presents a disided or united front to their adversaries. If a combination is formed that will, in Have earned the means to enable them any contingency, cours to the advantage To spend some time in dreaming. of BRECKINRIDGE, thousands of the DougLAS men will stay at home on election day, or else vote for LINCOLN. Friends and Fellow Citizens :- Some Recorder, of Monroe County, at the ensuing October Election; but since then I have been led to believe that the National and State polities of our Country demanded the services of every loyal democrat in the coming crisis; and, being a warm and true friend of Douglas, John son and Foster, I will decline being a candidate, and do all I possibly can, in a fair and honorable manner, in advocating tion, at the next Court of Common Pleas their cause; and by so doing assist in the preservation and perpetuity of the principles which have long preserved the nationality of the Democratic party. For the above reasons I withdraw my name as a candidate for the aforesaid office -To my friends at home and throughout the August 16, 1860. County I return my most sincere thanks.
