

Coughs and Colds! Coughs and Colds!

Let no one neglect a cold or slight cough. Thousands, doing so, have had one cold added to another, until the mucous membrane, lining the air passages, has become excessively irritated, and even permanently thickened, and soon chronic cough, chronic phlegm, and consumption successively gallop along.

Prof. Wood: These will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head.

My friend, SUSANNAH KIRBY, Ligonier, Noble Co., Ind., Feb. 5th, 1859. Dear Sir: In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly.

At once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect.

Borough Ordinance.

Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Stroudsburg, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same.

Section 1st.—That from and after the first day of October next, no person or persons shall be permitted to erect, keep or maintain any booth, stall, tent, stand or carriage or any other place, for the purpose of vending or otherwise disposing of any kind of articles of traffic or merchandise, and particularly such articles as are usually sold by the keepers of Restaurants: such as bread, cakes, meat, porter, ale, cider, or confectionery of any kind, within the lines of any of the streets, lanes or alleys of said Borough.

Section 2d.—If any person or persons shall do or violate this ordinance by erecting, fixing or having any booth, stall, tent, stand or carriage or any other place, for the purpose of vending or otherwise disposing of any of the articles above enumerated, it shall be the duty of the Constable of said Borough, whenever a violation of this ordinance occurs, under the direction of the Chief Burgess to seize such booth, stall, tent, stand or carriage, together with such articles of traffic, and remove the same outside of the limits of said Borough; and it shall also be the duty of said Constable, whenever a warrant for that purpose shall be issued by any Justice of the Peace of said Borough, to levy and collect by a public sale of the articles so removed any sum in the discretion of the Chief Burgess not exceeding five dollars, after having given twelve hours notice of said sale, by not less than three written or printed hand-bills, posted in public places in said Borough; and the said Constable shall forthwith pay the proceeds of any such sale to the Treasurer of said Borough, first deducting such amount as may be deemed reasonable by the Burgess, as a compensation for the services of said Constable, in discharging the duties imposed by this ordinance.

Approved this 29th day of August, A. D. 1860. SAMUEL MELICK, Burgess. GOTLEIB AURACHER, PHILIP SWARTWOOD, JOHN N. STOKES, DAVID D. WALTON, NICHOLAS RUSTER, Town Council.

Attest—JACKSON LANTZ, Sec'y. September 6, 1860.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHNAPPS TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI-DYSPEPTIC, AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schnapps.

Read the following from the New York Courier: "Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality, and of the best price."

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.
