'In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by Commissioners and Assessors, or his right to vote whether thereon or not is objected to by any qualified citizen it shall be the duty of the inspector to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the district for one year or more his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof at least by one competent witness who shall be a qualified elector that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next preceding such election and shall also himself swear, that his bonafide residence in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not receive in said district for the purpose of voting therein. Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable circumstances, is unable to attend said meeting of Judges, then the certificate or return as aforesaid shall be taken charge of by one of the Inspectors or clerks of the election of said district, who shall do and perform the duties required of said judge in relation to attend. be extended, before that time. Editors favorable to the cause are requested to give this article an early insertion. And it may not be amiss to state that the services of the agents, the Central Committee, and the local committees, are purely gratuitous. By order of the 'C. R. Committee,' J. G. REASER, Chairman. Leavenworth, K. T. Sept. 28, 1860. It is quite impossible for us to afford space for the large number of letters which have come to us during the past three months. So long as there seemed a doubt as to there actually being a drought, we have kept them on file, for convenience of reference in case of the necessity; but as the matter seems definitively settled, and pretty thoroughly defined in the circular of the Presbyterian Church, we shall no longer do so. We hope that there are enough men with liberal hearts and Christian spirit who will cheerfully send something of their abundance to relieve the actual want of American men, women, and children, who have the prospect of famine before them through the long months of a Western Winter.

Mrs. Bardell Cunningham was married but a few weeks since, in California, and her new husband, it is said, has already left her a widow.

THE Only Preparation THAT HAS STOOD THE TEST OF YEARS, And grows more and more popular every day! And testimonials, new, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty. Battle Creek, Mich. Dec. 21st, 1858. Prof. Wood: These will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hedges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being desirous of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if there wouldst not be willing to send me an order on three agents for a bottle, and receive to myself the scripture declaration--'the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless.'

Liganor, Noble Co. Ind'a, Feb. 5th, 1859. Prof. O. J. Wood: DEAR SIR--In the latter part of the year 1832, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my moral acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all. At once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully, yours, A. M. LATTA. Attorney and Counselor at Law.

GEO. H. ASHTON, No. 832 Market St. Philadelphia. Sole Agent for Philadelphia. Read the following from the New York Courier: 'If Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.--We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive ware house, Nos 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19, and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand cases--Vintages of 1845 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also has three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., under Custom-House key, ready for bottling, under Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandy and Wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.
