Indian Queen Hotel. Melchoir Bossard, ex Sheriff of this County, recently took possession of the Hotel kept by Capt Kemmerer, and on last Thursday. evening gave a very excellent supper to a number of his friends.

Mr. Bossard is a very elever accommoda. Stroudsburg ting man, and we have no doubt that the Hotel under his superintendence will at least maintain its former good reputation Jackson Its capacity and accommodations we understand are considerably extended, Eldred and undoubtedly those who bestow their Polk patronage upon him will be well pleased with themselves for so doing.

No Faper next week.

There will be no Jeffersonian issued next week. The momentous political Coclbaugh campaign is now over, and its good results, to all interested, we hope, in a fair way of being accomplished. We are weary and wish for a holiday of one week, and hope that our readers will be thus indulgent. In our next issue we hope to be able to ashounce the result in all the States, except Oregon and Californta.

She told who took charge of the funerals how the procession was formed; who made the prayer at the house; how the boys were dressed, (their garments were made afterward and out of the house;) that the minister met us; bow the mourners sat. and who were there; told the hymns, the text, the minister's name, some things he said, and the manner he treated his subject; told to whom I applied to dig the grave, his excuse, and then who did dig it. Seeing all this, she reflected and rea soned with herself-"I must be dead, for I have seen all that has happened for two days. Then she awoke, and after telling the dream, requested me to remember it. as it might prove true; and if it did, it would prove the reality of future life.

And here I must add, it did all prove most wonderfully true! Nothing was done, however, to make it so. The Rev. Mr. Fisher was sent for to preach, and when, after the funeral, I told him the vision, he said "it was not a dream-it was of God," and he knew it because of the part he took. He got a subject nearly arranged for the sermon, when he lost it and could not recall it. He took another, and lost it. But a few minutes before he storted, the text he used came to mind, and he prepared his sermou on the way. Aud that one just met the dream! lieve. Others may doubt.
