The Place.

BY THE BARD OF THE EASTON HALL OF FASHION. Since the election day is over, And returns are nearly in, And 'tis no longer wonder Which candidate will win; And 'tis also settled matter That West Ward is the place Which the new Forum (building) For Northampton is to grace. What will there be to waken Enthusiasm now !

For with nought to cause excitement, In our goodly borough, how Shall people banish ennui! Our place is known to all, Where, if they need amusement, 'Twould be well to make a call;

We mean the Hall of Fashion, Where mens's clothing, (the winter style, Of peculiar materials, Are cheaply sold by Pyle.

The handsomest assortment of Ready Made Clothing and piece goods ever seen in Easton is now on exhibition, at Pyle's Great Easton Hall of Fashion, opposite the Easton Bank.

As many stoves are filled with clinkers. the following simple method of removing terms, &c., by addressing them may prove of use to housekeepers generally: After baving secured a bot fire, throw in five or six oyster shells and allow them to burn up. If this is repealed several times the clinkers will loosen In the Orphan's Court of Monroe and can be easily removed.

A Curious Case was tried la-t week at Reading. Twenty one years ago a wo man had a warrant issued for the arrest of a man who she stated was the father of a child which she had previously added to the population of Berks county .-Before the warrant was served he escaped and went to Ohio, where he subsequently married and made himself a " man of means." Last summer he returned, on a visit, and as soon as he arrived, the old warrant was served upon him. He was absent on the trial of the case, but was represented by cou-cl. The woman. however, was present, and the infunt twenty-one years of age, was al-o in the Court room. Both plaintiff and defend ant now have families. We doubt if a similar case was ever tried in this or any other country. The man was convicted .-Harrisburg Telegraph.

IF Enormous Business for one New York Merchant .- We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this mer chant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive ware house, Nos 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19, and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases-Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Maderia, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamacia and St Croix Rum. some very old and equal to any in this counmy. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace t with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.
