

A Peace Proposition.

The Peace Conference has at last agreed upon a plan of compromise, being Mr. Guthrie's plan, in a modified form, which they recommend to Congress, to be laid before the several States for adoption. Substantially, the proposition is a restoration of the old Missouri Compromise line, through to the Pacific, and which it is proposed to incorporate in the Constitution. To effect this two-thirds of both houses of Congress must agree to lay the proposed amendment before the State Legislatures for ratification and three-fourths of the several States are necessary to ratify it, either by Legislative act or by Convention. What chance there is in Congress for such action we shall soon see. The time is short for its action, but in time of peril to the country action may be stimulated by a patriotic regard for the public interest, and a desire to save the Union from disruption.

Pickpockets.

We learn that the light-fingered gentry drove a thriving trade at Harrisburg on the 23d. The Military parade in honor of Washington's Birth-day, the assembling of the Democratic Convention, and the visit of Mr. Lincoln on that day, offered inducement for the migration of pickpockets. A large number of persons lost their spare change, among whom we learn were Judge Barrett, of this Judicial district, Judge Jessop, and M. W. Coulbough of Monroe county. Judge Barrett's loss was a pocketbook containing some $70.—Milford Herald.

Brand Them.

A bill is now before the Legislature, requiring bank officers, whenever a counterfeit bank note is presented to them, to brand the bill so offered, with the word "counterfeit," by means of a stamp to be kept for that special purpose.

Disunion in North Carolina.

The Raleigh Banner gives a brief account of a Disunion meeting in that city. It was a wretched fizzle. Per contra, The Banner says a Union meeting held the next night was a magnificent affair, with a large and enthusiastic crowd, good speeches, transparencies, fire works, &c., and characterized throughout by the genuine article of patriotism.

Effects of Secession.

A gentleman recently from Florida corroborates the accounts of destitution we have heretofore had from that State. Poor people, he says, are beginning to feel hungry. Pork is $30 a barrel, flour $13, corn $1 75, and oats $1. E-establishments, which a few weeks ago had eight clerks, have now only one. Small towns which were thriving have been suddenly checked in their growth, and have a desolate appearance. Proprietors have already been taxed $14 per head for their negro property, and negroes which sold for $1, 100 each six months ago, would not now fetch $500.—St. Paul (Min) Press.

It is not singular that the Democratic papers of this State have not a word of blame to utter respecting ex Secretary Floyd's treasonable and dishonest operations!

In the Pennsylvania Legislature, Mr. Hopkins satirized the Crittenden Compromise by the following proposed amendments: "That free negroes who are seamen and are arrested in the South be paid ten dollars per day for their detention. That persons who are tarred and feathered in the South shall receive $1,000. That persons who have their heads shaved and are otherwise maltreated shall receive $3,000. That the families of men who are hung by Lynch law in the South shall receive $20,000.

One of the best business men in Kentucky writes to a friend in a free city: "I hope you men of the North will not budge one jot from Lincoln's principles. There is no danger of the Union; it is all gas at the South." A New Orleans merchant writes that it is mostly a political game of the defeated Breck party, in which many Bell and Douglas men unite from mere policy.

The Real Grievances of Slaveholders.

I. The prospective development of a Republican party among the non-slaveholding whites of the South, who form nineteen twentieths of the white population. This is the great grievance.

II. The loss of a sixty years' monopoly of the Government, its military and civil offices—a loss that leaves much idle gentility at the South without resource.

III. The loss of prestige and power by the old political parties, and their humiliated leaders—a terrible grievance both at the South and North.

IV. The humiliation of that insolent arrogance which is the legitimate fruit of slaveholding. This is the second great grievance.

V. Blind and growing jealousy of the prosperity of the North. No blotting compromises will remove these, the true grievances. The complete triumph or the complete overthrow of Republican principles is the only remedy. The latter is impossible.

Skating near St. Joseph, Missouri.

While skating near St. Joseph, Missouri, last week, James Graham, caught sight of a wolf, turning down the river, and instantly gave chase; just on the eve of being caught, the frightened brute jumped into an open stretch of water, followed by the eager hunter, who seized his game by the tail, got safely landed, assisted by some friends, and finished by killing the wolf.

The ghost of Andrew Jackson evidently troubled the secessionists in Tennessee at the late election. In the old Hermitage district the disunionists received only four votes all told. The old General must certainly have been "about" on the occasion.

Bill for the Commutation of Tonnage Duties.

The bill commuting the Tonnage duties on the Pennsylvania Railroad passed final reading in the House of Representatives Feb. 16th. The vote on final passage was as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Aschom, Austin, Ball, Bartholomew, Blair, Bressler, Brewster, Burns, Butler, (Carbon) Butler, (Crawford,) Byrnes, Caldwell, Cowan, Craig, Douglas, Duffield, Duncan, Dunlap, Eilenberger, Gaskill, Gibbons, Goehring, Graham, Harvey, Hillman, Hofius, Huhn, Koch, Lawrence, Leisenring, Lowther, M'Donough, M'Gonigal, Marshall, Moore, Morrison, Mullin, Ober, Osterhout, Peice, Preston, Pugh, Randall, Reilly, Ridgway, Robinson, Roller, Seitzer, Shafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Phila.) Passage of the Sunbury and Erie Bill. The bill for the relief of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad was passed finally Feb. 16th, in the House of Representatives by the following vote, viz:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Anderson, Armstrong, Aschom, Austin, Ball, Barnsley, Bartholomew, Bisel, Blair, Boyer, Bresler, Brewster, Butler, (Carbon,) Butler, (Crawford,) Byrnes, Caldwell, Collins, Cowan, Craig, Douglas, Duffield, Duncan, Dunlap, Eilenberger, Gaskill, Graham, Happer, Harvey, Hayes, Hillman, Hood, Hofius, Huhn, Kline, Koch, Lawrence, Leisenring, Lowther, M'Donough, M'Gonigal, Manifold, Marshall, Moore, Morrison, Mullin, Ober, Osterhout, Peice, Preston, Pugh, Randall, Reilly, Rhoads, Ridgway, Robinson, Roller, Schrock, Seitzer, Shafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Berks,) Smith, (Phila.) Stehman, Strange, Teller, Thomas, Walker, White, Wilder, and Davis, Speaker—72.

Politically eighteen Democrats voted for the bill and ten against it. The others voting were all Republicans.

Attempted Assassination of the Hon. Chas. Van Wyck.

On Thursday night of last week, at about 11 o'clock, Mr. Van Wyck, a member of Congress from the Orange and Sullivan District, N. Y., was subjected to a most cowardly and brutal assault, by three ruffians, armed with bowie knives. An account of the affair in the N. Y. Herald, says that Mr. Van Wyck, had just left the residence of Senator King, on Capitol Hill, and was passing down by the north wing of the Capitol to his lodging, when a stout built man came up behind him, and struck him with a bowie-knife in the breast over the heart. The knife penetrated the outside and inside coats, passed thro' a folded copy of the Globe, and then nearly thro' a thick memorandum book, both of which were in the breast pocket of his frock coat, not quite reaching the skin.

Mr. Van Wyck struck the man a blow under the jaw which staggered him, when the second ruffian struck a blow at Mr. Van Wyck with a bowie-knife, which the latter caught with his left hand, making a terrible gash across the palm. At the same time he (Van Wyck) knocked the fellow down with his right, and instantly drew a revolver and shot the first ruffian, who dropped and was caught by his friend.

The third ruffian knocked Mr. Van Wyck down with his fist. This blow, together with the effect of the one he first received, and especially from the profuse bleeding of his hand, weakened him very much, and observing that the ruffians were making haste to escape with their wounded companion, who appeared to him quite helpless, he sank himself almost exhausted upon the sidewalk, and did not rise again. But as soon as he gathered sufficient strength he made his way to his hotel, which he did not reach till after twelve Friday morning. He said very little about the affair, except to one or two confidential friends, Dr. Lee, of the House, who dressed his wound, and to the police, in the hope that the parties might be quickly discovered, but no trace of their whereabouts was ascertained.

Mr. Van Wyck is suffering considerable pain from the wound in his hand, but is in no serious danger. He cannot account for this attack upon him, unless it has grown out of his speech at the last session, which created so much excitement and discussion because of its severity against the system of slavery, wherein he cited instances of slave burning. For some time after its delivery he received letters threatening his life. Outside of this he has no knowledge of having created the enmity of any human being. He is a man who never visits gambling or drinking saloons, and while he is a resolute man when assailed, in his daily walk he is very quiet and gentlemanly.

A New Counterfeit, of a dangerous character, is in circulation. It is on the Wyoming Bank of Wilkesbarre, of the denomination of $10, and is so good an imitation of the genuine that the only way to be protected against it is to refuse all notes on the bank of this amount.

General Twigg's name, it is said, will be stricken from the army list with disgrace, for his unprincipled and unexampled betrayal of the trust reposed in him by his Government. By one set he was dishonored the whole career of his life, and proved that his patriotism was only a feeling of attachment to the public treasury, from which he was so long fed.

The Lottery Abomination.

There is a swindler at Wilmington, named Fletcher, who is flooding the land with his lottery circulars, of a most infernally lying description. These circulars are sent to everybody whose address can be obtained; and it is presumed, in rural districts, where no directories exist, agents are appointed to supply him with the names and post-offices of all persons of any means. In this dirty business no one is omitted,—even ministers of the Gospel are outraged with these circulars, without there being any apparent mode of protection. In these circulars, which are always accompanied with a "glorious scheme" of the lottery, the most plausible baits are thrown out to catch gudgeons, and none other than unsophisticated persons—those wholly unacquainted with the fraudulent character of these gambling contrivances—are caught by them. These, therefore, are especially to be warned; and when we say to them that the chances are much greater that they will die by the time the lottery is drawn, than that they will draw a prize worth having, they can either out their prospects of success, with but little difficulty, should they ever indulge in this demoralizing and ruinous species of gambling.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your bowels uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the forerunners of disease, and should be arrested by a timely use of the right remedy. Ayer's Cathartic Pills, and cleanse out the diseased humors, purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in healthful channels. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A collection somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. Thus, if not relieved, it reacts upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general degeneration, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and you will directly feel better, and the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the desperate and dangerous disorders. The same purgative effect exists there. Caused by similar obstructions, and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are equally, and many of them curable, by the same means. Some who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Flourishing Merchant of St. Louis, Mo., 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of a chronic fever upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with rheumatism and palsy on her skin and on her hair. After our child was cured, she also cured your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.
From Dr. E. W. Outright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the precise purgative, they are excellent, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Pail Stomach.
From Dr. Edward Dept, Baltimore.

Dear Bro. Ayer: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we treat with or procure satisfaction. I place your Pills on an equal footing in my daily diet with coffee and tea, and believe as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. DEPT.

Rheumatic Disorders—Liver Complaints.
From Dr. Theobald Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of Rheumatism, than any other remedy I can mention. I sincerely believe that they are as simple and safe as any medicine which the confidence of the profession and the people.

Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Relax, Worms.
From Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass.

Your Pills have had a long and successful career, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their salutary effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, with which I have cured many cases of dysentery and diarrhoea. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.
From Dr. J. T. Hines, Physician of Andover, Mass.

Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of the liver, to excite the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. T. HINES.

Worms, Worming, &c.

Constipation, Catarrhs, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, &c., &c.
From Dr. J. T. Hines, of Lowell, Mass.

So much cannot be said in praise of the cure of dysentery. Members of our fraternity have found them so efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming their benefit to the world, although bad enough in itself, is the purgative of others that are worse. I believe confidence to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.
I find one or two large doses of your Pills taken at the proper time, are excellent purgatives of the natural action of the bowels, when wholly or partially suppressed, and very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so simple the best, physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.
