

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1861.

Samuel Bossard has been appointed Post Master of Bossardsville.

John Leforge has been appointed Post Master in Milford, in place of John B Wells removed.

The War.

The Federal Government seems fully aroused to the importance of the occasion, and is putting forth its strength to strangle this monster Rebellion. The President has called for 85,000 more troops...

The North is united as one man, and has resolved that this hitherto glorious Republic shall not be destroyed to gratify the ambitious motives of a few traitorous demagogues...

It is now supposed that Maryland will back down from its secession position, and resolve to stay in the Union yet a while.

If she comes to this sensible conclusion it will be fortunate for her; for if she secedes, the secession spirit will be quickly shaken out of her, and she will be brought back into the Union in a hurry, in spite of herself.

Capt. Keller.

When Fort Sumpter surrendered to the rebels, it created a deep and wide-spread indignation, and aroused the latent patriotism of every lover of his country...

There can be but little doubt that the Captain is much better qualified to do domestic service than military duty, to which, we trust, he will hereafter devote his whole attention.

The Federal Capital.

For eight or ten days after Virginia declared herself out of the Union, Washington seemed to be in imminent danger of falling into the hands of the rebels; and Maryland, at the same time, shutting up the national highways leading to the Capital, added greatly to the danger.

The Cause in Pennsylvania.

The report that ex-President Buchanan has fled from Wheatland to escape the just indignation of an outraged nation, seems to be verified, and the belief in his complicity with the traitors is gaining credence every moment.

Mr. Sherman has been appointed Aid to Major General Patterson, and will be back here to-morrow night. The Hon. Thaddeus Stevens has tendered his house to Gen. Cook and Mr. Sherman for the headquarters of the brigade.

Important from Harrisburg.

Harrisburg, Thursday, April 25, 1861. It is currently reported here that ex-President Buchanan has hurriedly disposed of his farm at Wheatland, and fled to Canada, in consequence of threatening remarks made against him by the Ohio troops...

Virginians called to Account.

Harrisburg, Friday, April 26, 1861. Large numbers of Virginians arrived here to night via Chambersburg. They were required to take a test oath to take up arms or be imprisoned.

Large quantities of flour are deposited at the Capital. Virginians here say that fully 15,000 troops in that State are under arms.

Important from Missouri.-Gallant exploit of the Illinois Volunteers. Chicago, Friday, April 26, 1861.

The Illinois troops have struck a great blow at the secessionists of Missouri. Acting under orders from the President of the United States, an expedition of Illinois volunteers crossed over to St. Louis, and brought immense stores of artillery, ammunition, and small arms, which had been stored at that post by the Government.

The amount of Federal property thus secured from the hands of the secessionists of Missouri is of great value. Among the articles recovered were 21,000 stand of small arms and a park of artillery.

The Illinois boys declare, in true Western style, that the 'Secessionists are cuthured.' This exploit has caused great joy here, and the volunteer force is highly praised for the skill displayed in the matter.

Arms to be Bought in England.

The State of New York sends a special agent in the next European steamer to purchase $500,000 worth of the most approved small arms now used in the English and French armies.

Slaughter of Rebels in Fort Moultrie.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 29, 1861. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Vermont arrived here to-day. He has been residing in North Carolina in consequence of bad health for two months past.

The barbette guns of Fort Sumter were silenced early in the day, and the round shot from these were most destructive to Fort Moultrie, and caused the greatest loss of life.

Our Millionaries.

The New York Sun says Mr. Peter Cooper remarked, on Thursday, in the presence of several friends, 'Gentlemen, I am too old to fight, but I have some money, and my country can have every dollar of it if it is needed to uphold the Constitution.'

Session in Maryland.

Chambersburg, Pa., April 29, 1861. A test in the Maryland Legislature today on Secession resulted, Yeas, 13; Nays, 53.

Enrolled Military.

The proclamation of the President, calling for a force of 75,000 volunteers, has met with an energetic response from the entire North.

Western Virginia.

Harrisburg, April 29, 1861. Four intelligent men from the western part of Virginia waited on the State Administration to-day, invoking its influence with the National Administration to procure arms to defend themselves.

The Number.

The whole number of Pennsylvania Volunteers mustered into the United service at Camp Curtin up to the 23d, is six thousand six hundred and ninety-nine.
