

THE BANK BILL.

SUPPLEMENT to an act for the equalization of the currency of the State, approved the seventeenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty one.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the banks of the Commonwealth are hereby required, until the second Tuesday of February next ensuing, to receive at par, in payment of all debts due or to become due to them respectively, the notes of all the solvent banks of the State which paid specie for their liabilities on and immediately prior to the nineteenth day of November last, and which shall continue solvent; and the said banks are also hereby authorized to pay out, in all their business transactions and discounts, the said notes so long as the banks issuing the same shall remain solvent; but in case any president and a majority of the board of directors of any of the said banks should certify to the Governor, under oath or affirmation of the president, that they have just reason to believe that any bank included in said category is in an unsound or unsafe condition, the Governor shall appoint a commission to investigate the same, as provided in the third section of the act of October thirteenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven entitled "an Act providing for the resumption of specie payments by the banks, and the relief of debtors," and no bank shall be required to receive the notes of any bank thus discredited until reported sound and solvent by such commission.

SEC. 2. That the several collectors of taxes, tolls, and other moneys of the Commonwealth, and also county treasurers, are hereby authorized to receive for State purposes the notes of the solvent banks of this Commonwealth, though not specie paying banks, in payment of the said taxes, tolls, and revenues; and the State Treasurer is hereby authorized to receipt for the same, in the same manner as though said banks were specie paying.

SEC. 3. That on failure of any bank in this Commonwealth to comply with the provisions of this Act, such fact being satisfactorily made known to the Governor, his charter shall thereby be forfeited, and he shall so declare such forfeiture by proclamation; and the directors thereof shall forthwith make and execute an assignment in the manner provided by the Act entitled "An Act regulating banks," approved the sixteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

SEC. 4. That any bank or incorporation which has within one year suspended specie payments, or refused to redeem its notes as provided by the laws of this Commonwealth, the forfeitures, penalties, or liabilities arising therefrom not having been heretofore remitted or suspended by Act of Assembly, shall be deemed thereby to have forfeited its charter; and upon such fact being satisfactorily made known to the Governor, he shall declare such forfeiture by proclamation, and assignment shall be made by the directors of such bank, as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 5. That stated or special meetings of the directors of banks shall be held at such times, and under such rules and regulations for the transaction of business as the directors may adopt, and in the case of the sickness or absence of the President his place may be supplied by a President, pro tempore, to be appointed by the directors from among their number; and so much of any act or acts of assembly inconsistent with the election of said President pro tempore, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. That the several banks of this Commonwealth shall be required to redeem in specie or its equivalent, so much of their circulation as may be in the hands of the State Treasurer and may be necessary to pay the August interest.

SEC. 7. That the president, cashier or other officers of any bank in this Commonwealth shall take an oath or affirmation, to be administered by some officer authorized by law to administer oaths or affirmations, that they will not knowingly or intentionally violate any of the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement or the provisions of the act regulating banks, passed April 16, 1850, and its supplements, and that the fifteenth and sixteenth sections of the act regulating banks, approved April 16th, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, any other acts of assembly conflicting herewith, be, and the same are hereby repealed; Provided, That no cashier shall engage in any other profession or calling, directly, than that appertaining to the office of cashier.

The amount of Gold and Silver in the New York Banks, is more than triple the average antecedent to the crisis of 1857. The large amounts now being distributed for government purposes find their way back in less than a fortnight. Even during the past week $1,000,000 have been added to the sum named in the last statement. This steady maintenance of a specie reserve of near $40,000,000, altho' in ordinary times perhaps indicative of stagnation in trade, is now a sure reliance for the worst emergencies that may occur.

A singular superstition prevails among the common people in Austria and Switzerland in regard to the Free Masons.—They believe that the portraits of all the members are hung in the lodge-room; and that when a member betrays the secret of the order, a pistol is fired at his portrait, causing his instant death wherever he may chance to be at the moment.

The Phoenix Iron Works, at Phoenixville, are busily engaged in making a number of wrought iron guns, six and twelve pounders, for Philadelphia. They are also casting several thousand solid twelve pound balls and shells. They are also making extensive preparations for making the same kind of guns for government.

THE WAR.

BY THE BARD OF THE EASTON HALL OF FASHION. One topic now engrosses The thoughts of old and young, In valley, plain, o'er hilltop, The notes of war are rung.

The pruning hook's forsaken For the musket, spear, and knife; Peace-loving men are hasting To engage in deadly strife.

The times, when our proud nation, Stood a beacon for the world— When the glorious "Stripes and Stars," Were but on gala days unfurled.

When our noble eagle's pinions, Were not fettered in their flight, When without contending evil, The "might would yield to right,"

Are times among the by-gones; Yet the cloud that hovers o'er Our country now, and threatens Ruin and death to pour,

Is destined soon to banish, Northmen can never bend— Law and Union, are the blessings For which they now contend.

A gallant band of brothers, They have pledged themselves to stand Defenders of the freedom, Of this once favored land.

They have left the cheerful fireside For a soldier's life of care; And manfully, the hardships Of a soldier's life they bear.

To relieve from some discomforts, Which to their lot must fall, Purchase for them all good clothing, At Pyle's Easton Fashion Hall.

A splendid assortment of clothing, for sale cheap, at Pyle's Hall of Fashion, opposite the old Easton Bank.

Cleansing Gun Barrels.

We see in the Scientific American and other papers receipts for cleansing gun barrels. They are all open to the objection that they involve the use of water, thus requiring time to dry the barrels and incurring the danger of rust. We give a method used by scientific sportsmen in England with success: Get a quantity of quicksilver which can be kept in a strong pill box, and when the barrel is to be cleaned, place the thumb on the nipple, pour the quicksilver at the mouth, and then run it up and down for a few minutes.— Turn it back into the box and the barrel will be perfectly clean. The mercury forms an amalgam with the lead and removes it. The lead can be taken from the mercury by straining.

The Southern Confederacy borrows money on very excellent terms.— "What did you give for that horse, neighbor?" "My note." "Well that was cheap."—Prentice.
