

The Jeffersonian. THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1861.

Admitted.

We were pleased to notice among the proceedings of the Court, the admi-sion of our friend John F. Drinkhouse, as an attorney at law. John is a right elever fellow, is possessed of more than an ordinary share of talent, and is made up of that sure kind of material which can hardly fail to push him on to eminence in his profession. Having graduated from our office, a few years ago, an expert in the 'art preservative of all arts,' we feel a large share of interest in his welfare, and sincerely wish his future, in the ranks of Blackstone, may be as success. ful, as we are vertain it will be bonorable Success to you John.

Our Military Company.

Captain George B. Keller's Company of Volunteers is now about full, yet a few more good men would probably be admitted. The Company was inspected on last Tuesday the 4th inst., by Major Gregory, the Brigade Inspector, accompanied by Col. C. D. Brodhead The Company was subsequently examined by Dr. S. Walton, accompanied by the Brigade Inspector, as to health, age and soundnes of limbs, when some four or five were ted for Captain, Jacob W. Shoemaker for Second Lieutenant. These nominations were taken to Harrisburg to the Governor of this William Overfield, Jr. and Stroud J. sin and disgrece, for which, at the hand of State, who will very probably authorize the persons for the offices for which they are respectfully nominated. FIRE.

The Foundry and Machine shop, belonging to Charles S. Edmonds, in Chesnutbill, in this county, together with all the patterns and Machinery belonging to the same, was destroyed by fire, between twelve and one o'clock, on Saturday last. There was no insurance on either buildings or Machinery. Loss about two thousand dollars. As no fire had been used in the buildings in which the fire criginated for several months, it was then taken for the immediate furnishing doubtless the work of an incendiary; and of some articles necessary for the present our earnest hope is that the vile misere | comfort of the soldiers, and the following ant whoever he may be will be brought officers were appointed : Miss A.
