Published by Theodore Schoch. TERMS.—Two dollars per annumin advance—Two dollars and a quarter, half yearly—and if not paid before the end of the year. Two dollars and a half. No papers discontinued until all arrearages are paid, IFA ivertisements of one square (ten lines) or less, one or three insertions, $100. Each additional insertion, 25 cents. Longer ones in proportion.

JOB PRINTING.

Having a general assortment of large, plain and or mamental Type, we are prepared to execute every de

PANCY PRINTING Carls, Circulars, Bill Heads, Notes, Blank Receipts, . Legal and other Blanks, Famphlets. &c., prin ted with neatness and despatch, on reasonable terms

MODERN DEFINITIONS.

Hard times-Sitting on a cold grind. stone and Reading the President's Mes-

Lore-A little world within itself, intimately connected with shovel and tongs. Progress of time-A peddlar going thro' the land with wooden clocks.

Politician - A fellow that culls all his knowledge from borrowed newspapers. Rigid Justice-Juror on a murder case fast asleep.

Friend-One who takes your money and then turus you out of doors.

Patriot-A man who has neither money nor reputation to lose. Honesty-Obsolete; a term formerly used in the case of a man who paid for his newspaper and the coat on his back. Independence-Owing fifty thousand dollars which you never intend to pay. Lovely Women-An article manufactured by milliners --

> "Who wants but little here below, And wants that little for a show."

Dandy-A thing in pantslooms with a body and two arms-a head without brains-tight boots-a cane-a white bandkerchief-two brooches and a ring on his little finger.

Coquette- A young lady with more beauty than sense-more accomplish | plied: ments than learning; more charms of persons than graces of mind-more admiters than friends-nore fools than wise men for attendants.

Credit-A wise provi on by which constables get a living.

Benevolence-To take a dollar out of one pocket and put it into the other.

What he Died of.

We overheard once the following dialogue between an alderman and an Irish

"What's gone of your husband, wo-

"Wat's gone of him, yer honor? - Faith sir he's gone dead."

"Ah, pray what did he die of?"

"Die, yer honor, he died of a Friday." but what complaint?'

"Oh! what complaint your honor; faith ecoplain."

"Ob, be died suddenly."

"Rather that way yer boner." "Did be fall in a fit!" No answer.

"He fell down in a fit perhaps?"

call it."

"Ay, and broke his neck " "No, not quite that, yer bonor."

"What then!" "There was a bit o' string or that like, and it throttled poor Mike."

Contempt of Court. .

The other day a young lawyer of one fore a committing court composed of three | ionable drinking mint juleps. they refused to commit the prisoner to that beverage." jail. Our lawyer, whose name is McKay, concluded to take revenge on the magis- he called the boy again. trates. He accordingly began the at-

"I wish your Honor would fine me five dollors for the contempt of Court," he bringing 'em.

"Why, Mr. McKay!"

tempt for the Court."

more decided than the Court's contempt the secessionists blazed away at him. It "Vell, it may bees as it ish all right, turned to Augusta to close up my business. ble. My fellow passengers expressed but for vital and indefeasible rights, that for you," was the response of one of the astonished bim, and he thought it must but I don't vant any more of your gus. I continued in my trade there for a considerable surprise at seeng me, and can only be parted with when inexerable Telt it; but another worshipful member of and a half above his head. That made one of our contemporaries dispo. in Iowa. I dare not purchase gold at tanoogs, as usual, to purchase a large that were. the Court - a dry, hard looking old black bim mad; he did not come there to be see of the virtue of early rising as fol the bank myself, for fear of attracting the quantity of bacon, in which I was dealing work, and completely demolished the his "Floyd Gun" and popped away at are the early risers, and as a general one was allowed to leave the country o- whom I knew to be in the same business, last week distributed over fifty bushels of young lawyer:

with."

a notorious borrower when he sould find a lender. He has never jested with the his arms into the air and disappeared be- a drink." Court since the rebuke.

Breaking up an Establishment,

lishment in six weeks."

Northern Pluck in California. An incident occurred in the United States Marshal's office at San Francisco, which is too good to be lo-t. It is told on good authority, and is, doubtless, substantially correct. It is well known that there are several small models of ships in the Marshal's of fice, which have been ornamented with cessionists, - nothing is more common into a nice looking pie.

several gentlemen were setting in the the cravings of their hunger. When buque, some of my political constituents the rebels. Marshal's office, attending to business, a they had finished their repast, they were wrote to the latter city for information as I then repaired to the depot nearly an ty of numbers by no means ensures sucbig strapping fellow, all the way from asked bow they enjoyed their supper -- to my antecedents. The letter was ad- hour before the time for the departure of cess, is such as is never entered into with-South Carolina, with a revolver peeping "First rate," said one; "capital," said the dressed to one of the prominent law firms the train, and secreted myself under the out from under his coat tail, strode into other. "Then run home," was the reply, of Dubuque, and for some unaccountable rear car, on a cross piece which connect- fighting a battle only because the enemy tirade, when one of the gentlemen, Cap- and whenever the two men showed their He responded by calling out the entire wise maltreated—usually shot; so I knew A skillful general will give battle when thin - of the ship - , who was faces, they were met with ceaseless cries police force to disperse the rabble. what my fate would be, if I was detected. his army and situation caused be worse, observed to be getting nervous, suddenly of 'mew, mew," and they were Myself and son in law stood all that As the hour for starting drew near, my if defeated, than if he does not fight at jumped up, and taking his place in front compelled to leave the place. of the fellow, and shaking his fists, re-don't want to know you; but I suppose quently for the Union. We quote the in. My brave wife knew no fear, and the cars after the passengers were seated you designate me as one of those nutmeg conclusion of his recent speech on the would not leave my side, although I en- and closely questioning and scrutinizing tal specimen of humanity entered Monuselling mackerel-catching cod-livered subject of secession: don't recant, I'll whip you here and now. co. I see your pistol, but a don't care for it. Feller sitterzens -I am in the Sheer ed to pursue my business as usual I One of the ruffians lifted his gray locks excellent kicking. The operation was answer for it " termined bearing, and finding that he was what the Sapervizers of Baldinsvill may the information they had received was a old devil. We've got him !" etc., etc. - looking as mean as a sheap-stealing our. in downright earnest, replied by saying konklude to do, but for one I shall stand tissue of falsehoods, yet there ever after They howeled and then dragged him from - Baltimore Clipper. that his remarks were general in their na- by the Stares and Stripes. Under no lurked among them a suspicion of my loyal- the car to the platform outside, although ture and not by any means intended to sirkumstances whatsurever, will I sesesh. ty to the South. Thus we lived through the they did not know of anything be had apply to any particular person. Noth- Let every State in the Union sesesh, and winter, the community daily becoming done amiss. ing was further from his purpose than to let the Palmetter flags flote thicker nor more excited and bitter against those "I don't mean what day of the week insult any person present, and particular- shirts on Squire Baker's close-line, and who did not coincide to the letter with ly a stranger.

To this the irate captain retorted: -- good flag of the Stares and Stripes. without mercy. - Sacramento Bee.

To be Continued.

Juleps are in season and so is the story of the broad-backed Kentuckian who went down to New Orleans for the first

"Boy, what was my last remark?"

"Why you ordered a julep."

"Teat's right; don't forget it; keep on "Your contempt for the Court is not take care of the wounded, when one of claimed: be a mistake, when another ball came tom." This was a stinging retort, and Mac blowing through his cap, about an inch hind the breastworks.

A Good Story.

church breaking up each as he passed .- having called upon Dr. Spofford for ad- responding week in 1860 of 15,478. Montgomery, for me to enlist. I saw as high as at Augusta, so we concluded to German press in that section. The Union At length he found himself in the Pres- vice, declaring her all ment to be pain in The amount of tolls received from the that it would not do to hesitate an instant, go on as far as Nashville. On our arribyterian church, where he was making the bowels, the Doctor gave her a cathar opening of navigation till the first of July and therefore manifested great readiness val there we found that the Commissary ready made itself seriously felt by the great progress. The preacher, in great tie, and requesting her to call again in a was $997,013-an excess over the re- and eagerness to join. I was told I could of the Confederate Army and fairly skin. traitors. Secret Union societies exist distress, said to one of his elders: "What few days, which she did. He asked her ceipts last year to the same date of $212,- have my choice between infantry and cavshall we do with him?" "Oh?" replied if she had taken the medicine he gave 180. the elder, "I have been praying the Lord her; she replied in the affirmative. He to send him to hell." "Oh! brother, then asked her, did "anything pass you to send him to hell." "Oh! brother, then asked her, did "anything pass you what do you mean?" "Mean what I say; after taking it?" "Yes, sir," said she, have arrived in this country during the was on hand to enrol my name. I was limited supply at reasonable rates. I hope he will get to hell; he would do "a horse and wagon and a drove of pigs." present year, up to June 29, is 43,637 - very zealous, apparently, in my wishes to There were five cars of us all going for others is mistaken, and he who thinks good there; he would break up the estab. The Doctor coallapsed, remarking, "I a decrease of 5,701 from the arrivals to fight the Abolitionists, and by skillfully provisions. At last we landed in Louis- others can do without him is still more think you must be better."

A Mewsing Catastrohhe.-A Brace of free Lovers Punished.

of one's hand. They are made of paper, each visit the supper tray, after it had barism of slavery:

from the supper table, and the two sat the State electors. the place, with the sir of a Tarquin, and "and tell your wives you have had your reason answered in such a manner as to ed the wheels. Grasping my pi-tol in my is near, or from having no other formed suppers of cat pie!" To convince them direct the deepest indignation of the com- hand, and resolving to shoot the first man plan of offence, is not the way of making "Well, at last, thank God! we've got of the reality of the trick that had been munity where I lived, towards me. They who should discover me, I waited for e- war. Darius lost his erown and life by these d -d nutweg selling, played upon them, one or two of the paws were informed that I was a loud-mouthed vents. Soon after I gained this position it. Harold, of England, did the same; mackerel catching, cod livered Yankee of the deceased felines were produced and Abolitionist, and bad stamped the State the Vigilance Committee came into the and Francis the I, at Pavis, lost the batcons of - to come to taw. That's exhibited. As the despicable husbands of Iowa for Fremont. Within a short depot. They were a party of men ap- tle and his liberty. King John, of France, just what I've been wanting this many a made their ignominious retreat, they were time of the receipt of that letter my house pointed to see that no Northern men went fought the battle of Pointiers, though ruday, the nigger thieving, psalm singing met by a number of young men who bad was surrounded by an infuriated mob, away on the train, and to exercise a gen- in attended his enemy if he had not fought. abolitionists! We'll skin'em out of their been let into the secret, with such a cho- eager to wreak a blind vengeance on me. eral surveilance over all suspicious char- The King of Prussia lost his country, and rus of mewing as fairly put them to I appealed to the Mayor, who was a warm acters. If they discovered a Northern the reputation which Prussia acquired The braggart had scarcely finished his flight. News of the affair got abroad, personal friend of mine, for protection .- man be was taken out, whipped and other. from Frederick II., by the battle of Jena.

Artemus Ward on Secession.

Yankee sons of - I am captain "I say to the South, don't sesesh! I say to desperation by our common danger, an old man who answered to the descrip- Lyle's Regiment was playing the "Starof the ship ----, and I want you to un- to the gallant people of that sunny land, derstand that I will not allow any man jes lock up a few hundred of them tear. if necessary in defence of our home. feathered and shipped off. Appended to been played, or hero began hissing and to use such language respecting me and in, and roarin' fellers of yourn in some my people in my presence. And if you strong boxes, and send 'em over to Mexi. they found us too resolute to be imposed christian injunction, "if you catch him near, handed his gun to a comrade, and, therican name, and I for one will not I won't. And next Summer, when I one instance. A party of merchants were lease me."

Didn't Want his Custom.

A cute villager who was hard up, entime. Whisky, brandy, and plain drinks tered the grocery of a good natured Ger. shaved clean of the hair and whiskers .- At last the train moved out of the de- next night on retiring, the little one in he knew, but as to the compound flavored man, and called for some crackers, after Then the newly shaved portions were pot slowly around a curve, and when it liquors he was a know-nothing. Repos- receiving which he entered into conversa. daubed with tar and feathers, He then was out of the range of the depot lamps er Jo shoot the others but don't let the of the Western counties was employed to ing on the seats of the bar room of the tion with some others in the room; pretty received forty lashes and was given to I dropped from my perch and clambered others shoot Jo." A deal of human naprosecute a man indicted for larceny be. St. Charles, he observed a crowd of fash- soon he remarked to the proprietor that undestand that he had twelve hours to upon the rear car. Going into the car I ture, as well as patriotism in that prayer. he thought he would not take crackers make himself scarce. magistrates. On hearing the testimony "Boy," said be, "bring me a glass of but would take some beer instead and This was not an issolated instance. my hat over my face in order to escape The present war is frequently said to When he consumed the cooling draught bout to leave when the Dutchman called and many times they resulted in the the attention and remarks of my towns. show to the world that we have a Govern-the same date last year.

A RACE FOR LIFE.

paid court to two young women, servants, a few years since, is well known to the so. Those five charges are still in the cinneti. in a gentleman's family. As a matter of citizens of that town. The narrative giv- barrels, and so help me, they shall never Just before the train was to start an thing else, adopted a conservative view so. than to hear secession talk there. This On the night of the next visit from of matters. I was a strong Bell and Ev- I locked up my store and house, the History. has been particularly the case since the their unsuspecting admirers, a piece of erett man, and when the State Conven. one completely furnished from top to bot. Battles have ever been the last resource night at the head of the first flight of su-pense was agonizing in the extreme, all; and when the advantages may be stairs, in my bouse, with fire-arms and Finally a little incident occurred which great and the loss little. axes, resolved to sell our lifes as dearly probably insured my salvation from their "Now, sir, I don't know you, and I The great showman has come out elo- as possible, should the miscreants break clutches. The committee went through treated her to do so. She seemed nerved every individual. In one car they found ment Square as the band attached to Col. and ready to face and sacrifice her life, tion of a man who had been tarred and Spangled Banner." After the tane had upon, and after a short time I was allow give him hell." the bour.

seized and one side of his head and face could and died dearly.

returning them, drank the beer and was a- Deeds of violence were of daily occurence, recognition. By feigning sleep I escaped be a war for a Government-a war to "Hey, you sir, you no pay me for de of society boiling around me, I naturally train, until morning, when we reached of the right and duty of the Fight. It it "Why, yes I did, I gave you the all chance of injury. Finally, when they Augusta. If I could get beyond there I war that the United States Government is But you no pay me for de crackers" from the city for Jeff. Davis' army I for- was no telegraph between that place and crty and the fraheises of many millions A New York chaplain, cut a figure The simple minded Dutchman, after saw the time when I would be called on. Chatanooga, though there was one from of its citizens. It is a war for the direct Because I feel a very decided con- in the fight at Great Bethel. He went voinly trying to expher out how he was and determined to remove my wife and Augusta to Atlanta. into the field to encourage the men, and a loser in the transaction, at length ex children to the North. I started off with It was daylight when we left Atlanta, direct usurpation of three millions. It is them and sent them forward, while I re- so that further concealment was impossi- not for honor merely, not for barren rights, short time, endeavoring to convert my were anxious to know where I was going, fate extinguishes a Nation, and its wreck property into funds that would be current I informed them that I was going to Cha- is swept away with the debris of things picked out for a target, and so he up with lows: "We watched those fellows who attention of the Vigilance Committee. No extensively. Men of my acquaintance, them. A soldier at his side asked him thing, they are the first chaps who go to penly. Through the friendship of a young were also going after bacon, beef, pork, doughnuts to the Third Volunteer Regi-"We might fine you," he said, "but we what good he thought he did, when he the grocery stores in the morning. It is man named Powers, who had been boar- flour, and grain, and such other provis- ment of Maine. A procession of ladies don't know which one of us you'd want (the chaplain) considered that an insult, all moonshine about the smartest and ding with me, I purchased some current ions as we were forced to purchase in the neaded by music, passed between double to borrow the money from to pay it and told the soldier if be did not tumble greatest men being early risers. It might funds, perhaps $300 or $400. He was a more Northern States. the next man down he would report him have been so in old times, but now a days book pedlar from Ohio, who had been We all talked secession loudly; and were afterwards drawn up in bollow The laugh was against Mac. He was for wasting ammunition. The soldier when you see a chap moving about very selling a work entitled "Cotton is King," wore cockades and invoked destruction square to receive the welcome doughnalet drive, when one of the rebels threw early, you may be certain that he is after add it was through his friendship and upon the Federal Government, and none tions. services mainly that I escaped.

alry, and that I must meet my friends in the way of provisions, so there was daily becoming more open in their prothat night at the armory. I chose to join nothing left for us but to go on as far as ceedings. guarding my speech, led my comrades to ville, and found to our disappointment (!) mistaken.

place in the city, we believe, -- the Marsh- for the imposition practiced upon them, interest in political affairs while I lived it in a certian time, to send it to my fam- DOM. al's office is a privileged quarter for So. obtained two young cats which they made there, and, as much from policy as any- ily in Dubuque. He said he would do news of the breaking out of the war has the pie was cut as though it had come was in session, I was mentioned as one of tom, and the other containing some $9,- of good generals. A situation where 000 worth of goods, which I was obliged chance and accident often baffle and over-The story goes, that yesterday, while down with a keen relish, and satisfied As it was known that I came from Du. to leave behind to fall into the hands of come the most prudential and the most

You have insulted me sir, and you shall and Yaller leef. I shall peg out one of satisfied them apparently that I did not and saw the tar still adhering to his brow, witnessed by several hundred persons who these dase. But while I do stop heer, I entertain principles repugnant to their where he had been unable to remove it. The boa-ter, seeing the captain's de- shall stay in the Union. I know not peculiar views, and convinced them that He fairly yelled with delight, "Here's the Dixie slunk away from the neighborhood, that. He fell out of a window, or through in the knees, and finally wilted, while the same old flag that allers flotid than That same night a committee called on fore him. During all this time I lay with. returned to their masters, after a severe a cellar door-I dont know what they Tarpaulin raked the traitors fore and aft and the price of admission will be the him, and asked him if he had made such in a dozen feet of some of the party ex. correction. same it allers was-15 cents-one eyed a remark, when he replied "Yes. I do pecting every moment I would be discovmen and wimmin and children half not see the harm in it. It is one of the ered by some unlucky friend. It is well A little girl five years old, who has a first lessons in the military strategy not for him and me be did not, for that me brother in one of the Troy regiments, was to underrate the power of the foe." His ment would have been a signal for his told she ought to remember her brother explanation availed him nothing; be was death. I would have shot as many as I in her prayers on going to bed at night;

> sat down in the darkest corner, and drew death of the victims. With such a state men, many of whom were on board of the ment. This is but a partial expression felt auxious to remove my family beyond Atlanta, some two hundred miles from is the surface only of the truth. The had for some time been drafting troops knew I was comparatively safe, as there waging, is a war for the rights, the prop-were more violent in the discussion than One afternoon, an Orderly Sergeant I. It was my only alternative. I was Il The tolls on the New York canals came into my counting room and inform- fleeing for life and the merest bair might racter and strength, is on foot to organduring the last week in June amounted ed me that it would be necessary, in ac- turn race against me. When we arrived at ize a new State out of Western Texas .-A servant girl in Newburyport, Mass., to $123,275 -an increase over the cor- cordance with a recent requisition from Chatanoogs, we found the markets almost It is strongly supported by the united think I was the best Secessionists of them the inducements were so small for buying The Dubuque (Iowa) Daily Times, all. The Sergeant presented me with a there the only alternative left was to go The Haddonfield (Eng.) Examiner tells gives the following statement from a gen- splendid Colt's Navy revolver, which had to the great fountain head at Cincinnati, a good story and vouches for its truth: tleman who has just made his escape from been stolen from the United States. I re- and buy what we wanted. We all went Two men near town in the employ of a the Southern Confederacy. He is native quested him to load it for me, as I was across the river into Indiana, and every railroad company, fond of female society, of Dubuque, and being in business there not posted in that sort of thing. He did soul of us got aboard of the cars for Cincourse they were made welcome, and re- en in his own words, as nearly as possible be fired off until they are discharged into old man arose and made this remark :little secession flags about half the size galed with tit-bits from the cupboard. At and is another exemplification of the bar- the body of the Sergeant who loaded it. "Gentlemen, I don't know how you all and colored with red and blue ink. One left the master's table, was set before I had been doing a heavy wholesale ried home where I found Powers making once more." Ohl you should have heard I got away from the armory, and bur- feel, but I thank God, I am on free soil on the masthead of the largest ship bears them, and they generally did ample jus- and retail provision business in the city preparations to go North by the next the shout that went up. Every man of the name of Jeff. Davis, and the others ties to it. By some means it oozed out of Augusta, Ga., for two years and was train, which left at half past ten that us had been fleeing from Southern traitors, are ordinary three striped rags, recently that these ardent lovers were both mar- getting along with the inhabitants very night. I told him that I must get away and dare not avow it to each other. We adopted as the ensigns of the Southern ried men, and it got to the ears of their smoothly until a little circumstance trans. from Angusta that night at any cost. I all got out of the cars again apon the Slave Confederacy. On account of this lady lovers. The latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were of the latter were of course pired last fall which incited the populace of the latter were display of these flags,—the only public indignant, and as a suitable retribution against me. I had taken more or less board the train, and if I did not call for for once with three loud obsers for FREE-

General Scott's Prudence Sustained by able arrangements, and where superioriout a clear necessity for so doing The

Received a Kicking.

On Saturday night, a tall nondescrip-The people were pacified at last when the despatch describing him, was the called for "Dixie." A soldier standing approaching the Dixieite, gave him an were highly amused at the operation .-

A Horrible Negro Insurrection was discovered and frustrated by the activity "Gentlemen," said the aged man res. of the Vigilance Committee of False Point, pectfully, "I am an old man, and do not parish of St. Martin, La., on the 22d ult. still thar I'll stand, and stick onto the the damnable opinions that then ruled know I ever did any man wrong .- The whites were to be massacred, the wo-All I ask is for the privilege of getting men violated, and the houses burnt; the inan' it's himself that did'ut get time to "The language, sir, is an insult to the A. The country may go to the devil, but In illustration of this I will only cite home to my family. I beg you will re- surgents were to increase their band as they advanced. The negroes were led by stand it from any living man. No one start out on my campane with my show, discussing the impending crisis one after. They laughed his entreaties to scorn, an unknown white man; he was hauged to but a traitor and a coward can talk in wherever I pitch my little tent, you shall noon in a store not far from mime, when and bore him away in the dark, screach. the first tree, after ample proof of his guilt, that way. Retract it! retract it! retract it! and se a floating proudly from the center pole one of my neighbors made the following re- ing and yelling like demons, doubtless to and six of his black accomplices shared with this he commenced advancing upon thereof, the Amerikan flag, with nary a mark: Gentlemen, we must be careful and torture him with scourges, and perhaps the same fate; eleven other negroes were "A fit, yer honor! why no, not exactly the Secssionist, who began weakening stare wiped out, nary a stripe lesser, but not underrate the strength of the enemy.' to murder him as they have so many be. sent to the Penitentiary, and the others > but nothing further was suggested. The ber prayers said :- "Oh! Lord, let broth-rights of twelve millions, as against the

The ladies of Augusta., Me, one day lines of troops, who presented arms and

IF He who thinks he can do without