

Our readers will find on the first page, a couple of very interesting narratives of the re-capture of the schooner Sarah J. Waring and the brig Cuba, from Jeff. Davis's pirates.

A Swindler.—Stepped Out. A man calling himself William Hoffman, a watchmaker by trade, came to this place, a few weeks ago, and opened a shop for the repairing of clocks, watches, jewelry, &c.

In this county the beneficial effects of the volunteer system have been experienced by all parties. There may have been exceptions, but as a general thing, the people have shown the ability to select good officers, without heeding the dictation of would-be leaders.

Though not authorized to do so by its author, we publish the following letter as a matter of interest to our readers. Every thing relating to our boys is eagerly sought after, and read with avidity.

CAMP HALE, AT MOUNT CLARE, Baltimore, Md., July 28, 1861. Friend Schock.—Our Regiment, (4th Regiment P. R. V.) is now encamped at Mount Clare, the old estate of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and was, also, the headquarters of Generals Washington and Lafayette, and is supposed to be the place where their plans were laid for the capture of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown.

But we digress. Our object was to thank the Democrat for having given us a new subject for thought, and the power on its authority to announce to our readers that John Edinger, Jeremy Mackey, John DeYoung, J. Dupue Labar, C. D. Brodhead, Moses W. Coolsbaugh and William D. Brodhead, were named for the office of Associate Judge.

The following card, which was sent us for publication, cannot but prove acceptable to those generous donors who contributed so largely to the pleasure and comfort of our brave boys in Camp. A soldier's thanks is something to be proud of, because it is heartfelt.

In behalf of the National Guard of Monroe County, Pa., now Company F, 4th Regiment, P. R. V., we return our thanks to Rev. Mrs. Myron Barret, of Stroudsburg, for the Soldiers' Camp Library, to the Ladies of Stroudsburg for Havelocks, &c., and to Rev. Mrs. E. W. Hutter, of St. Matthews Church, Philadelphia, for Havelocks.

A Union Dog. During the battle at Bull's Run, a dog deserted from the rebel army and came over to the Seventy-first New York Regiment. He was received with military honors, and is now a great pet with the soldiers.

Election.—A Feeler The Monroe Democrat of last week, breaks ground for the political contest to come off this fall. It is probably well to give the matter some thought, if for no other reason than to relieve the public mind from the horrors produced by the catastrophe at Bull's Run.

Our county the election this fall will have a peculiar interest. The Squire gives notice that the good old rule which allowed every man, of whatever shade of politics, to employ his patriotism and talents in the public service, provided he could get votes enough, is to be headed off by the delegate system.

In our county the election this fall will have a peculiar interest. The Squire gives notice that the good old rule which allowed every man, of whatever shade of politics, to employ his patriotism and talents in the public service, provided he could get votes enough, is to be headed off by the delegate system.

In this county the beneficial effects of the volunteer system have been experienced by all parties. There may have been exceptions, but as a general thing, the people have shown the ability to select good officers, without heeding the dictation of would-be leaders.

Though not authorized to do so by its author, we publish the following letter as a matter of interest to our readers. Every thing relating to our boys is eagerly sought after, and read with avidity.

CAMP HALE, AT MOUNT CLARE, Baltimore, Md., July 28, 1861. Friend Schock.—Our Regiment, (4th Regiment P. R. V.) is now encamped at Mount Clare, the old estate of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and was, also, the headquarters of Generals Washington and Lafayette, and is supposed to be the place where their plans were laid for the capture of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown.

But we digress. Our object was to thank the Democrat for having given us a new subject for thought, and the power on its authority to announce to our readers that John Edinger, Jeremy Mackey, John DeYoung, J. Dupue Labar, C. D. Brodhead, Moses W. Coolsbaugh and William D. Brodhead, were named for the office of Associate Judge.

The following card, which was sent us for publication, cannot but prove acceptable to those generous donors who contributed so largely to the pleasure and comfort of our brave boys in Camp. A soldier's thanks is something to be proud of, because it is heartfelt.

In behalf of the National Guard of Monroe County, Pa., now Company F, 4th Regiment, P. R. V., we return our thanks to Rev. Mrs. Myron Barret, of Stroudsburg, for the Soldiers' Camp Library, to the Ladies of Stroudsburg for Havelocks, &c., and to Rev. Mrs. E. W. Hutter, of St. Matthews Church, Philadelphia, for Havelocks.

The Economy of Health. This busy nation of Americans have 12,000,000 working people, whose services may be estimated at $2 a day, and their annual loss by sickness at an average of ten days each in the year.

A large proportion of this costly suffering might be averted by attention to diet, cleanliness, and above all, by the proper use of the right remedy in season. When a 25 cent box of Ayer's Pills will avert an attack of illness which it would take several days to recover from, or a dollar bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, will expel a lurking disorder that would bring the sufferer to his back for weeks or months, does it take any figures to show the good economy of the investment?

The Almighty Dollar. "The Almighty Dollar," it is said, "is the chief object of" that peculiar individual "the Yankee." He will cheat, lie, and steal and even perjure his soul to get a grab at that dollar upon which he gazes with delight in his last hour.

The wheat and grass crops of the State will be, as a whole, ample for the wants of the people, although the army worms, the rust and the fly have lessened the aggregate of the wheat crop in the State more than 50 per cent, and the Army worm ruined the hay crop about in the same ratio.

Majority of our young men are organizing and drilling, and the greatest enthusiasm exists; although there are many who sympathize with and are for the traitors of our country. They charge our present national troubles to the abolitionists.

A card. In behalf of the National Guard of Monroe County, Pa., now Company F, 4th Regiment, P. R. V., we return our thanks to Rev. Mrs. Myron Barret, of Stroudsburg, for the Soldiers' Camp Library, to the Ladies of Stroudsburg for Havelocks, &c., and to Rev. Mrs. E. W. Hutter, of St. Matthews Church, Philadelphia, for Havelocks.

The Economy of Health. This busy nation of Americans have 12,000,000 working people, whose services may be estimated at $2 a day, and their annual loss by sickness at an average of ten days each in the year.

The Almighty Dollar. "The Almighty Dollar," it is said, "is the chief object of" that peculiar individual "the Yankee." He will cheat, lie, and steal and even perjure his soul to get a grab at that dollar upon which he gazes with delight in his last hour.

Majority of our young men are organizing and drilling, and the greatest enthusiasm exists; although there are many who sympathize with and are for the traitors of our country. They charge our present national troubles to the abolitionists.

MILITARY. A majority of our young men are organizing and drilling, and the greatest enthusiasm exists; although there are many who sympathize with and are for the traitors of our country. They charge our present national troubles to the abolitionists.

The Economy of Health. This busy nation of Americans have 12,000,000 working people, whose services may be estimated at $2 a day, and their annual loss by sickness at an average of ten days each in the year.

A large proportion of this costly suffering might be averted by attention to diet, cleanliness, and above all, by the proper use of the right remedy in season. When a 25 cent box of Ayer's Pills will avert an attack of illness which it would take several days to recover from, or a dollar bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, will expel a lurking disorder that would bring the sufferer to his back for weeks or months, does it take any figures to show the good economy of the investment?

The Almighty Dollar. "The Almighty Dollar," it is said, "is the chief object of" that peculiar individual "the Yankee." He will cheat, lie, and steal and even perjure his soul to get a grab at that dollar upon which he gazes with delight in his last hour.

The wheat and grass crops of the State will be, as a whole, ample for the wants of the people, although the army worms, the rust and the fly have lessened the aggregate of the wheat crop in the State more than 50 per cent, and the Army worm ruined the hay crop about in the same ratio.

Majority of our young men are organizing and drilling, and the greatest enthusiasm exists; although there are many who sympathize with and are for the traitors of our country. They charge our present national troubles to the abolitionists.

A card. In behalf of the National Guard of Monroe County, Pa., now Company F, 4th Regiment, P. R. V., we return our thanks to Rev. Mrs. Myron Barret, of Stroudsburg, for the Soldiers' Camp Library, to the Ladies of Stroudsburg for Havelocks, &c., and to Rev. Mrs. E. W. Hutter, of St. Matthews Church, Philadelphia, for Havelocks.

The Economy of Health. This busy nation of Americans have 12,000,000 working people, whose services may be estimated at $2 a day, and their annual loss by sickness at an average of ten days each in the year.

The Almighty Dollar. "The Almighty Dollar," it is said, "is the chief object of" that peculiar individual "the Yankee." He will cheat, lie, and steal and even perjure his soul to get a grab at that dollar upon which he gazes with delight in his last hour.

Majority of our young men are organizing and drilling, and the greatest enthusiasm exists; although there are many who sympathize with and are for the traitors of our country. They charge our present national troubles to the abolitionists.

MILITARY. A majority of our young men are organizing and drilling, and the greatest enthusiasm exists; although there are many who sympathize with and are for the traitors of our country. They charge our present national troubles to the abolitionists.

The Conduct of Savages.—The Cruel Chivalry. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

The Conduct of Savages.—The Cruel Chivalry. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, furnishes the following summary of facts in proof of the blood-thirsty character of the foe our men had to contend with, at the battle of Bull's Run.