

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1861.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

The Second Annual Fair of the Monroe County Agricultural Society, will be held on the Society's grounds, near Stroudsburg, on the 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th of October next.

Quite a Mistake.

Last week, through a mistake of our informant, we trotted our old friend James Morgan, of Pocono township, on the course, as a candidate for County Commissioner.

The Democratic Convention.

The Delegates of Pike and Monroe Counties met in joint Convention, in the Court House of this place, on last Saturday, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature.

The Convention was organized by the election of Wm. Overfield as President, and Isaac Case of Monroe, and Mr. Place of Pike, as Secretaries.

As a fitting prelude to the contemplated game the delegates of this County intended to play in joint Convention, they passed a resolution contrary to all custom and propriety to the effect, that no person should be deputized as delegate from any township who did not reside in the same.

But to the Joint Convention. It was conceded on all hands that Pike County was entitled to the candidate for the Legislature.

Appropriate and good Union Resolutions were then introduced and unanimously passed, notwithstanding about one fourth of the delegates were strong sympathizers with the Rebels.

The candidates were then called upon to indorse the Resolutions; and the leaders of the Monroe delegation said, that inasmuch as Mr. Westbrook had a majority he should be called upon to address the Convention first.

that it was not his intention to make a speech on the occasion, but stated that he could see nothing wrong or contrary to his views in the resolutions, and that they would control his action so long as they represented the wishes of his constituents.

A resolution was then presented to the effect that the candidates should indorse the nomination made by the Convention.

One of the leaders of the plot, to slaughter Mr. Westbrook, then moved that the convention proceed to nominate a candidate by ballot.

But what say the people? If the dictators are not bound by party usages, are the voters? A motion was then made to make the nomination of the dictators' candidate unanimous.

Reader as great a cheat as was ever inflicted upon a people was perpetrated by the so-called Democratic Convention held at the Court House in this borough on Saturday last, in the nomination of George H. Rowland for Representative.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS.

Everything is quiet at Washington. Impelled by a desire to stop the incessant and annoying firing between pickets, two captains of the National troops went yesterday with a flag of truce to the enemy's lines, and had a conference with some of the Rebel officers.

Considerable anxiety is felt for news from Western Virginia, as a battle between Gens. Rosecranz and Lee has been expected for some time.

The report of a battle between Montgomery and Rains, near Springfield, Mo., appears to be unfounded.

The situation and its Remedy.

The situation in which the action of the Democratic Convention, on Saturday last, left the party, and the people generally appears, from expressions and demonstrations on all sides, to be anything but pleasant.

Who is George H. Rowland? The history of the last Presidential campaign presents him to you as a most ardent and uncompromising supporter of that head and front of all our troubles, John C. Breckenridge of Kentucky.

For one who would aid Jeff. Davis in his hell born design to bury in a grave, dug by foul treason, the best Government the Sun of Heaven ever shown upon you, will vote for him.

But how is this to be done? The question is of easy solution. The Convention on Saturday, in order to hang this mill stone about your necks, violated the long established usages of the party which it pretended to represent.

We would suggest a county meeting without distinction of party, during our September Court to take charge of the matter.

Another Traitor.

Thomas A. R. Nelson, late Member of Congress from Tennessee, who was lately arrested by the Rebels and taken to Richmond, has issued an address to the people of East Tennessee recommending that they submit at once to the rule of Jeff. Davis.

General Butler on the War.

At the public meeting, called at Lowell, Thursday evening, to welcome back home Gen. Butler, that distinguished gentleman spoke as follows:

Mr. Mayor and Fellow Citizens: Your words of welcome are most dear. Home has brought to my mind all those associations of childhood, youth, and manhood that cluster around that sacred name, and in my absence I have known that here at least my motives would not be misunderstood.

I have endeavored to do my duty, and with the noble Massachusetts soldiers who left this town with me, and so far as action and purpose are concerned, I think we can say you have nothing of which you need be ashamed.

And when one day the 6th marched into Baltimore again about this time in the evening, with the rains of Heaven falling upon us, and the lightning of Heaven gleaming upon our guns, I saw a spectacle more splendid than I had ever before beheld.

More than that, you sent after them other companies, and of one I have the right to speak a word, as it came under my own command.

I say again that Lowell has reason to be proud of her soldiers; and have not her soldiers reason to be proud of Lowell?

You say well, Sir, there are no parties. We have a country torn at the present hour by intestine war, and until that country is put in peace, in quiet, there must be no party and no thought of party.

For one, I trust that there may be no attempt at peace, and after remaining a few days here, I am ready to return to my duty, and never return to Lowell until the last time, or until the work is accomplished.

Mr. Mayor, I have been led into a digression from the more appropriate duty of the moment, to return to you my sincere thanks for this too great honor.

Seasonable Recipe. Fried seed corn is an excellent dish, and just now in season.

Counterfeit Notes. Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1861. Counterfeit five dollar bills on the Cambridge City (Mass.) Bank have been circulated freely here to-day.

Is Jeff. Davis Dead? Reports are conflicting, but except the re-echo of early telegrams we can not find confirmation.

MAILED. On the 8th inst., by the Rev. G. B. Dechant, Mr. William Bittenbender, of Hamilton, and Miss Amelia E. Barry of Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa.

Confiscation of Ships.—Twenty-five Southern Vessels seized in the Port of New York.

The proclamation of the President, issued on the 16th of August, giving notice of the intended confiscation, according to the Act, of property owned in Rebel States, was carried into operation in the port of New York, on Sunday a week, in quite an unexpected manner to some of the parties concerned.

More Seizures Under the Confiscation Act.

Providence, R. I. Monday, Sept. 9. The following vessels, owned wholly or in part at the South, were seized to day at Newport by Marshal Sanford: Schooner S. P. Brown, with cargo; schooner Maine Law, no cargo; schooner Wash, no cargo; and schooner J. R. Balch, no cargo.

General McClellan's War Preparations.

We learn from a private source, worthy of credence, that Gen. McClellan, on last Tuesday morning, had fifty six batteries of artillery of six guns each, of various caliber, and about 150,000 men, at and near Washington, and that his army will be increased to at least 200,000 men before the end of the present week.

Narrow Escape of a Captain.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6, 1861. An anonymous telegraphic dispatch to the Reporter of the Associated Press, dated Chain Bridge, says that Capt. Strong of the Wisconsin 2d Regiment Volunteers, had a narrow escape this morning.

Advance in Prices. Spirits of turpentine has risen in value to $2.00 per gallon, wholesale price in New York, in consequence of the blockade of the North Carolina ports, and the small quantity in Market.

Mr. Seward's Opinion. Last week Mr. Seward paid a visit to his home in Auburn, N. Y. The Advertiser of that place, in a notice of the reception of the distinguished statesman, says that Mr. Seward reports the defenses of Washington and the condition of the army to be in the most satisfactory state.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY SIR JAMES CLARKE'S Celebrated Female Pills. PREPARED BY ROYAL PATENT. Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D. Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

Counterfeit Notes. Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1861. Counterfeit five dollar bills on the Cambridge City (Mass.) Bank have been circulated freely here to-day.

Is Jeff. Davis Dead? Reports are conflicting, but except the re-echo of early telegrams we can not find confirmation.

MAILED. On the 8th inst., by the Rev. G. B. Dechant, Mr. William Bittenbender, of Hamilton, and Miss Amelia E. Barry of Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa.

AUTUMN.

BY THE HAND OF THE EASTON HALL OF FASHION.

Summer's fierce heat, has yielded place To Autumn's cooler air— And this change, warns man, of a much Severer, to prepare.

Autumn's mild reign, to Winter's sway, Will speedily give place— Then biting frosts, will mar the charms, Which now all nature grace.

All animated creatures, by Unerring instinct guided; With comforts for the Winter time, We'll find are well provided.

Many may from lower animals, A bright example borrow— In to-day's sunshine, they prepare For storms, the coming morrow.

One source of comfort is within The reach of great and small— We mean cheap serviceable dress, Made at Pyle's Fashion Hall.

A splendid lot of all kinds of Clothing at Pyle's Easton Hall of Fashion, opposite the old Easton Bank.

Removal of the Treasurer of the Mint. [Special Dispatch to the Phil. Daily News] WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—I understand that the Secretary of the Treasury has determined on the removal of Mr. J. H. Walton from the Treasury of the U. S. Mint in your city.

Baltimore, Sept. 10.—J. R. Flanigen. Dear Sir.—I have just arrived from Richmond. The reports as to the death of Jeff. Davis are without a shadow of truth.

The rebels here appear to be in great spirits anticipating a battle at an early day. Mail facilities have been restored to Paducah, Ky., that town being in the possession of the Union forces.

New York Markets.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 11, 1861. FLOUR AND MEAL.—Wheat Flour, sales of 23,000 bbls. at $4 35 a $4 45 for superfine state and western.

PROVISIONS.—Pork, 1,300 bbls at $13 75 a $14 for Mess. Cut meats, sales of 160 hhd. at 4 1/2 a 4 3/4 for Shoulders, and 5 1/2 a 5 3/4 for Hams.

Stamping Envelopes. The new stamped Envelopes, issued by the Post Office Department, have been received at the Stroudsburg Post Office.

AGENTS WANTED to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $60 per month, and expenses paid.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY SIR JAMES CLARKE'S Celebrated Female Pills. PREPARED BY ROYAL PATENT.

THIS well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY SIR JAMES CLARKE'S Celebrated Female Pills. PREPARED BY ROYAL PATENT.

THIS well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution.

AGENTS WANTED to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $60 per month, and expenses paid.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY SIR JAMES CLARKE'S Celebrated Female Pills. PREPARED BY ROYAL PATENT.

THIS well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution.

AGENTS WANTED to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $60 per month, and expenses paid.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY SIR JAMES CLARKE'S Celebrated Female Pills. PREPARED BY ROYAL PATENT.

THIS well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution.

AGENTS WANTED to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $60 per month, and expenses paid.