

ACROSS THE WAY.
Across the way there stands a dwelling Neither gloomy, grand or gay;
Not attractive, not repelling—You have passed it many a day.

Not a note of joy or sadness To my hearing ever flowed Sorrow's plaint or music's gladness, From that quiet, calm abode.

But within that doorway ever, Morning, evening, rain or shine, A man there sits with the Journal by him, Reading Pyle's "advers" line by line;

A splendid assortment of Fall and Winter clothing, at Pyle's Fashion Hall, opposite the old Easton Bank.

Heavy Bank Robbery.—$58,000 Stolen from a Connecticut Bank.

Some time during Saturday night and yesterday morning the Winsted Bank, located at West Winsted, Conn., was burglariously entered and robbed of $58,000, with which the thieves made good their escape. The robbery was first discovered by the cashier, who upon entering the bank and entering the vault yesterday morning, found that the money bags were gone. The other officers were speedily summoned, but an hour or more elapsed before the discovery was made as to the manner in which the thieves gained access to the vault, which was built of heavy granite blocks, the top being covered by an immense granite slab. Access having been gained to a lawyer's office directly over the vault, the flooring had been taken up in small and perfect pieces, and the slab broken in two. By means of a railroad tie, the stone was pried up until space enough was afforded to admit one of the thieves into the vault.

Washington, Nov. 10, 1861.
The Speculation in Arms.

The Government has wisely concluded to stop the speculation in arms. It has notified all the Governors of States that the price for first class or Enfield rifled muskets shall not exceed $20 each, delivered in New York. This course has been rendered necessary by the fact that parties having contracts with the Government to deliver Enfield guns in New York at $19 to $20 each, have yielded, in many cases, to more tempting offers caused by competition among the agents of the several States. The Government will hereafter take possession of arms arriving in this country, and pay an assessed value for them. All purchases hereafter made will be subject to the inspection and approval of Ordnance officers of the United States Army. The Government has contracted for the manufacture of a large number of the best Springfield rifled guns, and a large number of breeching loading arms to be manufactured in this country. These, together with the contracts authorized abroad for immediate use, will soon give a sufficient supply for all present and future wants of the army. Contractors will therefore please make a note that no more arms than those already provided for will be wanted. I will also add that of orders the supply on hand and contracted for is more than equal to the casualty that will be organized during the war.

A Righteous Decision.

A negro woman belonging to a citizen of Alexandria, early in the Rebellion, was imprisoned by her master in the city jail on suspicion of an intention to run a way, which suspicion was founded upon the fact that she had, on several occasions, furnished meals to some of our soldiers, from her master's table. A short time ago her mistress applied to the Provost Court for leave to take her from jail, which was granted. On the night of her release her master took her to the garret of his house, gagged and bound her, and whipped her furiously, then looked her in. During the night she escaped by the window, and in the morning made complaint to Judge Freese. He summoned her master, who is one of the F. F. V's, and ordered him to be confined in jail. His wife, with tears in her eyes, applied to Gen. Montgomery for relief, and he arrested the order for imprisonment. The question was taken to the War Department, and Assistant-Secretary Scott, who is as wise as he is a bible, in deciding it, said he felt no disposition to meddle with the action of the Provost Court in any of its decisions, but especially in this one, because it seemed in his opinion to be eminently just and proper.

The Battle at Belmont.

The War Department has received an official telegram concerning the battle at Belmont, Mo., which generally confirms the newspaper statement.

It says that Capt. Bielaski of Gen. Mc-Clelland's staff was killed, and among other particulars, that we fought all the way into the camp of the enemy, immediately under the guns of Columbus, spiked two guns and brought away two, together with 200 prisoners. The Union loss is stated at 300, and that of the enemy much heavier.

FOR THE JEFFERSONIAN.
ALL HAIL OUR FLAG.

BY PHOTO.

All hail our glorious starry flag,
The emblem of the free; O'er hill top, and on mountain crag It waves triumphantly.

Stout arms, brave hearts still cluster round As in the days of yore, To bear it still on battle ground To victory once more.

What though Rebellion rears its form And all our laws defy,
His hand will guide us through the storm Though dark be freedom's sky;

For Washington, our country's pride, He first the old flag bore Triumphant through war's deadly tide, Now eighty years and more.

All hail our flag, and may its stars Prove beacon lights to shed A halo bright through all the wars 'Gainst which it may be led.

'Twill make the hearts of freemen leap At the glad tidings borne From mountain, glen and hill-side steep, The dear old flag waves on.

We'll guard the flag which now is stained With our best patriot's blood, And over which grim death has reigned In battle and in flood.

And on the mountain, hill and sea
The war cry shout aloud—We are and will be ever free, We place our trust in God.

"At the battle of Ball's Bluff our men, to escape the deadly fire of the enemy, leaped into the river and found a watery grave,

AYER'S PILLS
Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known by any Medicine.

INVALIDS, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES.

JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well known performer, of Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every hotel, says:

"I am happy to say of your CATHARTIC PILLS, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common use, than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them, and coincide with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chancellor WARDLAW writes from Boftimore, 15th April, 1854:

"Dr. J. C. Ayer—Sir: I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the listlessness, languor, loss of appetite, and Bilious headache, which has of late years overtaken me in the spring. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and colds with untiring success. You make medicine in which care; and I feel it a pleasure to commend your good you have done and are doing."

The venerable Chancellor WARDLAW writes from Bof-
timore, 15th April, 1854:

"I have used your CATHARTIC PILLS in my practice, I certify from experience that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, causing headache, indigestion, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a sure remedy than any other medicine in the world; and these Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases."

"Never until now have I been free from this loathsome disease in some stages. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost blind, besides the unnumberable pains; at others it settled in the scalp of my head, and destroyed my hair, and kept me partly bald for months; sometimes it came out in my face, and kept it for months a raw sore."
"About nine weeks ago I commenced taking your Cath- artic Pills, and in an entirely new manner the complaint.
My eyes are well, my skin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth; all of which makes me feel already a new person."

"Hoping this statement may be the means of conveying information that shall do good to others, I am, with every sentiment of gratitude,
MARIA RICKER,
Your obedient servant,
ANDREW J. MESERVE,
Overseer of the Portsmouth Manufacturing Co."

Capt. JOEL PRATT, of the ship Marion, writes from Boston, 5th April, 1857:

"Your Pills have cured me from a bilious attack which arose from derangement of the Liver, which had become chronic, and had failed to yield to my Physicians, and from every remedy I could try; but a few doses of your Pills have completely restored me to health. I have months to be laid up in a few days they had cured me.
You make the best medicine in the world; and I am free to say so."

Read this from the distinguished Solicitor of the Supreme Court, 5th April, 1857:

"New Orleans, 5th April, 1857.
"I have great satisfaction in assuring you that myself and family have been very much benefited by your medicines. My wife was cured, two years since, of a severe and dangerous cough, by your CHERRY PECTORAL, and since then has enjoyed perfect health. My children have several times been cured from attacks of the Influenza and Croup by it. It is an invaluable remedy for these complaints. Your CATHARTIC PILLS have entirely cured me from a dyspepsia and costiveness, which has grouned upon me for some years; indeed, this cure is much more important than the fact that I had failed to get relief from the best Physicians which this section of the country affords, and from any of the numerous remedies I had taken."
"You seem to us, Doctor, like a providential blessing to our family, and you may well suppose we are not unmindful of it. Yours respectfully, LEAVITT THAXTER."

"Senate Chamber, Ohio, April 5th, 1854.
"Dr. J. C. Ayer—Honored Sir: I have made a thorough trial of the CATHARTIC PILLS, left me by your agent, and have been cured by them of the dreadful Rheumatism under which I have been suffering. The first dose relieved me, and a few subsequent doses have entirely removed the disease. I feel in better health now than I have done before, and I attribute entirely to the effects of your CATHARTIC PILLS. Yours with great respect, LUCIUS B. METCALF."

The above are all from persons who are publicly known where they reside, and who would not make these statements without a thorough conviction that they were true.
