

UNCONCERN.

BY THE BARD OF THE EASTON HALL OF FASHION.

To be happy, we are told, We must not appear To see, all we do see, And hear all we hear. We acknowledge much truth In assertion like this; There are cases and times, when Unconcernedness is bliss. Things occur daily round us, 'Twould show wisdom to try To pass in strict silence, Unconcernedly by; But 'twould greatly diminish Our comfort, did we Pretend, no decided Advantage to see. LECTURE.

On Tuesday evening next, at the Court House in this place, the Rev. Mr. Edwards will deliver a lecture on the habits, manners and customs of the Choctaw Indians. He has been for the last eight or ten years a missionary to that tribe, and from his own personal knowledge is able to give a very interesting account of them, parts of which are quite amusing. He barely escaped with his life from the rage of the half breed Secessionists, who resolved upon the death of every white man who would not join them, of this also he will give some account. It is hoped that the sympathies of a generous public, will bring out a large audience. He is known to be worthy of the highest confidence. Admittance 15 cents. Lecture to commence at 7 o'clock. November 21, 1861.

CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Their certificates are published in any American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring. Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure. For COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Piles, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved. For DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—first, one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the heartburn, bodyburn, and sourness of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you. For A FOUL STOMACH, or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system. For NERVOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, NAUSEA, Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear those and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul. For SCURVY, ERYSIPELAS, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been cured by the purgative and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. Patients near duty to society, and those who should parade themselves around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. To PURIFY THE BLOOD, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system long before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where. LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious Affections, arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhoea, prevails. Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach and bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhoea, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is well to suggest such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents. RHEUMATISM, GOUT, and all Inflammatory Fevers, are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood, and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely. As a LAXATIVE Pill, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed.
