Published by Theodore Schoch.

aid before the end of the year, two dollars and twen y-five cts. will be charged.
No paper discontinued until all arreatages are paid, except at the option of the Editor. Advertisements of one square of (ten lines) or singular occurrence in real life took leas, one or three insertions, $1 00. Each additional in sertion, 25 cents. Longer ones in proportion.

JOB PRINTING,

OF ALL KINDS, Brecuted in the highest style of the Art, and on t

THE LAST CHARGE.

Now, men of the North, will you join in the

For country, for freedom, for honor, for life ! The giant grows blind in his fury and spite-One blow on his forehead will settle the fight!

steel, And stun him with cannon balls, peal upon wich was corroborated by a subsequent been discovered from letter, photographs, shall not have it done." peal! Mount troopers, and follow your game to its lair, As the hound tracks the wolf, and the eagle the hare!

Blow, trumpets, your summons, till sluggards awake; Beat, drums, till the roofs of the faint-hearted shake! Yet, yet, ere the signet is stamped on the

Their names may be traced in the bloodsprinkled roll!

shield;

red-

The life drops of crimson for liberty shed! The hour is at hand, and the moment draws

The dog-star of treason grows dim in the Shine forth from the battle-cloud, light of the

As the glaciers of tyranny melt in the sun; Smite, smite the proud parricide down from

His sceptre once broken, the world is our

WHAT IS THE USE?

What is the use of trimming a lamp, If you never intend to light it ! What is the use of grappling a wrong, If you never intend to fight it?

What is the use of removing your hat, If you never intend to tarry? What is the use of wooing a maid, If you never intend to marry?

What is the use of buying a coat, . If you never intend to wear it? What is the use of a house for two, If you never intend to share it?

What is the use of gathering gold, If you never intend to keep it, What is the use of planting a field, If you never intend to reap it?

What is the use of buying a book, If you do not intend to read it? What is the use of a cradle to rock, If you never intend to need it?

A Smart Woman.

all night at a country house was forbidden by without further ceremony.

menting to another his folly in leaving the husband. She replied that she had been process of brewing; and to brew a large comforts of a home, with a kind wife and married to both, but, having learned that quantity requires the same mode of pro two beautiful daughters. The other, after her first husband was dead, she had form- ceeding as it would make a tea breakfast listening in silence, replied, "My case is ed an attachment for Reibe three years for a regiment of soldiers. six children at home, and never saw one of them." "How can that be?" said the first warm affection for Reibe, who had been chased."

was born on March 20, 1772, nence should be live until the 26th of this month he better quality than can usually be purwarm affection for Reibe, who had been chased." speaker. "Were you ever blind?" "No to her an affectionate and devoted hussir." "Then, pray, what can you mean by band, the court inquired of her, viz: saying that you have a wife and six children "What do you now, propose to doand yet have never seen one of them?"- live with your first husband, who is le-"Why, simply that one of them was born af- gally such, or your last, husband, who, quantity of meat was hung up in a closed ter I left home." The querist considered by misapprehension and unintentionally, room until decomposed, and then a chaf-Nemself "sold."

A poor jilted blade says:

Woman's love is like Scotch snuff, You get one pinch and that's enough.

Whereupon a darkey, with more sense as well as soul, responds:

Woman's lub, like ingy-rubber,

old vinegar face this afternoon."

A DOMESTIC DRAMA.

TERMS-Two dollars a year in advance-and if not A Wife in Court with Two Husbands-She Chooses her First One.

On Tuesday, in the Police Court, a place, which in this city, at least, has seldom transpired. The facts are these:

dren, to seek a fortune in the mines of cemetery. California. For one year after his arri-Flash full in his eyes the blue lightning of Mrs. Carey, received information that Many of the unknown bodies have since in, you know. How long will it take to letter received from California.

Trust not the false herald that painted your inquiries, in the neighborhood in which ever be discovered. An elegant hunting- had on his feet, trying to beat down the True honor to-day must be sought on the field! nati, for his wife and children. His watches were also found upon different apparently in search of the first comer, Her scutcheon shows white with a blazon of neighbors and friends stood amazed, and bodies. trembled upon beholding the man whom they had long since believed to be dead. Upon being assured that it was Carey, who was not dead, but living, he was astounded with the intelligence that his wife, who had also believed that he had returns," was again married to another man, with whom she was now living in Call back the bright hour when the Nation domestic felicity. Ascertaining the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Reibe, the afflict-The rivers of peace through our valleys shall ed husband hastened to ascertain whether what he had heard was true or false .-Knocking at the door, a tall Italian. measuring six feet one and one-half inches, came to the door. Carey inquired.

> "Does Mrs. Reibe live here?" Italian-"She does. Will you walk

Carey-'Yes, sir; will you please tell her that a gentleman desires to see her?' The Italian consented, and going to the door leading into the dining-room, called his wife by her first name. She answered, and, all full of smiles, came running into the parlor. "Upon seeing her first husband, who rose from his seat to meet her, she screamed out "My God, Carey!" and fell fainting to the floor. The husbands both hastened to raise her from the floor. When Carey informed Reibe that he was in the United States that brings men to Baltimore American. Edward Carey, the lady's lawful husband, Reibe also claimed her as wife, and added, "I shall never give her up." Before | flock to see him, and his sharp, shrill cry the wife had fully recovered from her fainting attack, the two husbands had become engaged in angry, violent words, The people of Wisconsin are determined resulting in Carey drawing a pistol upon Reibe, and in the latter being forcibly, ejected from the house.

Reibe, on Monday morning, had a warrant sworn out in the Police Court, charging Carey with disorderly conduct and provoking him to commit a breach of the peace. Carey was arrested, and when arraigned before Judge Warren, in the ale as follows:presence of Reibe and the wife, he asked you have made your husband?"

desire is to go and live with my first hus- utes the room was completely disinfected. band, Edward Carey." be described. Carey and his wife ap- grammes of coffee destroyed the smell in proached each other and wept aloud, about half a minute. It is also stated while the disappointed Italian, seated in that coffee destroys the smell of musk, his chair like a statute, presented a pic- castroeum, and assafœtida. As a proof ture of despair and disappointment .- that the noxious smells are really decom-It stretch de more de more you lub her. Presently his feelings overcame him, and posed by the fumes of coffee, and not he grievously wept eliciting the sympathy merely overpowered by them, it is stated "How many rods make a furlong?" of all. Carey and his wife, arm-in-arm, that the first vapors of the coffee were a father asked of his son, a fast urchin, left the court-room, and Reibe, after re- not smelt at all, and are therefore chemias he came home one night from the town ceiving kindly admonition from the court cally absorbed, while the other smells that he must be resigned, and pursue the gradually diminish as the fumigation "Well, I don't know, boss," was the matter no further, left the presence of continues. The best way to effect this reply of young hopeful, "but I guess the court deeply chagrined, and terribly fumigation is to pound the coffee in a you'd think one rod made an acre, if mortified at the fate which had befailen mortar, and then stew it on a hot iron you'd got such a tanning as I did from him. Carey and his family are prepar- plate, which, however, must not be red ing to leave the city, and Reibe, all alone hot.

in a deserted house, refuses to be comforted.

The Battle-ground of Gettysburg. A letter from Gettysburg in the Baltimore Sun says: "All the bodies of the Union soldiers have now been disinterred from the pits About five years ago, a man named and trenches, where they were hastily Edward Carey left an affectionate and thrown after the battle and carefully. .. beautiful wife and three interesting chil- buried in their appropriate places in the ger. "Why, I've been fishing with your

The total number of bodies thus reval in the gold country wrote constantly moved and entombed is three thousand to his wife, and enclosed frequent sums five hundred and twelve. About one of money. Suddenly the correspondence thousand of them are unknown, and deceased, and Mrs. Carey, receiving no mo- posited in that part of the enclosure set repaired." ney, was compelled to adopt other means apart for those unrecognized. Nearly or to obtain a livelihood for herself and lit- quite a fourth of the whole number of tle ones. In a few weeks thereafter, the slain belong to the State of New York. her husband had been killed in the mines, been recognized, their names having do it? If it should take over an hour I medals, diaries, clothing, and other things For three years she lived, as she sup- found upon the corpses. Quite an a- tailor. posed she was, a widow. Receiving the mount of money, in small sums, raging attentions of an Italian named Joseph from the fractional part of a dollar up to Reibe, who succeeded in gaining her af- fifty dollars, was also found upon these shall want a coat to wear." fection, she consented to marriage, and bodies by those who disinterred them .about a year ago the two were legally Thirty-six dollars in gold were found in obliging proprietor; "and a better one united in the bonds of wedlo k, and have the pocket of one, and thirty to forty dol- you never wore in your life." ever since lived quite happily tog ther. lars-paper and gold-in the garments The stranger took it and went to the On Sunday last, as the church bells were of others, besides many relics, memensummoning to the house of God the wor- toes, &c. All this money and these rel- to get his old coat. shippers of the True Being, Edward Ca- ics have been taken care of by the comrey, who had arrived direct from Califor- mittee, properly labelled, and held in a certain boot and shoe store, and after nia, by the morning train, was making safekeeping for the relatives, should they dickering about a pair of boots which he his family resided when he left Cincin- case gold watch and five or six silver shopman, another man entered the store,

A War Eagle.

An exchange says that when, in the year 1861, the Eighth Wisconsin. Regiment marched from that State to the seat of war, it carried with it an eagle. From "gone to that bourne whence no traveller that time, through all the marches, battles, sieges and vicissitudes of-war, this bird has remained with the command and shared its hardship, dangers and adventures. Whenever the regiments has joined battle with the foe, the eagle has been at his post with the soldier who owns him, at the head of Co. D. As the engagement waxed hot-as the roar of the heavy guns shook the earth, and the rattle of small arms pierced the dun and never turned tail to the foe. the regimental flag as fast as the war-eagle of the Eighth Wisconsin. Thousands is always heard at morning and evening, with the fifes and drums of the guard .that when the wars is over, and the eagle comes home again, he shall be kept at the public expense, in the Capitol grounds at Madison.

Home-Brewed Ale.

G. Burton, in the Rural New Yorker. gives his method of making home brewed

"The art of brewing is very easy to be A preacher not long since asking to stay the court to hear an explanation before understood, for it is exactly similar to the he entered his plea. Judge Warren con- process of making tea. Put a handful of the lady. Knowing her to be a member of sented, and Carey stated that he and malt into a tea-pot; then fill it with water Reibe both claimed the lady (pointing to | —the first time rather under boiling heat. the church and generally pleased to enter- Mrs. Carey-Reibe) as wife, and he, be- After it has stood some time, pour off the tain ministers, he began to quote Paul to lieving himself to be the legal claimant, liquor just as you would tea, and fill up her, hoping that she would understand by had becoming disorderly in demanding the pot again with boiling water. In a this that he was a preacher. He hardly got peremptorily of Reibe that he should similar manner pour that off, and so go on out, "for thereby some have entertained an- give her up. Reibe, thro' the Prosecut- filling up and pouring off till the malt in gels unawares," when she said. "I know ing Attorney, Mr. Straub, exhibited to the pot is tasteless, which will be the case sir, but angels would not come with tobacco the Court the marriage certificate, and when all its virtue is extracted. The listuck into their mouth." The preacher left the question was at once raised: "What quor or malt tea must then be boiled with further proceedings could be had in that a few hops in it, and when it becomes court?" The wife, who, like Niobe, was cool enough—that is about blood heat all in tears, was called up and asked by add a ltttle east to ferment it, and the A California adventurer was recently lathe court if either of these men was her thing is done. This is the whole art and much worse than yours, for I have a wife and afterwards, and married him. After as- A peck of malt and four ounces of hops

The fumes of burning coffee are powerful disinfectants. Experiments have been made at Paris to prove this. ing dish was introduced and 500 grammes The lady replied, "My duty and my of coffee thrown on the fire-in a few min-In another room sulphurated hydrogen The seene which followed, can never and ammonia were developed, and 90

Artful Doings.

The Portland Advertiser gives two or three examples of sharp practice, one of a tailoring establishment, and, as he entered, addressed the proprietor.

"How do you do, M-?" "Really, sir, you've got the upper hand of me, I don't know you." "Don't know me?" exclaimed the stranmany a time up in Wyndham and thereabouts." "Have you?" said the proprietor. "Yes, and I want my coat fixed," was the reply; the buttons and button holes

"Tain't worth fixing said the tailor. "Well, I thought I would have it fixed up a little. It will do to go out fishing

"I can do it in half an hour," said the "By the way," said the dodger. have got to go down to the bank, and

"There is mine-take that," said the bank, it is presumed, but never returned

And yet another. A man went into a went up to the customer and struck him a blow in the side of the head. The customer looked up to the shopkeeper and asked:

"Would you stand that?" The shopkeeper said: "No sir;" at which the customer returned the blow. and the first assailant retreated to the door, followed by the customer and shopkeeper, the latter of whom said to the man who had the boots. "Go in!" and he went in and he went off, and that was the last he ever saw of his man or his

A Great Change.

On Monday the 10th Regiment of Colored troops, under the command of Colonsulphurous cloud that hung about the el Henry Thomas, marched from Camp line of battle-the eagle would flap his Birney, and after parading through the wings and mingle his voice with the tu- principal streets of our city stacked arms mult in the fiercest and wildest of his in front of the Holliday Street Theatre, screams. Twice has he been wounded upon the very ground where on the 20th in action, one ball cutting away a great and 21st of April, 1861, the secessionportion of his tail feathers. But he has ists of Baltimore, under the guidance of ex-Marshal Kane, gathered to carry out He has gone with his regiment through their nefarious plots. The various moveseven States, a fit companion and emblem ments of this body of men evinced the of the heroes of the Northwest. He is high state of discipline to which the men now at home with the veterans recruiting, have been brought by their officers, and and there is not a banner or a "broker" which favorably impressed all loyal men.

A Federal prisoner, Junius H. Browne, writes a facetious letter, in the Mark Tapley vein, to a Cincinnati paper, from his cell in the military prison at Sallisbury, North Carolina, under date of February the prisoners "compensate for the absence of all heat by a perpetual emission of smoke," that the prisoners live on bread and pork, and often bread alone, with smoke and cold interspersed ad libitum, and that they "distinguish breakfast from dinner by inhaling an extra volume of smoke, and taking five additional shivers."

"Most adversely for me, my appetite has increased. However, I manage matters very well. When I become very hungry, I expose myself to the cold, and vice versa; so one discomfort strangles another, and I am enabled to continue the beatitudes of my bondage. Who would not be a prisoner?"

There now resides at Bazetta, Trumbull county. Ohio, a Mr. Marvin and his wife, whose united ages amount to one hundred and seventy-five years. On the 22d of January they commemorated the sixtyseventh anniversary of their wedded life. They were married January 22, 1798, and commenced keeping house April-17th of the same year, and still continue to live by themselves, and manage their domestic affairs in their own way. Mr. Marvin was born on March 26, 1772, hence should vin was born June 14, 1781, and is now in her eighty-third year Their youngest son is forty-five years old, and their oldest is nearly sixty-five.

The habit of generalizing from a single statement sometimes causes ludicrous misrepresentations. Thus it was stated in the newspapers, sometime ago, as a good joke, that an old lady refused to touch a newspaper containing the President's message because she had heard that he had the small-pox. The story went to France, whereupon Galignani's (Paris) Messenger solemnly announces that "so stupid are the lower orders of the United States that | The amount of property annually moved the small-pox, under which the writer of average twenty-five millions of dollars. the messages was reported to be suffering.

The merriest people in the world are the Germans; they have always piping times. thousand Odd Fellows in England.

Decidedly Cool.

great honor, as he thought.

Kibby came down stairs, shivering in the sooner." cold, having nothing on but his shirt and pants, when George sang out:

our town meeting to-day?"

freeze to death!" shouted George.

Without waiting for a reply, the wag his own risk." put spurs to his horse and was soon well on his way home. But he declares, till the present day that he heard a sound coming from Kiby's door way that sounded like a man swearing.

Bound to Win.

the following:

"A chap who some time since caught the oil infection, put for Tidioute, and commenced to bore a well. After he had the moon the other evening. Charles reached a depth of some three hundred said solemnly, in his imperfect pronunfeet, without even getting a "show," some ciation, that it was "Dod.' of his more fortunate neighbors took it "No, it ain't," said Sarah, "it ain't big upon themselves to ridicule him on ac- enough." count of his poor success-an operation "Well," replied the boy, determined which he bore very patiently. The next not to be put down altogether, "It is a day some of the same party having occa- hole he looks through anyhow.' sion to visit his engine house, were raththat it was not long before the persistent little fellow's shoulders and arms: "but fellow 'struck ile."

A Mississippi Story.

Printed bills of fare were provided, yet the landlord stood at the head of the table, at dinner, and in a loud voice read off the list of articles in a rhyming way: Here's boiled ham, and raspberry jam; baked potatoes and cooked tomatoes; turnips smashed, and squashes squashed," and so on. A stranger asked him, afterward, why he read it aloud when the printed copies were on the table. "Force if I'll make a barber's pole of my leg for of habit," replied the landlord; "Got so used to it I can't help it. You see I commenced business down here at Jackson (the capital of Mississippi) and most all the Legislature boarded with me .-There was not a man of 'em could read, so I had to read the bill of fare to em."

"A Contagious Disease!"

At a lively vilage in Illinois, not far from Woodstock, they have a benevolent association, one of whose objects is to watch with and take care of its sick members. Last fall an unmarried young lady was admitted to membership. In a cou-19th. He says the stoves the rebels give ple of months she was blessed by a bright eyed babe, and was very sick. Some of the young lady members expressed to the chief officer of the association their indigit their duty to visit the unfortunate one. pounds. "Well," said he, after much deliberation, "I suppose not. You are not obliged to watch where there is a contagious disease!"

Kissing the Butcher.

"My dear," said an affectionate wife, what shall we have for dinner to-day.' "One of your smiles," replied the husband; "I can dine on that every day!" "But I can't," replied the wife.

"Then take this," and he gave her a kiss, and went to his business. He returned to his dinner.

"This is an excellent steak," said he, what did you pay for it?" "Why, what you gave me this morning, to be sure," replied his wife. "The deuce you did!" exclaimed he; "then you shall have money next time paper for situation as son-in-law in a reyou go to market."

IT A lady who had read of the extensive manufacture of odometers, to tell wished some Connecticut genius would giving day when a Chicago clergymen how far a carriage had been run, said she wished some Connecticut genius would said: Shoddy comes from the devil, and invent an instrument to tell how far husbands had been in the evening when they soldiers, go to the devil. just step down to the Post Office.

and went to a tavern, where he was found "we find that man that stole the mare not by a friend, with a segar in his mouth .- guilty." "What made you leave home?" inquired his friend. "Oh," said he "father and mother were so saucy that I couldn't there is not a toad, frog, snake or reptile stand it, so I quit them."

It is stated that the commerce of the world requires 3,600,000 able-bodied men to be constantly traversing the sea. they hesitated to take the journals con- on the water is from fifteen hundred to taining the President's Message from the two thousand millions of dollars; and the with Hymns." Hours with hims are postoffice, fearing that they might catch amount lost by the casualties of the sea

It is one of the most singular coincidences of the war that Col. Streight, for whom John Morgan was held as a pride than vain of our vanity. hostage, should have escaped from prison There are three hundred and fifty at Richmond in precisely the same manner as Morgan did from Columbus.

"So far from believing that slave-There are two fun loving individuals ry must die," says the Richmond Whiq, residing in -, whom I will designated "we have long held the opinion that it is which is that of a stranger who called at as George and Kibby. They were never the normal and only humane relation known to meet without one's trying to which labor can sustain towards capital. get up a joke at the other's expense. At When this war is over we shall urge that a town meeting, held here one day in De- every Yankee who ventures to put a foot cember, Kibby was chosen moderator-a on Southern soil be made a slave for life, and wear an iron collar, as a badge of in-About twelve o'clock that night, which feriority to the African. Slavery will was herrible cold, George rode up, on stab itself to death about the time the horseback, to Kibby's door, and rapped, Yankees learn to tell the truth, and no

> A Dutchman being called upon to "Kibby, were you chozen moderator at help pay for a lightning rod for the village church, toward the building of which "Yes, I was," he replied.
>
> "Well, then, do for God's sake moder-"I have helped to build a house to de ate the weather; if you don't we shall all Lord, and if he chooses to donder on it, and knock it down, he mush't do it at

A young man from the country, who was as ignorant as he was presumptous, addressed a lady of education and respectfully in the following manner:

"Madam, shall I have the superimblicity and congramicating pleasure of escort-The Buffalo Express is responsible for ing your calico body to the place of your

Two little children were talking of er startled from their propriety at seeing was "Sam," said an interesting young a shingle nailed up in a conspicuous mother to her youngest hopeful, "do you place, upon which was inscribed the mot- know what the difference is between body to, "Oil, Hell, or China!" It is needless and soul? The soul, my child, is what to say his neighbors discontinued their you love with; the body carries you aridicule from that moment-and we add bout. This is your body," touching the > there is something deeper in. You can feel it now. What is it?" "Oh, I know," said Sam, with a flash of intelligence in his eyes, "that's my flannel shirt!"

A lady friend of ours was in Chicago, the other day, and was asked by her cousin how she liked the Balmoral stocking. "O, very well," was the reply. "Well, I don't," said the cousin, "nor will I wear them either; I'll be hanged, the sake of being fashionable!"

On a very rainy day, a man entering his house was accosted by his wife in the following manner:

"Now, my dear, while you are wet go and fetch me a bucket of water."

He obeyed, brought the water and threw it all over her, saying at the same

"Now, my dear, while you are wet go nd fetch another."

The imports of wool into New York for the year 1862 were 37,347,513 pounds; for the year 1863, 48,881,361 pounds; from December 22, 1863, to January 25, 1864, 4,221,239 pounds, and for the month nation, and asked him if he really thought ending February 22, 1864, 6,456,379

> The first bell in Hayerhill, Mass., was purchased in 1781; before that time there was a singular substitute as appears by a vote passed in 1730: "That Abraham Tyler blow his horn half an hour before meeting time on the Lord's day and on lecture days, and receive one pound of pork annually for his services from each

After a boy had called several times at a store in Bennington, Vt., the other day, for Mr. Dewey, he was asked what he wanted of him, and coolly replied, "Oh, nothing-only his house is

A young man adve t see in a New Jersy spectable family. Would have no objection, he says, to go a short distance into

Some people were hit on Thanks-

"My lord," said the foreman of a IT A young lad ran away from home Welsh jury, when giving in their verdict,

> A writer in the London Field says of any kind in New Foundland. What an opening for Copperheads!

> When a man wants money, friends or assistance, this fact is very apt to accommodate him and let him want.

> A cotemporary is publishing "Hours much admired by young ladies.

> People and cows are the only beings that have calves.

> It is better to be proud of our

Somebody says that birch rods make the beat baby jumpers.