Special Election.

Sheriff's Proclamation.

Whereas, A joint resolution proposing certain amendments to the Constitution of this Commonwealth, which are as follows, viz:

There shall be an additional section to the 3d article of the Constitution to be designated as section four, as follows:

1st Amendment.—Section 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage, in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of elections.

2d Amendment.—Section 8. No bill shall be passed by the legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

3d Amendment.—Section 9. No bill shall be passed by the legislature, granting any powers or privileges in any case where the authority to grant such powers or privileges has been or may hereafter be, confirmed upon the Courts of this Commonwealth.—has been agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House of the Legislature at two successive sessions of the same.

And Whereas, It is provided in the tenth article of the said Constitution that any amendments so agreed upon shall be submitted to the people in such manner and at such time, at least three months after being so agreed to by the two Houses, as the Legislature shall prescribe: such submission to be in such manner and form that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately and distinctly.

And Whereas, By an Act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, passed the 23d day of April A. D., 1864, entitled "An act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people for their approval and ratification, or rejection the proposed amendments to the Constitution," it is made the duty of the High Sheriff of every County to give public notice in the usual manner in not less than two newspapers in each city and county, provided so many are published therein, that an election will be held in each of the townships, boroughs, wards, precincts and districts therein, on the First Tuesday of August, 1864, for the purpose of deciding upon the approval and ratification or rejection of the above stated amendments.

Now Therefore, I, Linford Marsh, High Sheriff of the county of Monroe do make known by this proclamation to the electors of the county of Monroe, that a special election will be held in said county on the said first Tuesday of August next, at the several election districts below enumerated for the purpose aforesaid.

Places of Voting.

The freemen of the township of Chesnut-hill are to hold their election at the house of Felix Storm, in said township.

The freemen of the Township of Coolbaugh will hold their election at the house of John Yothers in said township.

The freemen of the township of Hamilton will hold their election at the house of Isaac Deitz, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Middle Smithfield, will hold their election at the house of James Place, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Pocono, will hold their election at the house of Manassah Miller, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Paradise, will hold their election at the house of Abraham Gish, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Polk, will hold their election at the house of Henry R. t., in said township.

The freemen of the township of Price, will hold their election at the house of Lewis Long, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Eldred, will hold their election at the house of Jos. Hawk, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Ross, will hold their election at the house of Jacob H. Stocker, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Smithfield will hold their election at the house of J. Deppu Lahar, in said township.

The freemen of Stroudsburg, will hold their election at the Court House, in said borough.

The freemen of the township of Stroud, will hold their election at the house of George Knauss, in the borough of Stroudsburg.

The freemen of the township of Tohyannah, will hold their election at the house of Robert Warner, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Jackson, will hold their election at the house of John R. Osterhout, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Tunkhannock, will hold their election at the house of Benjamin F. Schafer, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Barrett, will hold their election at the house of Philip Rockafellow, in said township.

AN ACT
Prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people, for their approval and ratification, or rejection, the proposed amendments to the Constitution.

WHEREAS, A joint resolution, proposing certain amendments to the constitution of this Commonwealth, has been agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house of the legislature, at two successive sessions of the same, the first session commencing on the first Tuesday of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the second session commencing on the first Tuesday of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four:

And whereas, It is provided in the tenth article of the constitution, that any amendment, so agreed upon, shall be submitted to the people, in such manner, and such times, at least three months after being so agreed to by the two houses, as the legislature shall prescribe, such submission to be in such manner, and form, that the people may vote for, or against each amendment, separately, and distinctly; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the people of this Commonwealth, in regard to the adoption, or rejection, of said amendments, or either of them, the governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to each, and every, sheriff of this Commonwealth, commanding them to give notice, in the usual manner, in not less than two newspapers in each city, and country. Provided, That so many are published therein, and by at least two printed handbills, in each election district, of every city and county, wherein no newspaper is published, that an election will be held, in each of the townships, boroughs, wards, precincts, and districts, therein, on the first Tuesday of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, for the purpose of deciding upon the approval and ratification, or rejection, of the said amendments; which said election shall be opened, held, and closed, upon the day last aforesaid, at the places, and within the hours at, and within, which the general elections of this Commonwealth are directed to be opened, held, and closed; and it shall be the duty of the judges, inspectors, and clerks, of each of said townships, boroughs, wards, precincts, and districts, to receive, at the said election, tickets, not exceeding the number of proposed amendments, either written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, from each of the qualified voters of this state, who may offer the same, and to deposit them in a box, or boxes, to be for that purpose provided by the proper officers; which tickets shall be, respectively, labelled, on the outside, "First Amendment," "Second Amendment," and "Third Amendment;" and those who are favorable to said amendments, or any of them, may express their approval thereof by voting, each, as many separate, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, ballots, or tickets, as there are amendments approved by them, containing, on the inside thereof, the words, "For the Amendment;" and those who are opposed to such amendments, or any of them, may express their opposition by voting, each, as many separate, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, ballots, or tickets, as there are amendments not approved by them, containing, on the inside thereof, the words, "Against the Amendment;" the electors, voting for, or against, the first amendment, shall be considered as voting for, or against, the proposed fourth section to article three of the constitution, extending the right of suffrage to soldiers; electors, voting for, or against, the second amendment, shall be considered as voting for, or against, the proposed eighth section to article eleven of the constitution; and electors, voting for, or against, the third amendment, shall be considered as voting for, or against, the proposed ninth section to article eleven of the constitution.

SECTION 2. That the election, on the said proposed amendments, shall, in all respects be conducted as the general elections, of this Commonwealth, are now conducted; and it shall be the duty of the return judges, of the respective counties, and districts, thereof, first having carefully ascertained the number of votes given for, or against, each of said amendments, in the manner aforesaid, to make out duplicate returns thereof, expressed in words, at length, and not in figures, only; one of which returns, so made, shall be lodged in the prothonotary's office, of the court of common pleas, of the proper county, and the other sealed, and directed, to the secretary of the Commonwealth, and by one of said judges deposited, forthwith, in the most convenient post office, upon which, postage shall be prepaid, at the expense of the proper county.

SECTION 3. That it shall be the duty of the secretary of the Commonwealth, on the twenty-third day of August next, before four o'clock, post meridian, to deliver to the speaker of the Senate, or the speaker of the House of Representatives, the returns of the said election, from the several counties of the Commonwealth; and the same shall, on the same day, and hour, be opened, and published, in the presence of the members of the Senate, and House of Representatives; and the number of votes given for, and against, said amendments, respectively, shall be carefully summed up, and ascertained, and duplicate certificates, of the result, shall be signed by the speakers of the two houses. One of said certificates shall be delivered to the secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall cause the same to be recorded and filed in his office, and the other of said certificates shall be delivered to the governor, who shall forthwith issue his proclamation, declaring whether the said amendments, or either of them, have been approved, and ratified, by a majority of the qualified voters, of this state, voting thereon: Provided, That if, for any cause, a quorum of either house of the legislature, shall not be present, at the day and hour, above mentioned, then the said votes shall be opened, in the presence of such members, of said houses, as shall be present; and, in case of the absence of the speaker, of either of said houses, the said certificates shall be signed by the speaker present; or, in case of the absence of both speakers, by the chief clerks of both houses, or either of them, in case of the absence of one of said clerks.

SECTION 4. That the several duties required to be performed by the sheriffs, commissioners, constables, judges, inspectors, and all other officers, whatever, in, and about, the general elections of this Commonwealth, shall be performed, by such officers, in, and about, the election herein provided for; and all persons, whether officers or others shall be liable to the same punishment, for the neglect of any duty, or the commission of any offence, at, in, or about, the said election, as they would, for the neglect of like duty, or the commission of like offence, at, in, or about, the general elections of this Commonwealth.
