The Chicago Nominee, &c. The Telegraph announces the nomination of Gen. McClellan, by the Chicago Convention, on first ballot, on Tuesday.

The Agricultural Fair. Our Country Agricultural Fair promises to far surpass any which have preceded it. We hear of quite a member of our Agriculturalist and amateur gardeners, who are making great exertions to show what Monroe County soil can do.

Chiriqui Images. We have had the pleasure of examining a quantity of gold received by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., from Honduras, in payment for their medicines, which are extensively sold throughout Central America.

Advices from the Army of the Potomac.

We have a great many advices, from the army, but nobody seems to take the advice. In the first place, men down there are getting fewer, and we are advised at home, by the increased bounties and the increased number of "bounty jumpers."

Quota of Monroe County, subject to Revision.—Credits given to July 31, 1864.

Table with columns: No. of sub-districts, Enrolled, Quota, Drafted, Surplus. Rows include names like Barrett, Price, Chesnut Hill, Coonbaugh, Paradise, Eldred, Hamilton, Jackson, M. Smithfield, Pocono, Polk, Ross, Stroudsburg, Smithfield, Stroud, Tunkhannock, Tobyhanna.

The Surrender of Fort Morgan. Unconditional. Washington, Aug. 29, 1864. Despatches received in this city from before Atlanta state that the Atlanta papers of the 27th announce that Fort Morgan had surrendered to our forces with all its garrison.

Dr. Johnson says, "After all, it is better for a lady to 'redde'n' her own cheeks than to 'blacken' other people's characters."

The Militia Law of Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, August 26.—The following is a summary for popular use of the principal points of the militia law of the State, as amended by the Legislature which has just adjourned: The militia consists of able-bodied white citizens, between 21 and 45 years, except idiots, lunatics, drunkards, vagabonds, paupers and criminals.

The Governor possesses all needful powers to organize the entire State militia, and, in addition, has special powers to organize as many regiments as he may think proper (not exceeding fifteen), to be called the Pennsylvania State Guard.

ARRIVAL OF SIX HUNDRED REBEL OFFICERS to be Placed under Fire at Charleston.—Reported Conspiracy to Allow them to Escape. Fort Monroe, Aug. 28, 1864. The U. S. transport steamer Fulton arrived this P. M. from Hilton Head.

Poor Richard's Reasons for buying United States Securities.

The other day we heard a rich neighbor say he had rather have railroad stocks than the U. S. stocks, for they paid higher interest. Just then Poor Richard came up, and said that he just bought some of Uncle Sam's three years notes, paying seven and three-tenths per cent. interest.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, July 25, 1864. By an act of Congress, approved June 30, 1864, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to issue an amount not exceeding two hundred millions of dollars in Treasury notes, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding seven and three-tenths per centum, redeemable after three years from date, and to exchange the same for lawful money.

FROM SHERIDAN'S ARMY. The Rebels hastening to Richmond.—Sheridan about to Advance.—Prospects of a Battle.—Dispatch from Secretary Stanton.

WASHINGTON, August 29. A special dispatch to the Bulletin says: "Washington, August 29.—Information received here from Halltown as late as yesterday, states that 'the advance' has been sounded, and another battle in the Valley is expected and predicted."

ARRIVAL OF SIX HUNDRED REBEL OFFICERS to be Placed under Fire at Charleston.—Reported Conspiracy to Allow them to Escape. Fort Monroe, Aug. 28, 1864. The U. S. transport steamer Fulton arrived this P. M. from Hilton Head.

The steamer Fulton has arrived from Port Royal, but her news is partially anticipated. An expedition consisting of the 75th Ohio, Companies B and D, the Massachusetts Cavalry, and one piece of artillery from the 3d Rhode Island Battery, all commanded by Colonel Harris, of the 75th Ohio, started from Magnolia, Florida, to make a raid.

A barnacle-nosed old fellow, gave as a reason for taking his liquor clear, that since Noah's flood water had always tasted of sinners. Excellent for these hard times is the name of a St. Louis firm—Grinn & Barrett!

SWALLOW two or three hogheads of

"Buchu," "Tonic Bitters," "Sarsaparilla," "Nervous Antidotes," &c., &c., &c., and after you are satisfied with the result, then try one box of Old Doctor Buchan's English Specific Pills—and be restored to health and vigor in less than thirty days.

A BATTLE PREDICTED.

Philadelphia, August 29. A special dispatch to the Bulletin says: "Washington, August 29.—Information received here from Halltown as late as yesterday, states that 'the advance' has been sounded, and another battle in the Valley is expected and predicted."
