

The Jeffersonian

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1864.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. Church, Providence permitting, on Thursday, the 24th inst., at 10 o'clock.

As the Presidential majorities are now reported, a change of 25,000 votes in the States giving Lincoln the smallest majorities would elect McClellan, but his party would still be in a minority of some 250,000.

The Eastern papers speak of there having been no opposition to the Lincoln and Johnson ticket in Western Virginia. Such was not the case.

State Draft.

Adjutant General A. L. Russel, of the State service, has issued orders to the County Commissioners, to forthwith issue their precepts to the Assessors of the Borough and several Townships of the County, to make an immediate enrollment and classification of all able-bodied white male citizens within the borders of the County, liable to enrollment under the Militia Laws of the State.

Thanksgiving.

In accordance with the recommendation of President Lincoln, and of Gov. Curtin, to-day will be generally observed throughout the loyal States, and wherever the influence of our armies reaches in the rebellious States, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer.

Not come to yet.

The Democracy have not yet recovered from the complete stun which they received on the 8th inst. They do not even pretend to account for their defeat. Occasionally, it is true they very faintly whisper "fraud," but they do it in so vague a manner, that no one would suspect that they had any certain idea of the meaning of the word.

Stroudsburg Bank.

At an election, held at the Bank, on Monday last, the following gentlemen were chosen as Directors, viz: John N. Stokes, William Wallace, Melchior Bossard, Michael Ransberry, Depue S. Miller, John Heller, David D. Walton, Stephen Kistler, Jacob Stouffer, Robert Boys, Charles Saylor, Samuel S. Dreher, Michael Shoemaker.

Arrival of Troops.

Company D, 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry, arrived at this place, for Provost duty, on Thursday evening last. The Company numbers 110 men, and is quartered on the Fair Ground. The men have seen a good deal of hard service, but are as hale, hearty, and merry a set of fellows as one would wish to meet.

Capt. J. C. HULINGER, 1st Lt. JAS. PATTON, 2d " D. L. PISLEE

Meeting in behalf of the Sanitary Commission.

The citizens of Stroudsburg are cordially invited to attend at the Methodist Church, in this place, on Wednesday Eve. Nov. 30th, to hear from the Rev. Wm. B. Marsh, and others, a statement of the doings and needs of the above Commission.

"ELECTION RESULT."

In an article on the "Election Result," in the Monroe Democrat of the 18th, the Squire prophesies all sorts of hard things about the Administration, and insists upon it that "innocent Republicans" will yet "curse the man loud and deep they have chosen to rule over them."

Again: By way of bluster and glorification the Squire says: "We have battled nobly against all the money powers of the country, against the thousands of officers and agents of the Administration, against all banking interests, against all companies and monopolies, against all preachers and armies."

If, as the old saying has it, "an honest confession is good for the soul," then must the Squire have felt particularly happy over the putting of his last paper to press. Your party did indeed battle against all the money powers of the country, and you battled with weapons furnished you by the money powers of Europe.

Against such preachers, however, as did not hesitate to commit moral perjury, in order to secure vent for their copperheadism at the polls, of course you did not battle, nor did you have a word to say. You did indeed battle against all Union armies—against Grant's, Sherman's, Sheridan's and all others on the same side of the question; but not a battle have you yet done against the armies in the Rebel service, or against their cause.

Was this similitude between the Democracy and the Rebels maintained? The Rebels pretend, and they have the evidence of bravery on many a hard fought battle-field to sustain the pretense, that they are fighting for nationality.

that every degradation should be heaped upon you—willing that the Stars and Stripes, the symbol of Liberty as established by the fathers of the Republic, should be spit upon and insulted—willing to become very slaves, if thereby you can be assured possession of a portion of the "loaves and fishes" incident to official power.

Again: The Squire takes comfort in his defeat, because it is not more overwhelming. McClellan, received the smallest vote of any Presidential candidate since 1804; and yet, in speaking of the Unionists, who are so gloriously victorious the Squire says—"They have no reason to boast. The majorities in nearly all the States are very small indeed."

The recent elections have placed a two thirds Union majority in the next Congress, beyond question. 140 Union to 44 Democrats.

A Wife in San Francisco lately put a petition for a divorce in the Court on the ground that her husband was "confounded fool." The Court would not admit the plea, because almost every married man would be liable to the same imputation.

Duty of Presidential Electors.

The Constitution of the United States prescribes the mode of electing a President and Vice-President as follows: The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves: they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President.

Orange N. J.

The home of McClellan has given a majority against him. The Democrats in their rage at their defeat, spiked the old cannon (that had been used by both parties on the green through the canvass) which was early discovered by the Unionists, who sent some of their blacksmiths to drill it open again.

The Major-Generals in the Regular army made vacant by the resignation of Gen. McClellan, is fully filled by the appointment of Gen. Sheridan.

New Counterfeits have appeared on the Agawam Bank of Springfield, Mass., and our citizens should look out for them; they are new and very finely executed—none but the best judges being able to tell them.

A Vote Challenged.

When Mr. — a prominent Democrat stepped up with a flourish to vote for McClellan, at one of the wards in Pittsburgh, "I challenge that vote!"

Our Democratic friends having failed to convince the people that it is the duty of the North to sue for peace, let them now try to convince the South that they ought to do it.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Men are apt to denounce all projects proposed, Which they do not at once comprehend, To discourage, instead of promoting a good, Too often their efforts they lend.

In all ages improvement projectors have met With discouragements in every plan For the comfort, domestic and public, Of that spring of humanity—man.
