J. LANTZ, DENTIST,

Has permanently located himself in Strondsburg, and moved his office next deer to Dr. S. Walton, where he is fully prepared to treat the natural teeth, and also to insert incorruptible artificial teeth on pivot and plate, in the latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trustthe traveling dentist. It matters not how The public are invited to call as he is de- much experience a person may have, he it termined to sell his goods cheaper than the liable to have some failures out of a numbes of cases, and if the dentist lives at a distancer it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the tooth or teeth as it may be, otherwise the inconvenience and trouble of going so far. Hence the necessity of obtaining the services of a dentist near home. All workwarranted.
