I have never been upon a battle-field; but O, my countrymen, could you all but see the reality or effects of this horrid war, is she too meet her threatened doom ?-Four years ago, I would have give a thousand-lives to see her remain (as I had always known her) powerful and unbroken. dream, from which we could now awake, with what overflowing hearts could we bless our God and pray for his continued favor. How I have loved the flag can nev. to cheer us and to bless us. er now be known. A few years since and blem, and would shudder to think how changed she had grown. O how I have longed to see her break from the mist of gashes on the face of Heaven. I look now upon my early admiration of her glories as a dream. My love (as things stand to day) is for the South alone. Nor do I attends me, I go penniless to her side .ditch" which the North have so long derided, and been endeavoring to force her in, forgetting they are our brothers, and that it's impolitie to goad an enemy to and find it true, I will proudly beg per-"ditch" by her side. A Confederate doing duty on his own responsibility. J. WILKES BOOTH.

The Teffersonian,

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1865.

ATIt is rumored, about Easton, that Provost Marshal Yohe has received notice from head quarters to finish up his business, so as to close his office by the 1st of May.

The Assassination Planned in Canada and Ratified in Richmond.

The War Department, says an officia dispatch from Secretary Stanton, has inorganized in Canada, and approved in Richmond. One of the assassins now in prison, who attempted to kill Mr. Sewbans, Vt., raiders.

Rumor of Jeff Davis's Escape.

It is rumored that Jeff Davis crossed gentlemen that he will be able to organize a force of 40,000 men in that State. with which he will move into Mexico, in States. Doubtful all around.

Going Home.

The funeral cortege, with the Presidents remains, which left Washington, on Friday last, is slowly wending on its way to the last resting place, in Springfield Illinois. At all points along the route large crowds assemble, and by the uncevered head, and other demonstrations of sorrow, show their respect for the deceased, and their condolence for the bereaved day of their deliverence. living. In all the prominent cities along remains. Truly, we are a nation of mourners.

The New President.

crime which must be punished, are favorite their crimes. expressions of his, which are certain to bea State."

Verily the mantle of the lamented Lincoln has fallen upon worthy shoulders.

The Nation Still Mourns.

Yes, the Nation still mourns the untime ly and cruel death of her chosen Chief Maas I have seen them (in every State, save gistrate; and she will continue to mourn permitted to open our way so plainly before said: me, and would pray the Almighty to cre- until times and seasons are buried beneath us. ate in the Northern mind a sense of right the endless path of eternity. For the man, and justice (even should it possess no sea- Abraham Lincoln dead, she will mourn; but soning of mercy), and that he would dry her mourning will not be as though without up this sea of blood between us, which is hope for the good which was expected from daily growing wider. Alas! poor country his sojourn upon earth; for though Abraham naught to see her what she was. O my from the shores of time to those of endless friends, if the fearful scenes of the past duration. It is meet, therefore, that, in what has been had been but a frightful fall upon us, joy should freely mingle with our sadness; for while the man is gone from us, and gone forever, his good deeds remain

We mourn: truly, sadly, sincerely mourn. the entire world could boast of none so But who, amid all the grief by which we are pure and spotless. But I have of late surrounded, can fail to joy over the political been seeing and hearing of the bloody righteousness which already surrounds his itated a moment at receiving just such deeds of which she has been made the em- grave. Abraham Lincoln has but become terms as Sherman has given them; and cold in his coffin, yet, in consequence of this, well they might, for they would have discordant elements have become concordant, been reciving, as a reward for their treach- ferred to: blood and death that circles round her and a world unites in peans to the noble am- ery and for the evil which they have in folds, speiling her beauty and tarnishing bition, the exalted virtue, and the uncomprohet honor. But no; day by day has she mising patriotism which marked the man .been dragged deeper and deeper into cru | Partizans who, blinded by their zeal, could elty and oppression, till now (in my eyes) see no good in Nazareth living, mourn Nazher once bright red stripes look like bloody areth dead with an intensity and a fervor that augers most potently for our bleeding country. Parties which, a few days ago, were arrayed against each other in the gall deem it a dishonor in attempting to make of bitterness, in the crushing force of their their crimes, and it places them in posifor her a prisoner of this man, to whom grief appear prepared to bury their animosshe owes so much of misery. If success ities in the grave with our dead Presi- the past, for the ruin of the best country dent. Demagogues may except to this .-They say that she has found that "last Men who live, move and have their being power behind stronger than the power madness. Should I reach her in safety continuance of party bickering; but the thinking masses, the men who by their votes give mission to triumph or die in that same body, and life, and soul to party, will hesitate long before they shut their eyes to the unerring pointing of the Divine finger for the country's future. A more perfect union of the people for the sake of the Union was their partizan passions: it needed a terrible, be his last. stunning national calamity to bring us to a common center of thought, that we might enter harmoniously on the work before us .-For this, as whom He loveth He chasteneth. God permitted the deed we mourn, that good might come from our sorrows. The people accept the mournful token and, to-day engage as one man in the reconstruction of this asylum for the oppressed on a basis at once firm, invulnerable and everlasting as the hills. Pitiful indeed must be the condi- plimentary to one who has hitherto been tion of that man who would attempt to mar looked upon as standing in the front rank the harmony thus engendered around the of loyalty and patriotism. bier of the illustrious dead; and lamentably demented must be be who can hasten through a lip-service of sorrow, over the greatest caformation that the President's murder was lamity that ever befel a nation, to sound an Major Gen. Dix, New York : alarm lest party suffer from the affliction.

The oppressed still mourn. Abraham Lincoln was their friend, and they had already by the head of the Department, this morn- the United States, and will to the best of all States to be guaranteed, so far as the ard, is believed to be one of the St. Al- began to sensibly feel the good effect of his ing to Andrew Johnson, Vice President, my ability preserve, protect and defend Executive can, their political rights and friendly offices, when the hand of the assas- upon whom the Constitution devolved the Constitution of the United States." franchises, as well as their rights of persin shut him from their sight forever. Their the office of the President. loss is indeed severe. Early and late, in season and out of season, whether enjoying the Mississippi River at Turkey Bend a moments repose or immersed in the cares which was occupied by Texas cavalry, on and herculean labors of his exalted position, of the United States, and assumed its duthe night of the 16th, escaping the ob- he still had a thought for them, a word hav- ties and functions. servation of the Naval forces; and it is ing for its object the bettering of their condiof both thought and word. Abraham Lincoln Building, and among other business the loved liberty, and it was the most earnest desire of his soul that every man should be the event of being pressed by the United free. The oppressed, therefore have reason to mourn; but in his principles, which would their respective departments. not suffer a single slave on this liberty conse- 2. William Hunter, Esq., was appoincrated land, and which still live, there is ted Acting Secretary of State, during the an agent which will never cease from labor disability of Mr. Seward, and his son, Atlantic to the Pacific, smiling cottages with Secretary. teeming fields and forests, and thriving cities and villages will present a landscape unmarred by a single human being in bondage.

Even the Rebels mourn. Living, they es- during the day. the road a rest is taken, when funeral sayed to hate and despise Abraham Lincoln: honors, in form, are bestowed upon the dead, they mourn him as their best friend .-With him there was hope of an easy step Frederick Seward. The murderers have ples consonant with popular rights more from treachery satiated to the performance not yet been apprehended. of duty under the old Government; without him him they have little to hope save through President Johnson is winning golden opin- the gallows and the felons-cell. They have ions, from all who come in contact with him. most reason to mourn; for it was through In all governmental transactions he shows the damnable teachings of their treason that a readiness and tact that augers well for Booth, and his co-conspirators, were led to sent an official communication to the our future; and, we doubt not, that as soon forget themselves men and to assume the Hon. Andrew Johnson. Vice President as the quidnuncs get through speaking at character of demons. But for treason there that in consequence of the sudden and him, and depart for their homes, the good would have been no incentive to Presiden- unexpected death of the Chief Magistrate, of the sacrifice of many thouold ship of State will get under way, and be tial assassination. As treason did exist, and speedily guided into the haven of peace .- as assassination followed as one of its certain The President appears to have no conceal- fruits, it is meet that while the loyal mourn ments as to his policy with reference to reb- with hope, traitors should mourn, not only els and the rebellion. The rebellion must without hope, but with the certainty that it would be agreeable to him to have the that I want your encouragement and banded, and used to conquer and subdue be crushed at all hazards, and treason is a just punishment will follow as a reward for proceedings take place at his rooms in countenance. I shall ask and rely upon the loyal States.

The nation still mourns. A good man rangements could be perfected. Chief ment through its present perils. I feel, el authority in their respective States be had of the author. come controling maxims in his administra- has fallen. The nation's best friend has Justice Chase was informed of the fact, in making this request, that it will be they would be enabled to re-establish tion. On the question of the status of States stepped from time to eternity. But though in rebellion, the President holds that the Abraham Lincoln is dead, his good example the Treasury Department, Attorney Gen. At the conclusion of the Company with Secretary Department, Attorney Gen. State is not dead, but that its life is only and his good works are before his successor, Speed, F. P. Blair, Sr., Hon. M. Blair, suspended, to be restored as soon as Union men enough are found in it to manage the blishment of the mighty and the received the kind wishes plishment of the mighty and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. BUCHAN'S English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the received the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's English Specific and the Rebel States to DR. Buchan's Engli helm. In speaking of the effect of restora- plishment of the mighty end. It is a com- Minnesota; Yates, of Illinois, Stewart, of of the friends by whom he was surround- the debt consummated by the Rebels in Pills cure in less than 30 days, the worst A State may be in the Government with though our President elect is dead all is not General Fainsworth, of Illionis. a peculiar institution, and by the operation lost-that the Union will be saved-that of revellion lose that feature; but it was a peace will be restored—that through the State when it went into rebellion, and when means inaugurated by him who is no more, impressive manner. God will, in His own good time, build us up Mr. Johnson received the kind expres- Mr. Johnson is in fine health, and has forget to rejoice that he who has gone was and made a brief speech, in which he cretary of State.

General Sherman.

The country will receive with feelings of the most profound regret, the news of Gen. Sherman's arrangement with Gen. Lincoln is dead his principles, which made Joe Johnson, commanding the rebel forhim a peculiarly shining mark, still live, ces in his front. It cannot be called and will continue to live and bless the human surrender, unless a surrender of every-And even now I would hold my life as race, until the last man shall have stepped thing honorable on our part to the rebels, except the army itself. Hitherto Gen. Sherman, has stood in the front rank in four years had never been enacted, or if contemplating the infliction so suddenly let the estimation of the people; and we regret, for the sake of his good name, that he has permitted himself to be so horri bly overslaughed by the wiley Rebel lea-

At no time, we verily believe, within the last two years, would the rebels have hesflicted upon the country, all that they could ask, save the acknowledgement of their independence. It gives them the privithis city, and died at the hour of twenty ilege of going to their homes as discharged two minutes after 7 o'clock this day .veterans, rather than as prisoners of war; About the same time at which the Presiit gurantees them against being called to account either in person or property for tion to rule, in the future, as they did in under heaven. Thank God there is a only in the throes of a neighborhood's and a which did this wicked thing, and that nation's troubles may call lustily for the pre- power has promptly repudiated the iniservation of party organization, and for the quity, and sent Grant to remedy the evil geney of the government demands that ent :to an unconditional giving up of their treason. In another column we give the dent of the United States. If you will as well as the official repudiation of it by arrangements as you deem proper will be President Johnson and his Cabinet. We necessary, ere we could enter wisely upon believe this is Sherman's first attempt at a proper reconstruction of our Union. Men's Diplomacy. We hope for his own sake, minds were shrouded in the blackness of and the sake of the country, that it may

It is said that the indignation exhibited by Sherman's troops, on receipt of the news of the arrangement was of the most startling character. Little less startling was the indignation expressed by the loyal North. For the moment the people were stunned by the enormity of Sherman's folly, but that soon gave way to an expression of opinion by no means com-

Official Announcement of the Induction of President Johnson. Washington, April 15.

Official notice of the death of the late President, Abraham Lincoln, was given

Mr. Johnson, upon receiving this notice appeared before the Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Chief Justice of the United States, and took the oath of office as President following was transacted:

3. The President formally announced that he desired the present Secretaries of regarded as a guarantee of the future .- | ly obtain necessary authority and to car- the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It Departments as his Cabinet and that they My past public life, which has been long ry out the above programme. could go on and discharge their respec- and laborious, has been founded, as I in They mourn the corruption of the body, but tive duties in the same manner as before good conscience believe, upon a great Commanding the Army of the United it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly let them rejoice that the spirit of Abraham the deplorable event that had changed principle of right, which lies at the basis Lincoln lives, and still labors to hasten the the head of the government. All busi- of all things. The best energies of my

E. M. STANTON, Sec. of War. The Inauguration of President Johnson

Washington, April 15. At an early hour this morning the Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War, his inauguration should take place as soon as possible, and requesting him to state the place and hour at which the ceremony should be performed.

Mr. Johnson immediately replied that the Kirkwood House as soon as the ar. you and others in carrying the governand repaired to the appointed place in heartily responded to by you and all other Slavery. company with Secretary McCulloch of patriots and lovers, of the rights and in-

United States, in his usual solemn and the necessity for the speedy inauguration been recognized by every department of the President was gravely discovered by every department of the President was gravely discovered by every department of the President was gravely discovered by every department of the President was gravely discovered by every department of the President was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by every department of the president was gravely discovered by the pr will penetrate the darkest corners of the surrounded in a manner which showed that has been confided to him. William every degree who had slaughtered our March 17, 1864 .-

"The duties of the office are mine. will perform them. The consequences are with God! Gentlemen, I shall lean upon you; I feel that I shall need your support. I am deeply impressed with the solemnity of the occasion, and responsibility of the duties of the office I am assuming ' Mr. Johnson appeared to be in remarkably good health, and has a high and realizing sense of the hopes that are ing produced a most gratifying impression upon those who participated in the ceremonies.

The Induction of Mr. Johnson into office. Washington, April 16.

Yesterday morning Attorney General Speed waited upon the Hon. Andrew Johnson, Vice President of the United States, and officially informed him of the sudden and unexpected decease of President Lincoln, and requested that an early hour might be appointed. The following is a copy of the communication re-

Washington City, D. C., April 15. 1865 .- Sir : Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, was shot by an assassin last evening at Ford's Theater, in dent was shot, an assassin entered the sick chamber of the Hon. Wm. H. Se ward, Secreatey of State, and stabbed him in several places in the throat, neck and face, severely, if not mortally wounding him. Other members of the Secretar's family were dangerously wounded by the assassin while making his escape. done, by vigorously pressing the Rebels you should immediately qualify accordtion, and enter upon the duties of Presiofficial report of Sherman's arrangement, please make known your pleasure, such

Your obedient servants. Huge McCulloch, Sec. of Treasury. Ed. M. Stanton, Secretary of War. Gideon Wells, Secretary of Navy Wm. Dennison, Postmaster General James Speed, Attorney General. of the United States.

o'clock a.m. Hon. Salmon P. Chase was of the States respectively. notified of the fact, and desired to be in | Third-The recognition by the Exec Yates, Stewart, Hale, and General Farns- Court of the United States. worth. After the presenation of the Fourth-The re-establishment of all "I do solemnly swear that I will faith | laws of Congress. fully execute the office of President of Fifth-The people and inhabitants of

Mr. Johnson remarked:

Gentlemen, I must be permitted to say, The President met the heads of Depart- petent to perform duties so important and and quiet, abstain from acts of armed hosgiven as the opinion of well informed tion, and a deed to secure the consummation ments in Cabinet meeting, at the Treasury so responsible as those which have been tility, and obey laws in existence at any so unexpectedly thrown upon me. As place of their residence. to an indication of any policy which may | Seventh-In general terms war to 1. The arracgements for the funeral be pursued by me in the administration cease, a general amnesty, so far as the exof the late President were referred to the of the government, I have to say that ecutive power of the United States can several Secretaries, as far as relate to that must be left for development as the command, or on condition of disbandment administration progresses. ness in the departments was suspended life have been spent in endeavoring to Commanding Confederate States Army in establish and perpetuate the principles of The surgeons report that the condi- free government, and I believe that the tion of Mr. Seward remains unchaged; he government, in passing through its presis doing well. No improvement in Mr. ent perils, will settle down upon principermanent and enduring than heretofore. I must be permitted to say, if I understand the feelings of my own heart, that knew that he (Gen. Sherman,) had no I have long labored to ameliorate and authority to enter into any such arrangeelevate that condition of the great mass ment. of the American people. Toil and an honest advocacy of the great principles of free government have been my lot .-Duties have been mine-consequences of my political creed, and I feel that in sand loyal lives, and an immense treasure, the end the government will triumph, and placed arms and munitions of war in and that these great principles will be the hands of the rebels at their respective TION TO YOUNG MEN and others, who

In conclusion, gentlemen, let me say the armies of the United States were dis. Decay of Manhood, &c., supplying at the fort, a consolation, a joy in our sorrows, that Nevada; Hale of New Hampshire; and ed, and a few minutes were devoted to the name of the State. conversation. All were deeply impressed At 11 o'clock the oath of office was with the solemnity of the occasion, and of loyal State governments and the new Urinary, Sexual, Nervous Affections, no adminstered by the Chief Justice of the the recent sad occurrence that caused State of Western Virginia, which had matter from what cause produced. Price, of the President was gravely discussed.

Heaven's afflicting dispensation, let us not bility so suddenly devolved upon him, partment, has been appointed Acting Se- their crimes.

The Policy of the New President. Washington, April 15. held their first formal meeting this afternoon, at the Treasury Department. President Johnson, in conversation the pressure of our victories and left them with a gentleman to-day, said at present in condition to renew their efforts to ohe saw no necessity for an extra session verthrow the United States Government, of Congress, and further that he would and subdue the loyal States, wherever their not commit himself to a policy which strength was recruited and any opportuwould prevent visiting condign punish- nity should offer. centered upon him. His manner was ment on traitors. He had been fighting solemn and dignified, and his whole bear- rebels here and in Tennessee, and his previous course might be regarded as an indication of his future conduct upon this Negotiations with Johnson .- A suspension of Hostilities and a "Basis for Peace" agreed upon .- They are Disapproved at Washington .- Immediate Resumption of Hostilities ordered!-Gen. Grant to Command in Person .-Memorandum of Agreement between Gen. Sherman and Gen. Johnston.

Washington, April 22, 1865. As reports have been in circulation for ome time of a correspondence between Gens. Johnston and Sherman, the memorandum or basis of what was agreed upon between these two Generals, and the results, are as follows:

MEMORANDUM.

Memorandum or basis of agreement made this 18th day of April, A. D. 1865, near Durham's Station, and in the State North Carolina, by and between Gen. Joseph A. Johnson, commanding the Con-By the death of President Lincoln the federate Army, and Maj. William T. Sheroffice of President has devolved under man, commanding the Army of the Unithe Constitution upon you. The emer- ted States in North Carolina, both pres-

First .- The contending armies now in ing to the requirements of the Constitu- the field to maintain their statu quo until notice is given by the commanding general of either one to his opponent, and reasonable time-say 48 hours-allowed

Second-The confederate armies now in existence to be disbanded and conducted to their several State capitals; there to deposit their arms and public property in the State arsenal, and each man to exccute and file an agreement to cease from acts of war and abide the action of both J. P. Usher, Secretary of the Interior. State and Federal authorities. The number of arms and munitions of war to be To Andrew Johnson, Vice President reported to the Chief of Ordnance at And our land enjoy sweet peace ! Washington city, subject to future action | Will Old England brave the whip Mr. Johnson requested that the cere- of the Congress of the United States, and (She in foretimes vainly strove to slip) mony should take place at his rooms at in the meantime to be used solely to main- By interfering 'gainst the powers the Kirkwood House, in this city at ten tain peace and order within the borders

attendance to adminster the oath of of- utive of the United States of the several fice. At the above named hour the fol- State Governments, on their officers and Or, will some freak of future mar lowing gentlemen assembled in the Vice Legislatures taking the oath prescribed by The greaseful projects of the many, President's room : Hon. Salmon P. Chase, the Constitution of the United States, and | Counting largely, on the golden penny ! Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Mr. Attorney where conflicting States Governments have Questions somewhat important those Gen. Speed, F. P. Blair, sr., Hon. Mont resulted from the war, the legitimacy of gomery Blair, Senators Foot, Ramsey, all shall be submitted to the Supreme Suited to Springtime be procured, above letter the Chief Justice adminis- Federal Courts in the several States with tered the following oath to Mr. Johnson: powers as defined by the Constitution and After receiving the oath, and being de- son and property, as defined by the Conclared President of the United States, stitution of the United States and of States respectively.

that I have been almost overwhelmed by Government of the United States not to the announcement of the sad event which disturb any of the people by reason of has so recently occurred. I feel incom- the late war so long as they live in peace of the Confederate armies, and the distri- ralgia, Rheumatism, Gont. Headache, Blind-The message or declartion must be bution of arms and resumption of peacemade by the acts as they transpire. The ful pursuits by officers and men as hitheronly assurance that I can now give of to composing the said armies, not being until, from Maine to the Rio Grand, from the Frederick W. Seward, the Assistant the future in reference to the past. The fully empowered by our respective princicourse which I have taken in the past in pals to fulfill these terms, we individually connection with this rebellion must be and officially pledge ourselves to prompt- cal. This "Cure" expels the poison from

States in North Carolina.

J. E. Johnston, General. North Carolina.

This proceeding of Gen. Sherman was to those afflicted with the complaint cannot unapproved, for the following, among oth- be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the er reasons:

First-It was an exercise of authority said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer not vested in Gen. Sherman, and on its complains that it is not a good medicine to face shows that both he and Johnston

Second-It was a practical acknowledgement of the rebel Government.

Third-It undertook to re-establish the Rebel State Governments, that had been capitals, which might be used as soon as suffer from Nervous Debility, Premature

Fourth-By the restoration of the Reb-

Fifth-It might furnish a ground of June 2, 1864 .- 1y. responsibility by the Federal Government the United States Government. as a beacon of liberty so pure, that our rays sions of the gentleman by whom he was an earnest sense of the important trust confiscation laws, and relieved Rebels of Seventh-It practically abolished the earth. While we mourn, in all sincerity, his earnest sense of the great responsi- Hunter, the Chief Clerk in the State De- people from all pains and penalties for

Eighth-It gave terms that had been deliberately, repeatedly and solemnly rejected by President Lincoln, and better terms than the Rebels had ever asked in President Johnson and his Cabinet their most prosperous condition.

Ninth—It formed no basis of true and lasting peace, but relieved Rebels from

MOBILE

100 Guns and 1,000 Prisoners Taken .-3,000 Bales of Cotton secured-The City Formally surrendered on the 12th

OFFICIAL.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, Saturday, April 22.

Major-Gen. JOHN A. DIX, New York! In a dispatch dated Mobile, five o'clock, p. m., April 14th, Major Gen. Canby reports as follows:

We find in Mobile and its defenses on the west side of the bay over 150 guns. and a very large amount of ammunition and supplies of all kinds, and about one thousand prisoners. Inventories are now being taken, and a detailed report will be forwarded as soon as they are completed. The quantity of cotton will probably reachthree thousand bales, and there is a large amount of provisions and forage, &c. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

MARRIED.

At the M. E. Parsonage, Stroudsburg, on the 22d inst., by Rev. W. J. Paxson. Charles H. Lee, and Rachel Lee, both of Stroud township, Monroe Co., Pa.

DIED.

In Stroud tsp., on the 24th inst., Mr. Jesse Slutter, aged about 63 years. In Stroudsburg, on the 25th inst. Mrs. Amelia E., wife of W. Bittenbender, aged 26 years 7 month and 17 days.

QUESTIONS.

As old winter's hastening on, And may in a short time be gone An important question will Soon the minds of many fill. Think ye, 'tis when will war cease. Of "Might and Right," which still are ours! Will wily Nap-of hoodwinked France. Against justice dare to hurl a lance! Will oil stock remain at par? Second howe'er to, where clothes Of which men may be well assured. They're neatly fitting and of latest style! We reply to this-of R. C. PYLE.

OF We are closing out our heavy winter stock, at greatly reduced prices. We have also on hand a splendid stock of cloths, casimeres and vestings, just purchased which our friends will do well to take a look at,

Ayre's Ague Cure.

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Sixth-The Executive authority of the Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Agne, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Aque, Periodical Headache or Billions Headache, and Billions Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Agne is not the only consequence of the miasmetic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Newness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spine, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put is not only the most effectual remedy ever safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighberhood.

Prepared by J. C. Ayre & co., Lowell. Mass., and sold by Wm. Hollinshead, Dreher & Brother, in Stroudsburg, and by dealers in medicine everywhere. August 4, 1864.-1yce2m.

OF AN INVALID.

Published for the benefit, and as a CAUsame time THE MEANS OF SELF-CURE. By one who has cured himself after undergoing considerable quackery. By enclosing a postpaid addressed envelope single copies may cases of Nervousness, Impotency, Premature Sixth-It put in dispute the existence Decay, Seminal Weakness, Insanity, and all mail, on receipt of an order. Address,

> NATHANIEL MAYFAIR, Esq., Brooklyn, Kings Co., N. Y.

JAMES S. BUTLER, Station D. Bible House, New York