CONSTITUTION WATER.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine proves it to be the most perfect remedy ever discovered.— No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions to the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands un-rivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY, PHYSICAL PROSTRATION, INDIGES-TION, NON RETENTION, OF INCONTINENCE OF URINE, IRRITATION, INFLAMMATION OF ULCER-ATION OF THE BLADDER AND KIDNEYS, DIS-EASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, OR BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT, and all Diseases or Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, and Dropsical Swellings existing in Men, Women, or Children.

For those Diseases Peculiar to Females, Constitution Water is a Sovereign Remedy.

These Irregularities are the cause of frequently recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the difficulty becomes chronic, the patient gradually loses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

Youatt's Vegetable Condition Powders.

Prepared from Youatt's original recipe, by WM. HOLLINSHEAD, DRUGGIST.

The manufacturer of the above Powder, takes pleasure in recommending it to the owners of Horses, Cattle, Hogs and Sheep, as being the best thing of the kind ever offered to the public. In the spring of the year when a horse is about shedding his coat, nothing will do him better service than a teaspoonful of the Powder every morning, well mixed with his feed. This Powder is a preventive of disease as well as a cure.

DISTEMPER.—It has cured hundreds of horses of this troublesome disease.

COWS.

This Powder given in the same manner, for the same disease, will procure safe and speedy cures.

HOGS.

Hogs and young Pigs during the summer, after overheating themselves, get swelled necks, coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, which causes them to die suddenly. These affections may be entirely prevented by putting a pound of "You-att's Powder" into a barrel of swill. It will hasten the fattening process.

[From The Easton Daily Express.] THE SCIENTIFIC COURSE IN LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.

We briefly alluded yesterday to the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College and the formal organization of the new English and Scientific Department. An event of such importance, not only to the Borough, but to the whole State, and we may add to the country at large, demands a more extended notice.

The Curriculum of the new course was divided into 16 distinct departments, as follows:—

MENTAL AND MORAL PHILOSOPHY.
POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY.
GENERAL AND APPLIED CHEMISTRY.
MATHEMATICS AND ASTRONOMY.
ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND COMPARATIVE PHILOLOGY.
ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.
BIBLICAL INSTRUCTION.
HISTORY AND RHETORIC.
PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.
MINING AND METALLURGY.
BOTANY AND ZOOLOGY.
GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.
PHYSICAL CULTURE.
CIVIL AND TOPOGRAPHICAL ENGINEER-ING.
MECHANICS AND EXPERIMENTAL PHILOS-OPHY.
MODERN LANGUAGE.

To each of these departments (except three, reserved for the annual meeting in July,) a Professor was elected, and measures were taken to secure at once the necessary Cabinets and Museums. These are designed to illustrate all the departments of Natural Science, especially Min-eralogy, Lithology; Geology and Palaeon-tology; Botany and Zoology. Collections are also to be made of models and drawings of furnaces, mining tools, machines, and structures instructive to the Engineer and Architect. The Observatory which has just been erected, consisting of a Tower and two Transit Rooms, and fitted up with a revolving dome and telescope, a Transit instrument, and other apparatus for the observation of astronomical facts, will afford every opportunity for the thorough study of Astronomy, while the various laboratories in the handsome building now being erected by the munificence of Barton H. Jenks, Esq., will be fitted up with all the most approved modern appliances for operation in inorganic, organic, and analytical Chemistry, and especially in Assaying and Metallurgy, under the immediate supervision and instruction of the accomplished Professors who have charge of those departments.

The general course is arranged parallel to the Classical so that those who do not wish to study Greek and Latin, may study the Natural Sciences, Mathematics, Modern Language and Literature, History, Rhetoric, Logic, Metaphysics, Ethics, &c., as thoroughly as they are studied in our best Colleges, and at the same time enjoy all the cultivation and learned habits and associations of College life.

But in addition to this general Course of Instruction which is designed to lay a substantial basis of knowledge and scholarly culture, elective studies are arranged for the Senior year and for a Post Graduate Course, so that the students may, if they choose, devote themselves to studies essentially practical and technical; viz.:— Engineering, Civil, Topographical and Mechanical; Mining and Metallurgy; Architecture; and the application of Chemistry Agriculture and the Arts.— There will also be afforded an opportunity for special study of Trade and Commerce; of Modern Language and Philology; and of the History and Institutions of our own country. In fact the whole Curriculum seems to have been arranged upon the basis of the most approved Polytechnic and Scientific Institutions of the land, and we cannot refrain from again congratulating our citizens on the honor as well as the more practical and substantial advantages of having such an Institution here.

The new Professors are not only men of learning and talents, but what is of the utmost importance, experienced in teaching; all of them having occupied distinguished positions in various Colleges; three of them formerly members of the Faculty here. Of the Rev. Dr.
George Junkin who takes the chair of Political Philosophy, we need say nothing. He is too well known here and too highly honored to need commendation from us. As the first President of Lafayette his name is linked to the College, and his return to these scenes of his early labors will be hailed with delight by all who know and appreciate his worth.— Many an alumnus of Lafayette will hear with gladness that his honored instructor is again to be identified with "Alma Mater." Rev. Dr. Burrows, formerly Vice-President of the College and more recently President of the San Francisco College (the first College established on the Pacific coast) returns also to his old home with the cordial greeting of his former colleagues, and our own citizens generally who have not forgotten his scholarship, his sincere piety, and his many accomplishments.

Maj. H. T. Lee, A. M., an alumnus of the College and a member of the Faculty several years since, is well known to us all as a polished gentleman and a scholar of high attainments. Nor can we believe that all of our citizens have forgotten the Rev. Thomas C. Porter, D. D., the distinguished Professor of Natural Science in Franklin and Marshall College.

He graduated at Lafayette twenty-six years ago, and his whole life has been spent in the Professor's chair, pursuing with enthusiasm the studies of his department. He now returns to the Faculty his former instructor in Natural Science, Prof. Traill Green, M. D. It is enough to say of Prof. Porter that he is a worthy pupil of one of the most eminent scholars and one of the most thorough instructors that our country has produced. The Rev. H. S. Osborn, LL. D., who takes the chair of Mining and Metallurgy, was formerly Professor in Roanoke College. He is widely known among men of science for his original researches, and for many valuable discoveries. He has published a number of books of great learning, and the Trustees of the College may well congratulate themselves and the public on having secured his services.— Prof. Charles H. Hitchcock, A. M., of Amherst College, and recently Chief of the Geological surveys of Maine and North Carolina, takes the chair of Geology and Mineralogy. No one is unacquainted with the name of his honored father, President Hitchcock, one of the pioneers in Geology, and one of the ablest savans in this or any other country.— Prof. H. is said to possess much of the genius and enthusiasm of his father, though young has already achieved a distinguished reputation in his favorite department. Mr. Meigs, the Tutor in Engineering, and a graduate of Lafayette, we hear good accounts. He has been connected nearly four years with the Engineering department of the Reading Rail Road, in which he has won deserved and rapid promotion.

Of course, all the members of the present able Faculty share in the instruction to be given in this scientific course, and we must not omit to say that Tutor Selden Coffin, A. M., was promoted to the Adjunct Professorship of Mathematics, a position he has fairly earned by his acquisitions in this department, as well as his original ability and skill as an Instructor.

Taking therefore the present members of the Faculty with the new Professors elected, and the three to be chosen in July, Lafayette College will have a Board of Instruction not surpassed in numbers or ability by any Institution in the country; so that the value of Mr. Pardee's noble gift is greatly enhanced. In no other way could he have invested, his money so advantageously to the cause of scientific education. The Philadelphia Telegraph in a recent editorial highly eulogistic of Mr. Pardee, refers to this, and says,

"He has done wisely, too, in connecting the scientific school with an existing college rather than in founding a new one. The multiplication of colleges is not always an advantage. They may be so crowded as to interfere with each other, and so retard, rather than advance, the work of higher education. Moreover, this arrangement secures the collateral aid of the professors already at their posts in the College, and thus, without additional expense, contributes a large and experienced working force to the new Faculty."

It may be well here to give the complete roll of the Faculty as it now stands: President Cattell, Mental and Moral Philosophy.
Rev. Geo. Junkin, D. D. Political Philosophy.
Prof. Traill Green, M. D. General and Applied Chemistry.
Prof. Jas. H. Coffin, L. L. D. Mathematics and Astronomy.
Prof. Francis A. March, A. M. English Language and Philology.
Rev. John Leaman, M. D. Anatomy and Physiology.
Rev. J. K. Eckard, D. D. History and Rhetoric.
Rev. Lyman Coleman, D. D. Physical Geography.
Rev. Geo. Burrows, D. D. Biblical Instruction.
Rev. H. S. Osborn, L. L. D. Mining and Metallurgy.
Rev. T. C. Porter, D. D. Botany and Zoology.
Prof. Charles H. Hitchcock, Geology and Mineralogy.
Prof. Henry T. Lee, A. M. Physical Culture.

Prof. R. B. Youngman, A. M. English Philology (adjunct).
Prof. S. T. Coffin, A. M. Mathematics (adjunct).
Mr. William G. Meigs, A. M. Tutor in Engineering.
Mr. James W. Moore, A. B. Tutor in Mathematics.

In addition to these Instructors, Mr.
C. L. Rehn, A. M., a gentleman of scientific culture, and who is well acquainted with most of the Polytechnic Schools of Europe was appointed Curator of the Museums and Cabinets, and also to superintend the erection of the new buildings.

Our space will not permit us to say all we wish, and we shall recur to the subject again. But last Wednesday was certainly a memorable day for Easton.— Such men as A. Pardee, of Hazleton; B.
H. Jenks, of Bridesburg; Joseph H.
Seranton, of Scranton; Morris Patterson and A. Marion of Philadelphia; Thomas Beaver, of Danville; Col. Dorris, of Huntingdon; Dr. Curwen, of Harrisburg, and others no less distinguished for energy and liberality mean something when they come together upon an occasion like this.

It is proper to say that besides Mr. Pardee's munificent gift of $100,000, the Trustees of the College have contributed to its fund during the last year over $50,- 000! The College has now a permanent endowment of more than $200,000, and by a generous donation from John I.

Blair, Esq., the Trustees have recently added over twelve acres of valuable ground to the College premises. The Alumni Professorship has made steady progress so that by next Commencement, it is expected that their full sum will be added.
Almost daily some former student sends his subscription of $100, or declares his intention to do so at an early day, all alike animated by a generous impulse to share in the noble work, and unwilling that the "roll of honor" shall be completed without their names; and we are sure a broad foundation has been laid, that other men like that noble, generous Philadelphian, Mr. William Adamson, will honor themselves by endowing additional Professorships.

One of the Wonders of the World.
The Del. & Hud. Canal Company have now piled at this place in the neighborhood of 350,000 tons of coal. This simple announcement may not excite the wonder of the general reader, but when we add that the pile referred to is, so far as there is any record, the largest body of coal ever collected in one heap on the face of the earth, his attention may be secured to a few curious calculations.

These cars in which the coal is brought from the mines to this place, when coupled together, average about fifteen feet in length, and carry about three and three-quarter tons. To remove the stock at this point at one load it would therefore require a train of 93,333 cars, reaching 265 miles in length; and if unloaded at the rate of one car in every five minutes for ten hours each day, the train would be considerably upwards of two years in discharging its freight, allowing no rest for Sundays.

The vastness of the accumulations on our docks awaiting the opening of the season's navigation, will more clearly strike the ordinary consumer, if we base our calculations on the quantities in which it is generally delivered. A procession of 700,000 carts would be needed, reaching in one continuous line considerably more than 2000 miles—and requiring, provided they could be simultaneously loaded, and all start at the same time, traveling at the rate of four miles per hour, ten hours a day, upwards of fifty-three days, to pass a given point.

Again, let us suppose the Company generous enough to make some man a present of the pile on condition that he remove it with a wheelbarrow, carrying one cwt. at each load, and making a trip every fifteen minutes. A simple calculation shows that working the ordinary hours, he would be over 610 years in securing his treasure.

When we take into consideration the fact that this immense stock is not much more than one-fourth of the amount which will find its way to Roudout through this place during the year, and that the Del.
& Hud. Railroad and Canal is only one among a large number of avenues by which the products of our mines reach a market, we shall begin to appreciate the untold wealth of our State and the magnitude of the interests involved in its development.—Honesty Herald

A Noble Hearted Girl.
An incident has lately come to our knowledge which we think we are justified in alluding to. A Miss Jennie Synder, of Rush township, Northumberland county, a poor, but noble hearted girl, was betrothed to a Mr. Kline. Mr. K. volunteered at his country's call and received a bounty of four hundred dollars, which he gave to his lady love with this condition; that if he was not spared to return the money was to be her's. Mr.
K. was killed or died in the service, but Miss S. instead of retaining the money in a selfish grasp, employed a committee to pro
