CONSTITUTION WATER.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine proves it to be the most perfect remedy ever discovered.—No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions to the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY, PHYSICAL PROSTRATION, INDIGESTION, NON RETENTION, OR INCONTINENCE OF URINE, IRRITATION, INFLAMATION OF ULCERATION OF THE BLADDER AND KIDNEYS, DISEASES OF THE PROSTRATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, OR BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT, and all Diseases or Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, and Dropsical Swellings existing in Men, Women, or Children.

For those Diseases Peculiar to Females, Constitution Water is a Sovereign Remedy.

These Irregularities are the cause of frequently recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist Nature, the difficulty becomes chronic, the patient gradually loses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

SEC. 2. And that any person who, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, shall subject, or cause to be subjected, any inhabitant of any State or Territory to the deprivation of any right secured or protected by this act, or to punishment, pains, and penalties on account of such persons having at any time been held in a condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except for the punishment of crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, or by reason of his color or race, than is prescribed for the punishment of white persons, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. That the District Courts of the United States, within their respective Districts, shall have, exclusively of the Courts of the several States, cognizance of all crimes and offences committed against the provisions of this act, and, also, concurrently with the Circuit Courts of the United States; of all causes, civil and criminal, affecting persons who are denied, or cannot enforce in the Courts of judicial tribunal of the State or locality where they may be, any of the rights secured to them by the first section of this act; and if any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, has been or shall be commenced in any State Court against any such person, for any cause whatever, civil or military, or any other person, any arrest or imprisonment, trespasses or wrong done or committed by virtue or under color of authority derived from this act, or the act establishing a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen or Refugees, and all acts amendatory thereof, or for refusing to do any act upon the ground that it would be inconsistent with this act, such defendant shall have the right to remove such case or trial to the proper District or Circuit Court in the manner prescribed by the act relating to Habeas Corpus, and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases, approved March 3, 1863, and all acts amendatory thereto. A disastrous tornado passed over a portion of Montgomery County, Ind., on Tuesday night of last week. The wife of Mr. Henry A. Foster, who resides near Parkersburg, two of his children (the third sleeping,) and Miss James, daughter of Matthew James, visiting at Mr. Foster's, were instantly killed. The residence of William Myers, one mile west of Ladoga, was unroofed, his barn badly injured, and about 160 acres of fine timber totally destroyed. The brick house of William Frame, north of Ladoga, was badly injured, and his barn totally destroyed. His loss is reported at some $4,000. M. B. Anderson also sustained considerable loss in the way of timber and outbuildings. Further east the dwelling of Mr. Zach Paffley was destroyed.

"The Gallant Sixty-Ninth."

Two gallant sons of Erin, being just discharged from the service, were rejoicing over the event, with a "wee taste of the cratur," when one, who felt all the glory of his own noble race, suddenly raised his glass above, and said, "Arrah, Mike, here's to the gallant ould Sixty-Ninth—the last in the field and the first to leave!"

"Tut, tut, man," said Mike, "ye don't mane that."

"Don't mane it, is it? Then what do I mane?"

"You mane," said Mike, and he raised his glass high, and looked lovingly at it—"Here's to the gallant ould Sixty-Ninth, equal to none!" and so they drank.

Since thier sojourn in Cambridge they have had a beautiful chariot built for her accommodation. The interior is provided with a bed upon which the queen can recline while traveling through the country; and there are also apartments provi led for her husband and child.

A prominent lawyer of Adrian, Michigan, received, on Tuesday last, a letter reading as follows:

"Mr. ——: Dear Sir—I made a contract with Mr. —— to sell him a piece of land, but he now writes to me that he will not take it. I desire you to say to him the first opportunity, that I consider him a d—d scoundrel. I inclose $1, which will pay you for your trouble.

"How dreadful that cigar smells!" exclaimed Cushing to a companion; "why, it's an awful smelling thing!" "Oh, no; it's not the cigar that smells," was the reply. "What is it, then?" inquired Cushing. "Why it's your nose that smells, of course; that's what noses are made for."
