

The Farmer that Would Not Sell

Mr. Coffin, in his "Four Years of Fighting," tells the following incident, which occurred as our troops were moving to Gettysburg:

When the 5th Corps passed through the town of Liberty, a farmer rode into the village, mounted on his farm-wagon. His load was covered by white table cloths.

"What have ye got to sell, old fellow? Bread, eh?" said a soldier, raising a corner of the cloth, and revealing loaves of sweet, soft, plain bread, of the finest wheat, with several bushels of ginger cakes.

"What do you ask for a loaf?" "I haven't any to sell," said the farmer. "Haven't any to sell? What are ye here for?"

The farmer made no reply. "See here, old fellow, won't ye sell me a hunk of your gingerbread?" said the soldier, producing an old wallet.

"No." "Well, you are a mean old cuss. It would be serving you right to tip you out of your bread cart. Here we are marching all night and all day to protect your property and fight the rebels. We haven't had any breakfast, and may not have any dinner. You are a set of mean cusses round here, I reckon," said the soldier.

A crowd of soldiers had gathered, and others expressed their indignation. The old farmer stood up on his wagon seat, took off the table cloths, and replied:

"I didn't bring my bread here to sell. My wife and daughters set up all night to bake it for you, and you are welcome to all I've got, and I wish I had ten times as much. Help yourselves, boys."

"Hurrah! hurrah! hurrah! Bally for you!" "You're a brick!" "Three cheers for the old man!" "Three more for the girls!"

They threw up their caps, and fairly danced with joy. The bread and cakes were gone in a twinkling.

"See here, my friend, I take back all the hard words I said about you," said the soldier, shaking hands with the farmer who sat on his wagon overcome with emotion.

The boarders at the hotel in Skilletsville were recently awakened out of their slumbers by the Glee Club of the village, who commenced a serenade to a young lady, which appeared to run thus:

"Oh Tillie Rice, I've called you twice, And yet you lie and snore! I pray don't tarry, But listen to Harry, And open to him the door,

Or the window, I don't care much which, For it makes but little difference To either you or I— Big pig, little pig, Root hog, or die."

Trying to Decide. A traveler stopped at a public house in Maine for the purpose of getting dinner, knocked, but received no answer.

Going in he found a little white-headed man in the embrace of his wife, who had his head under her arm while with the other she was giving her little lord a pounding. Wishing to put an end to the fight, our traveler knocked on the table, and cried out in a loud voice, "Hallo, here! who keeps this house?"

The husband, though much out of breath, answered, "Stranger, that's what we are trying to decide."

During a recent trial in Bangor, Maine, one of the witnesses was asked of whom he learned the business of silver-plating. He answered, "Mr. Johnson." A racially Black Republican outside the bar, queried: "Was it Andy?" "No, sir," said the witness, "he is in the copper business."

Recently, in Boston, Mr. Simon S. Barry, a Jew, was sued for Sabbath breaking, in keeping his cigar store open for business on that day. The Court held that as he had kept the Jewish Sabbath he was not amenable for trading on the Christian one. This goes a step farther than any decision previously made, but will be sustained by most men who have considered the full import of religious liberty.

A lady of Preston, Ct., lately gave birth to two infants so diminutive that one of them weighed less than one pound and a half, while the other was but little over two and a-half pounds. So says a Boston paper.

Be careful of counterfeit ones, twos, and fives, U. S. Treasury notes, and twenties on various national banks. Some of these notes are very well calculated to deceive.

You may depend upon it that he is a good man whose intimate friends are all good, and whose enemies are all of a character decidedly bad.

Misfortunes work more or less according to the weakness or resolution of the patient.

Dinner for nothing is very good fun; but you can't say as much of nothing for dinner.

A woman's grief is very short. If she loses her husband she pines only for a second.

Never cry before you're hurt.

A CARD TO THE LADIES. Dr. DUPONCO'S Golden Periodical Pills, FOR FEMALES.

Infalible in Correcting Irregularities, Removing Obstructions of the Menstrues, from Whatever Cause, and ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL AS A PREVENTIVE.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were first discovered by Dr. DUPONCO of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions, as well as in private practice, of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of Ladies who have used them, that he is induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any Irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it.

ONE PILL IS A DOSE. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition lest they "invite miscarriage," after which admission, the Proprietor assumes no responsibility, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health, otherwise the Pills are recommended as a MOST INVALUABLE REMEDY for all those afflicting complaints so peculiar to the sex, viz.: Distressing and Painful Menstruation, Retention, Pain in the Back and Loins, Pressing-Down Pains, Rush of Blood to the Head, Dizziness, Dimness of Sight, Green Stickness, Heaviness, Fatigue on any Slight Exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, and all the various distressing complaints, particularly that most annoying weakening, and the beginning of all other female weaknesses.

The Leucorrhoea, or Whites. At the same time, there is nothing so these pills that can do injury to life or health. Let the directions be strictly followed, and you will find them to be all they are represented.

ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT. 50,000 Boxes have been Sold Within Two Years. Ten Thousand Boxes sent by Letter, both by myself and Agents, to all parts of the world, to which answers have been returned, in which ladies say, nothing like the above pills have been known since the SCIENCE OF MEDICINE DAWNED UPON THE WORLD, In Removing Obstructions and Restoring Nature to its Proper Channel, QUIETING THE NERVES and bringing back the "Rosy color of Health" to the cheek of the most delicate.

PRICE $1 PER BOX. SIX BOXES $5. Sold in Stroudsburg, Pa., by DREHER & BROTHER, Sole Agent. Ladies by sending $1.00 to DREHER & BROTHER, Stroudsburg Post-Office can have the pills sent (confidentially), by Mail, to any part of the country, "free of postage." Nov. 22, 1866.—1yr.

The subscriber has opened a Day and Boarding School, at Shawnee, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of furnishing Ladies and Gentlemen, at home and abroad, an opportunity to pursue any studies they may desire, to fit them for the various duties of life.

The location is unsurpassed in the richness and variety of its surrounding scenery. Its fine valley, its beetling cliffs, and lakes imbosomed in the mountains, all combine to make it one of the most desirable places for a Boarding School. The location is healthy, and free from the corrupting influences in and near cities and large towns. For further information, address the undersigned, Shawnee, Pa. Rev. J. K. DAVIS, Principal. J. LANZ, DENTIST.

Has permanently located himself in Stroudsburg, and moved his office next door to Dr. S. Walton, where he is fully prepared to treat the natural teeth, and also to insert incorruptible artificial teeth on pivot and plate, in the latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trusting their work to the ignorant as well as the traveling dentist. It matters not how much experience a person may have, he is liable to have some failures out of a number of cases, and if the dentist lives at a distance it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the teeth or teeth as it may be, other wise the inconvenience and trouble of going so far. Hence the necessity of obtaining the services of a dentist near home. All work warranted. Stroudsburg, March 27, 1862.
