Thrown from a Sleigh.

Mr. Alexander Atwood, an employee of Dodge & Co., at Tobyhanna Mills, was thrown from a sleigh on Monday last, and had his left elbow badly fractured. He was brought to the office of Dr. Jackson where his injuries were dressed.

Farmers, and land owners generally, should read the article on our first page, headed—“Titles by which land is held in Pennsylvania.” It possesses an important interest for them. There are other articles on the first as well as on the fourth page worthy of perusal.

This Changeable Weather is very trying to health, particularly for such as are troubled with any pulmonary weakness. Even a little hoarseness may so irritate the lungs as to produce the most direful consequences. COE'S COUGH BALSAM cures hoarseness every time.

Fire.

The dwelling house of George W. Price, in Barrett township, together with its contents, was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last. The fire was discovered by Mr. P. about 5 o'clock, but had already made too much headway to be arrested. Loss $1,500. Insured in the Monroe County Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Railroad Accident.

A Scotchman, named John Riddell, in the employ of Taylor & Co., was injured by the engine of a gravel-train passing over his right foot on Monday last. He was brought to the office of Dr. Jackson the same evening, when it was found necessary to perform a partial amputation of the foot, which was promptly done by Dr. W. W. Bidlack, Dr. Jackson's assistant. He is doing well and is likely to make a good recovery.

In pursuance of the recommendation of the Grand Lodge, the brethren of Fort Penn Lodge, No. 124, I. O. O. F., intend observing Friday, the 26th inst., as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, for preservation of the Order through the rebellion. Services, which will include a sermon by the Rev. J. Kirby Davis, will be held at the Methodist Episcopal Church, which has been generously tendered for the occasion, commencing at 2 o'clock, p. m. The public are cordially invited to participate in the services.

The Stroudsburg Bank.

The Legislature having relieved the Stroudsburg Bank of a portion of its financial burden, by reducing its capital stock to $100,000, by reducing the $25 paid in by stockholders to $12 50 in value, and by authorizing the directors to assess $12 50 on each share of the capital stock, the bank, we learn, will commence of a new. Preparatory to this the directors have, with the consent of the stockholders, resolved to make the full assessment of $12 50 per share, and have declared that it be paid in instalments, as follows: $5 on the 1st day of May, $5 on the 1st day of July, and $2 50 on the 1st day of August next.

First of April Changes.

THE ANALOMINK HOUSE.—A. M. Jones, Esq., formerly Station Agent at the Stroudsburg Depot, having purchased the Delaware House, near the depot, and changed its name to the Analomink House, took charge of the house, in person, on Tuesday, and will hereafter conduct it himself. The Analomink House is very pleasantly located, is but a short walk from town, and we know that neighbor Jones will demonstrate to everybody that he knows how to keep a first-class hotel. Mr. Delp, the former landlord, takes a house in Delpsburg, Northampton county.

Barnet Mansfield retired from the Indian Queen on Monday, to take charge of the store which he purchased of T. M. Mellhoney (late Geo. Fable's). He moves into the dwelling purchased by him from the heirs of Joseph Kerr, deceased. Uriah Sandt, of Northampton county, who comes to us well recommended as a landlord, takes charge of the Indian Queen.

Bush & Brother, retired from the Washington Hotel on the same day, and is succeeded by A. W. Clark, of Hainesburg, N. J., who will, doubtless, conduct the Washington in a superior manner.

John Eilenberger, long a resident of our borough, has moved, with his family, to Factoryville, Wyoming county, and is succeeded in his residence here by Jacob Weller, of Ashbury, N. J., to whom he sold his property.

H. C. Levanway, having sold his Baking establishment, has gone to Lehigh-ton, Carbon county, where he goes into business.

Sheriff Boesard has gone to Fennersville, to live on the Fenner property purchased by him last fall. We learn that he intends engaging in the Tanning business.

Henry Shoemaker, has removed to Potteryville, in Bradford county, where he is engaged in the mercantile business.

Joseph Metzger and Charles Feileneer, took possession of the farm, mill and distillery, purchased by them of Jerome S. Williams, at Kunkletown, Hamilton township.

Robert Boys, has removed his store from the stand occupied by him for the last ten or twelve years, to his old stand adjoining his residence farther down town. The Messrs. Bush (Robert and Henry) succeeded him in the brick store, where they will open with a stock of dry goods and carpets.

The Post-office has been removed from the residence of Henry Bush, where it has been kept since September last, into M. M. Burnet's tailor shop, next door above the Methodist church. M. M. Burnet, we learn, intends erecting a new building for the post office, forthwith.

Charles Musch, has left his farm and moved to town, to make room for Jacob F. Herzog, of Scranton, to whom he sold the property.

Wm. Davis, Esq., moved his residence to the building vacated by Henry Shoemaker, and his law-office to the building adjoining, occupied by Charlton Burnet, Esq., on Main-street.

Charlton Burnet occupies a portion of his dwelling house as a law-office.

Dr. G. W. Seip, moved his residence and office into the building vacated by Wm. Davis, Esq., having purchased the property last fall.

James H. McCarty, moved his cabinet-ware rooms into the Odd-Fellow's Hall, occupying the first and second stories and the basement.

Miss S. De Young, who made way for Mr. McCarty, moved her millinery shop into the room recently occupied by the post-office.

John B. Storm and David S. Lee, Esquires, have opened an office in the 2nd story of Keller's new building, over the shoe store.

Congress adjourned on Saturday last, after having labored diligently, and we think the result will prove successfully, for the perfect and permanent pacification of the country. Already the note of acquiescence is being heard in the South—the active and ostracized rebels being most strenuous in their exhortations to the people, black as well as white, to accept the situation. None but Copperheads in the North and the “fuss and feather” men, the men who were “all gass and no cider,” in the South find fault with Congress; and even the more sensible of the former are urging the weaker spirits to cave in. Except among the office-holders, and those who are seeking office, A. J. finds but few willing to stand by his fallen fortunes.

The weather for several days past has been delightful; just such as a well-behaved spring should afford. March redeemed its reputation, which it had almost forfeited, by going out like a lamb, and April 1st drizzled a little, merely to let us know what it could do, if disposed to act ugly. The burning of brush and rubbish in the gardens of our borough, clearly indicate that our citizens have serious intentions of indulging in spade and rake exercise, preparatory to an early indulgence in salads, “inguis,” peas, &c.

The Spring Elections.

Purely out of consideration for the feelings of our Copperhead friends hereabouts, who have been made to feel outrageously bad and blue, over the many defeats they have sustained at the ballot-box, and from the cartridge-box on many a Southern battle-field, during the last seven years, we refrained from even making mention of the splendid victory achieved by the Republicans at the recent election in New-Hampshire. We had intended observing the same silence in regard to Connecticut, in case our friends carried that State, because we knew that the Cops would be “down, derry down” to the very lowest depths of remorse, over the manner in which the people were punishing them for their trucklings to treason, and their prayers that rebellion might triumph and the Government might be destroyed. But Connecticut has done something for them in the election of a Governor and three out of four Congressmen, and we feel like letting them up a little by publishing the news. It is true the Legislature is “O. K.” as we used to say in “Hard-Cider” times, for the Union, and will stand as a brake on any little peccadillos which Governor English may see fit to indulge; but then they have carried the Governor and the three Congressmen which is matter enough for rejoicing for them. So Cops to the rescue, say we.

“Bring out the lev-gag
Twang the pizzericum,”
and let treason, bad whiskey and the voices of Copperheads, generally, culminate in a thousand cheers for small favors most thankfully received from the wooden nutmeg State.

The hauling of wagon loads of household and kitchen furniture through our streets, and the active movements of business men, all gave assurance, on Monday last, that the first of April had arrived. In the houses of the movers there was a promiscuous clearing out of pots and kettles and barrels and beds and every thing moveable; while from the pocket-books of the debtors greenbacks fairly leaped forth to swell the coffers of the creditors. Take it all in all, men and maidens and matrons, and rats and mice and bed bugs, and all interested in the toil and turmoil of moving-day, found themselves, when Monday night came, a tired set of critters. We did not move, but we sympathized with those who did, and we can yet be found at the old spot, ready to enter new names on our subscription-book, or to sign beautifully printed receipts for all who wish to liquidate arrears.

The following are the names of the lucky ones, residing in this county, who drew prizes in the Soldiers' Union Gift Lottery, at Mauch Chunk:—
Peter Gilbert, Long Valley, No. 5001, 50 lbs Navy Tobacco, $50.
John Harter, Kunkletown, No. 5938, Violin and Bow, $16.
Wm. H. Mustetter, Brodheadsville, No. 1193, galvanized Coal Scuttle, $3.
Peter Gilbert, Long Valley, No. 1124, Gold Pen, $3.50.
Johnson K. Bush, Stroudsburg, No. 4594, sett Silver Forks, $30.
J. M. Heller, Fennersville, No. 3739, No. 2 Balmoral, $4.50.
Frank Heany, Stroudsburg, No. 6950, College Shirt, $6.50.

Col. Frank Jordan has issued a call for a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee, at the Lochiel House, Harrisburg, on the 9th of April. The principal object of assembling the Committee on that occasion is to fix a time for holding the Republican State Convention for 1867. It is the earnest desire of Col. Jordan, Chairman of the Committee, that all its members be present, as it is possible that other business of importance may be brought up for consideration.

The Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Church, after a session of one week at Harrisburg, adjourned on Wednesday night at 12 o'clock. Over $500,000 were collected last year, within the limits of its jurisdiction, for church purposes. Eighteen churches were erected, and eleven new parishes created, during the same period.

Horrible Indian Massacre—Butchery of a Company of U. S. Troops—Unparalleled Scenes of Barbarity.

We are kindly permitted to make the following extract from a letter dated Fort Sully, D. T., February 25, 1867, and received in this city on Saturday.—ED. INQUIRER.

“There has been quite a stirring excitement in this part of the country with the red-skins. I suppose you know of the Fort Kearney affair also. You ask me how far it is from us? It is about fifteen hundred miles northwest from here. By the upper mail, which arrived here to-day, we heard some very bad news from Fort Buford. There was one company of our regiment stationed there, under the command of Colonel Rankins. The Indians made an attack on that little band, and it appears from all accounts that they fought bravely until outnumbered by the red-skins, who killed them all but the Colonel and wife. They then took them a few yards from the post, and having built a fire, tied the Colonel's hands and feet and put him on the fire, while his wife was compelled to see him burning. After that was done they maltreated her in a shameful manner, and having rolled her up in a buffalo robe, they fastened her on a wild horse and turned him loose. God only knows how long she was on the prairie, but it happened very fortunately, that the mail carriers forth at fort encountered her in that condition, and after they had heard who she was they took her in their charge and returned with her and the mails to Fort Rice.

The Indians were 1800 strong—our men only 96. They fought them three days; but on the third day the Indians took the place, scalped all the dead, and those who were officers they cut up into small pieces and ate them. That is considered bravery! It will not be good for them if they make their appearance around this fort. We are very well guarded.—There are six companies here—four of infantry, one of cavalry and one of artillery. The weather here has been very cold.—We have lost nearly all of our stock—frozen to death.

The Macon (Ga.) Journal takes a sensible view of President Johnson and his course, and gives expression thereto in a forcible way, thus:—

“Andrew Johnson has at last yielded. Thank God for it. He has done us an immense deal of harm; crippled us when our armies were in the field; rejected the terms which Grant and Sherman gave us, and then, at last, has kept sectional hate and animosity stirred up against us by his unwise course and his foolish conflict with Congress and Northern sentiment.

“And now we hope President Johnson's opposition to the Government will cease. He has opposed it so long, and induced our people to oppose it so long, holding out to us the false idea that he would do something for us, that he has done us infinitely more harm than all other men and all other causes combined. But for him we would long ago have been admitted into the Union, and upon far better terms than we shall now be able to obtain. He has been the most effective enemy we have had.”

The Richmond Dispatch has been looking around to ascertain who will be eligible to office under the changed condition of affairs, and is quite eager to find so many capable persons still left to take charge of public matters. The disfranchisement of former leaders and representative men imposes the duties upon those not disqualified, and consequently the young men of the present generation must take upon themselves the burthen of office. This shows the wisdom of the Congressional action in the premises. It is well for a new set of men to come into power at the South, for they will have less to unlearn than their seniors. Under their guidance the Southern States will much sooner recover from the calamities of the war than under the leadership of the men who brought on the struggle, and will sooner find themselves in harmony with the Northern people.

The Bids for the State Loan.
Harrisburg, April 1.—The bids for the twenty-three million loan of Pennsylvania were opened to-day. About $1,000,000 was bid for at par at five per cent. per annum, and about $31,000,000 at six per cent. The bids exceed the amount wanted by about $8,000,000. Drexel & Co., Jay, Cook & Co., and E. W. Clark & Co., get about $16,000,000, at premiums ranging from one twentieth to one sixteenth per cent premium.

Detectives for Dry Goods Clerks.
The New York papers announce that several of the large dry goods establishments in that city have established a detective force, which is employed to look after the clerks. The detectives visit all sorts of places, and if a clerk is seen where he should not be, a quiet dismissal, and “no reasons given,” follows at once.

The House has passed a bill increasing the fees of county officers twenty per cent. The increase includes Sheriffs, Clerks of Courts, Attorneys, Aldermen and Justices of the Peace in all Counties of the State except Philadelphia. The increase in the fees of Registers and Recorders is still larger than those above named.

The members of the Legislature are thinking of increasing their own pay to $1,500 for each session. If they would only make their pay so high that the people would be content with biennial or triennial sessions, their rapacity might be pardoned.

The Prison Agent at Philadelphia states that of the 19,463 commitments, last year, 14,361 were on account of offenses traceable directly or indirectly to the use of intoxicating liquors.

That must have been a high old dance in New Orleans, where a young woman's dress was set on fire from a chandelier over her head.

The friends of General Banks have raised a sufficient sum of money to relieve his homestead at Waltham from debt, and to refit and refurnish the house.

As the American Watches made at Waltham, are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal Office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen.—All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruddy complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen.—Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficiency in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and giving the service as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
