Having procured one of Gordon's Fast Printing Machines, we are now fully prepared to print Bill Heads, Prescriptions and other Labels, Cards, Circulars, Letter Heads, Envelope Cards, Dodgers, Pamphlets, &c., &c., either in plain or colored inks, or in bronze, with the greatest dispatch, and at the lowest city prices.

LOCAL NEWS.—Our subscribers, and other living about the county are particularly requested to send in the particulars of such matters of interest as may transpire in their several localities. Marriages, deaths, proceedings of important meetings, new improvements, &c., are all wanted to make up a miscellany of home news interesting to every body. State every thing in your own way, writing names distinctly, and we will prepare it for our columns.

As usual our first and fourth pages abound in good things.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday we were favored with a chilling air and rain, showing that bitter winter has still a haunting notion to rest his hoary head in the lap of gentle spring.

Delay not till to-morrow what should be done to-day. Cure that cough before it is forever too late. One bottle of Coe's Cough Balsam will cure. It is agreeable, cheap and effectual. A word to the wise is sufficient.

We learn that the Del., Lack. & Western Railroad Company, have perfected all their arrangements for the rapid pushing of the second track of the road to completion. If what has been intimated to us be true, there will be lively times for laboring men along the road, during the summer.

Messrs. R. P. & H. D. Bush, announce the opening of their new store, with new goods, in this week's paper. A store room splendidly fitted up, shelves crowded with the most beautiful goods, which are cheerfully exhibited by accomplished and accommodating salesmen, and prices marked down to the very lowest figure should be inducements sufficient to draw a rush to the new store.

Nicholas Ruster has recently returned from New-York, with one of the largest, best, and cheapest stocks of ready-made Clothing, Hats and Caps, and fine goods ever offered for sale in this neighborhood. Calicoes, Muslins, and a full assortment of every thing in his line of business will be found on his shelves and counters. Give Nicholas a call by all means.

There will be preaching, by Rev. D. M. Henkel, next Sunday morning, at half-past ten o'clock, in the Court-House. Sunday-school will be opened next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, under the supervision of the Lutheran Church, for the reception of scholars.

Rev. Henkel expects, in a few days, to call upon the public generally, for subscriptions towards building a Lutheran Church in this place.

Of the many Cosmetics and Toilet Articles now advertised, few prove to be what they are represented. Messrs. Berger, Shutts & Co., Chemists, of Troy, N. Y., are advertising extensively several articles that have proved themselves just as represented, for which they are acting as agents. We believe them to be perfectly trustworthy, and that parties using their preparations will find them fully up to the recommendations given. See their advertisement in another column of this paper.

Collector Hetrich, of Easton, arrived in town on Friday last, and proceeded at once to investigate the charge of fraud preferred against the Rectifying firm of J. S. Williams & Co. After a most critical examination of books, papers, witnesses, &c., he could discover nothing to sustain the charge, and at once delivered to Messrs. Williams & Co. possession of their business. People who are acquainted with the fair, open manner in which the business of the firm was invariably conducted expected no other result from the beginning.

The display of radishes, lettuce, onions, oyster plant, spinach, pie plant, in short everything desirable in shape of early vegetables, spread out by friend Janson, at his store, opposite Levanway's Bakery, during the past week, for the inspection and supply of customers, was really very fine, and reminded one of a city market stall. We learn that the stock will be kept up to the demand, and that the public may rely on getting fresh vegetables at reasonable prices. The stock of canies, nuts, and of green, dried and canned fruits is also superb. Archie's enterprise certainly deserves to be rewarded with a liberal patronage.

Friday last was, in pursuance of previous arrangement, observed by the Odd-Fellows of our borough as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer. At two o'clock the members met at the Hall of Fort Penn Lodge, where a procession was formed, and from thence, at half-past two, marched to the Methodist Episcopal Church, which had been kindly loaned for the occasion, where religious services were held, under charge of the Rev. J. Kirby Davis, Chaplain of the Lodge, assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Everitt, of the Presbyterian, Alday, of the Methodist and Heakel of the Lutheran churches. The sermon by the Chaplain, from the text—Psalms cxlvii: 20—was an excellent production; tracing causes for thankfulness by our whole people, but especially by the Order of Odd-Fellows, from the settlement of the country down to the present time. It was filled with valuable instruction and precept, and was well calculated to turn the mind into that glorious channel which leads to deeds of humanity and to the adoration of humanity's God. The reading of a portion of Scripture by the Rev. Mr. Everitt, and the prayers by the Rev. Dr. Alday and the Rev. Mr. Henkel added much to the impressiveness of the services. The brethren will, doubtless, long remember the day and its exercises. We learn from our exchanges, that the day was very generally observed throughout the United States; and that, in sympathy with the occasion, a congratulatory despatch was received by the Grand Sire, over the Atlantic Cable, from the Grand Sire of the Manchester Unity of England. May the Order live to celebrate Thanksgivings for its preservation until time shall be no more.

Gen. Sickles; Daniel E. of democratic fame, has been giving the unreconstructed natives of Charleston, South Carolina, a lesson in Unionism, by teaching them, as one of the fundamental rudiments, how to pay a proper respect to the Stars and Stripes. It appears that last year the emblem of our liberties was altogether ignored in the firemen's parade, while banners of every other imaginable device, bespangled the line of procession almost as plentifully as the stars bespangle the heavens. A few days ago, the time for the annual parade having again arrived, the firemen gathered en masse, but no star-spangled banner was visible any where. The General thought the omission was altogether too glaring to be unionly wholesome, and, at once, issued orders that the procession should not be permitted to move without the stars and stripes being prominently displayed in its line—that it should be carried in front of the procession,—that it should be planted in front of the reviewing stand—and that each fireman, when he arrived within three paces of it, should raise his hat and march, uncovered, three paces beyond it, or suffer arrest. It is unnecessary to say that the General's orders were strictly complied with, and that the lesson was practiced to perfection. What a foundation this, on which to raise a "Democratic," "Constitution" and "Union-loving" howl. Only to think of the outrage on civil, religious and political rights thus committed, in compelling the chivalrous Southern defenders of the Confederate Constitution and flag, to salute, bare-headed, the odious banner under which they and theirs were made to trail in the dust. Bleeding indeed, and sore beyond description, over such exhibitions of "tyranny" must be thy hearts, O, Copperheads!

Mrs. Luke Staples, of Stroud township, in this county, had a horse stolen, while on a visit to her son-in-law, Mr. George Knauss, at Egypt Mills, in Pike county, on Saturday night last. Mrs. S. left her home here on Saturday afternoon, and arrived at Egypt Mills early in the evening. Her horse was put up, and fed with oats and hay, and all was supposed to be safe. In the morning, on going to the stable, the horse was found to be missing; and the evidence is, the oats having all been eaten while the hay remained untouched, that he was stolen soon after the family retired to bed. The thieves also took a buggy and harness belonging to Mr. Knauss, and a buffalo robe belonging to Jacob Nye. The robe had stamped upon it the name of Henry Peters. The thief with the stolen property was traced to this place and Bartonsville, at which point all traces of him were lost.

Those of our readers who lack a growth of hair upon their face, or whose hair is falling out, or have become bald, would do well to try "Dr. Seivigne's Restaurateur Capillaire." This preparation has been used by thousands in this country and Europe, with the most gratifying results. Testimonials of the most flattering character have been received from the most wealthy and influential citizens of the country, and will be sent free to any one, on application, by Messrs. Berger, Shutts & Co., Chemists, of Troy, N. Y., the only agents in America for the sale of the same. Read their advertisement in this paper.

Bad for the Democracy. While the Democratic party, its leaders, its presses and its rag, tag and bobtail, are waiting patiently for the accomplishment of reconstruction, in hopes that its old friends in the South will, like the sow, return to their wallowing in its political mire, and restore to it power, the old leaders, the old press and the old party generally in Dixie, are fast discovering the folly of the pastime, and that if they would again be of any account, they must accept of the new situation, and join heartily in the new order of things which their own blind adherence to demagogues and demagoguism, has, in self-defence, forced upon the country. To secure Southern support Democrats are sounding the alarm most lustily, and, causing crocodile tears to course down their cheeks, much after the fashion of one wave of old ocean following another. But the bait does not seem to take. "Burnt children," says the old saw, "dread the fire," and Southerners begin to think that there is a wholesome lesson contained in the adage. Thus, while Reed, and Vallandigham, and the Woods, and the hosts of greater and lesser satellites of the party North are beckoning their former Southern brethren to prepare to come to the rescue; Orr, and Lee and Longstreet and Hampton, and their Southern confederates, are cautioning those whom they lead against the commission of any such foolishness. They see that, while the Democracy led them into the folly of rebellion it was powerless to aid them in their attempt upon the life of the government, and that it is still more powerless to lead them out of it. They want peace; but they can see no peace through the machinations of Democratic tricksters, who caajoled them into war and then deserted them. They want prosperity; but they cannot see it along the road which led to their present despoiling in personal liberty, in prosperity, in civil and political rights, and which robbed them of their status as men. They want the plenty, in which they formerly revelled; but they know they cannot find it through that Democracy of sentiment which has finally brought them, as beggars, to the very doors of that Radicalism and that North which, for nearly six years, they fought to destroy. These Southern leaders have at last become sensible men, and they spurn the Democracy, as they would spurn the adder from their bosoms. It is not strange, therefore, that Democratic leaders cry in vain for help; or, that Southern leaders speak of an old score to settle with the Northern Democracy; or, that Southern papers, acting under wholesome advice from those in whom they have confidence, and whose wisdom was obtained through bitter experience, proclaim, as does the Charlotteville (Va.) Chronicle, that "The first thing requisite for the pacification of the country is for the Democratic party to dissolve," and "that any alliance of the South with the Democratic party will be hopeless." Experience has taught the South of the perfect nonentity of Democracy in the fulfillment of pledges; and that the profession of conservatism with which Democrats approach them, is but a flimsy covering assumed to hide the demagoguism which had so nearly wiped the Southern people and the Southern States out of existence.

The Easton papers announce the death of the Hon. Alexander E. Brown, who died at that place on Thursday evening last, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. Mr. B. was born in New-York city on the 16th of May, 1802, where he resided until his fourteenth year, when he removed to Princeton, N. J., and entered the Sophomore Class at Nassau Hall. At the age of seventeen he graduated with honors, and immediately commenced the study of Law, and after having been admitted to the bar removed to Easton, where he has resided ever since. He commenced practicing at the bar of Northampton county when but twenty-one years of age. For fervid eloquence, brilliancy of wit, and keenness of sarcasm, Mr. Brown had no superiors and but few equals. As a jurist, he ranked among the ablest in Eastern Pennsylvania. As a man, he was loved and respected by all who knew him. A large circle of friends and acquaintances will retain his good deeds in lasting memory. He leaves one behind to censure or detract.

As Miss Miller, and her scholars, were rusticated in the woods, below the residence of Mrs. Luke Staples, on Friday last, and while two or three of the lads were apart from the rest cutting birch, some miscreant in human shape threw a large stone at the boys, which, hitting Allen Snyder, son of Constable Snyder, on the head, knocked him down and inflicted a very severe and dangerous wound. The lad was brought to town immediately, when Dr. Bidlack attended to his hurt, and we are pleased to learn that he is now rapidly recovering. It is a pity that the perpetrator of the deed could not be discovered and severely punished. It must be a devilish spirit, indeed, which can thus demand the endangering of life, and the breaking up of the pleasures of innocent children, for its gratification.

DR. UP DE GRAFF, Having been earnestly requested to prolong his stay in Milford, has consented to remain until April 12th. He performed an operation, yesterday, on the eyes of Mr. David Sayre, with the most flattering success. Many of our citizens witnessed the operation and all seem satisfied that the Doctor understands his business. He has also operated on several other cases in this place, with equal success. We think he has proven that he is no "Quack" in his composition.—Milford Herald.

DR. UP DE GRAFF will visit Stroudsburg, where he proposes to spend two weeks. We think it is unnecessary to comment at length, upon the Doctor's works while here. It is sufficient to say that he has operated on many persons, and none have had reason to complain.—He leaves here with our best wishes for future success, of which we have no doubt.—lb.

REASONS WHY THE AMERICAN WATCH IS THE BEST. It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its solidity, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "Swiss," "Lepines" and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsuitable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere. How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of trial, we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES and that no other have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert, with no fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warranty is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeit watches will be prosecuted.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation. Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen.—All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ALLOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 11, 1864. Messrs. THOS. ALLOCK & Co.—Please send, with dispatch, twelve dozen Allock's Porous Plasters. Our daily experience confirms their very superior excellence. At this moment of writing a man applies for one, who, by entanglement in the shaft of machinery, had both his legs broken, spine severely injured, and was for nearly a year entirely helpless. This man found relief very soon by the application of a plaster to his spine. He was soon enabled to work, and now he labors as well as ever. He would cheerfully pay $5 for a single Plaster if that could not be had at a lower rate. I am surprised that surgeons do not make use of these perforated plasters to the exclusion of all others, as their flexibility and adhesiveness are greatly in advance of all other plasters with which I am acquainted; while the perforations peculiar to them rendered them surgically superior to all others for ordinary surgical uses. Knowing the plasters to be so useful, I have no scruples that my sentiments should be known.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twelve she really appeared but eighteen.—Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficiency in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the service as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W. C. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same.
